Dayanne Sayers, Moro, has been named to the honor roll of 83 students. Requirements are a study load of 15 hours or more and a 3.50 grade average or better. Dayanne received a perfect grade average of 4.0. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lamer Sayers.

Miss Dorothy Goodenberger came Tuesday morning from Lewistown, Montana, where she is a first grade teacher, to visit a month with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Goodenberger, who met her at Wishram.

A display of the ribbons won at the Junior Horse show at The Dalles last week by Nancy and Janey McKean, and Sharon and Leo Coelsch has been made at Beef'os dining room.

The state highway commission received bids June 30 for construction of a 110 foot reinforced concrete bridge across Grass Valley canyon on the Lonerock road. It will be at a different place and the county will construct the approaches. The bridge now in use is old and apparently in poor repair.

Mrs. Leta Eslinger and her grand daughter Alice Eslinger drove to Hillsboro last week end for a family reunion of the Newton family which included Mrs. Walter Newton of Corvallis, the mother, and Mrs. Keith Byland of Arizona, Mrs. James Thomas of Hillsboro, Mrs. Dell Eakin of The Dalles and Mrs. Eslinger. Walter Eslinger and family were there from Astoria and said he was trying to get out of the navy after 29 years and if so, will go to hospital administrative work in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Jones were in Shaniko Sunday afternoon to attend the farewell dinner given at the Hanks' home in honor of her brother, John Reeder, who is moving to Portland after the better part of a lifetime as manager of the Shaniko store.

Bill Bleker is attending a summer school course at Central Washington college in Ellensburg five days a week, coming home for the week ends.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Shoemaker were here Sunday from Condon to get some things from their house in Moro.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Thompson have moved to the Henkle place near Hay Canyon where he is doing the work for Mrs. Henkle.

State police came through the county Monday and picked up all punch boards found in business places. They were held for evidence at trials to be held in justice court July 13.

A drivers license examiner will be on duty in Moro Tuesday, July 5 at the courthouse between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m.

The Hi Yu 4-H horse club held a meeting June 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rathbun. We practiced showing our horses on showmanship and horsemanship. We practiced figure-eights and sidestepping along with the usual things. Others took tests.

We had a chance to swim before lunch and most of us did. We each brought a sack lunch and Mrs. Rathbun served drinks.

The Hi-Yu horse club held a meeting June 25 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McKean with our horses.

We practiced showmanship and horsemanship. Some tests were passed.

We took sack lunches and Velma McKean served drinks. Later on Mrs. McKean served maple bars.

The next meeting will be July 10 at the fairgrounds, with our horses at 1:00 p. m.

Four members of the Hi Yu 4-H horse club participated in the Junior Horse Show in The Dalles. Bringing home ribbons were: Nancy McKean 1st in Intermediate Showmanship; Janey McKean 1st in Junior Showmanship; Leo Coelsch 5th in Junior Showmanship and 5th in Junior Horsemanship; Sharon Coelsch 1st in Matched Pair with Jan Muller, The Dalles and 2nd in English Equitation.

Each class was very large. Sharon Coelsch, reporter

A driver who is charged with violating an Oregon traffic law anytime after July 1 will receive a ticket which looks very much like the one illustrated above. In this case, the ticket was issued only to show the public how the new Uniform Traffic Citation and Complaint will look when properly completed. The ticket, developed in cooperation with law enforcement agencies and courts, consists of four parts—complaint, police record, abstract and summons. Drivers will receive the portion labelled "summons".

By Pauline Broughton

Last Wednesday John Foss and Alber Kaseberg, coming from different directions, reached the corner near the Foss' home at the same time—no injuries resulted, but both cars were damaged.

Mrs. Leona V. Glider and granddaughter, Gloria Lee, visited the Bill Broughton home on Thursday evening.

David Sill, college student from Portland, is working for the summer with the Game Commission crew headed by Harold Winegar. David has "bachelor quarters" in Mrs. Ida Everett's garage apartment.

Mrs. Murray Walker and son Jimmy of Olympia were guests last week in the Gordon Harper home.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harper were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Anderson, Linda and Scott, of Portland. Linda remained for a longer visit with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton Watkins spent Sunday at McMinnville, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Landers and baby.

Everett Roysse, & Jim Thomas recently drove to Corvallis to escort the latter's brother, John, to the Science Institute held there.

The older boys visited the OSC campus, then proceeded to Eugene, where they were guests of Everett's sister and brother in law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hockley.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Root and family spent several days the first of last week at Klamath Falls and Crater Lake. Son Curtis, who will enter OTI in the fall, took his entrance exams while there. The Roots stayed overnight at the Crater Lake lodge, and reported several deep snow banks still visible in parts of the park.

Several couples from the Wasco Wesleyan group of the Methodist church enjoyed a no-host swimming party at the Paulen Kaseberg home Sunday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Root, Maurice and Janie; Dewey Thomas and son Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley and children and Rev. and Mrs. Eddings and family. Little Stuart Fridley caused a stir when he fell in the pool fully dressed, but he was immediately rescued by his father, with no ill effects.

Kenneth Bish, who was chosen to act as head counsellor for the recent "Junior Engineers and Scientists Summer Institute" held at Oregon State college in Corvallis, returned to Wasco the first of the week with John Thomas, Sherman county boy who was enrolled in the course. Bish will spend the summer here with his brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bish.

Mrs. L. E. Kaseberg was hostess to the Past Matron's club last week at her home. Mrs. Paulen Kaseberg was co-hostess for the meeting featuring a buffet potluck dinner. Past patrons and other husbands were guests at this last meeting of the year. Out of town guests were Dr. and Mrs. Viggo Haufelt and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Root of The Dalles, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Belshee of Moro.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Barnett and children spent several days recently enjoying a short vacation. They drove to Seattle June 14, taking their boat. After spending one night on Mercer Island with Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick Barnett, they launched the boat at Shilshole Bay and enjoyed sightseeing. The first few days they were plagued with chilly, damp weather, but were rewarded by sunny weather for the return trip. Enroute home they visited relatives in Bremerton, and proceeded south from there to Hood Canal, where they found excellent camping and boating facilities, including a pleasant sandy beach for swimming. They returned to Wasco June 17 feeling much refreshed from the little outing.

Marian Rebekah lodge held the last meeting of the year on June 22. Sixteen were present and plans were discussed for the reception to be held honoring the Assembly president in October. Plans were also aired for the district convention to be held in Wasco October 29. At the close refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Haines.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brock left last week for Couer d'Alene, Ida., where they will visit their son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Brock and family.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Barnett spent from Monday until Friday last week in Portland, where Mrs. Barnett visited the clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sargent, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Patrick and Mike, left Monday for Paisley, where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crocker.

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Roysse and Mrs. Augusta Roysse drove to Portland, where Mr. Roysse received medical attention. Mrs. Augusta Roysse remained in Portland until Sunday for a visit with her son, Otis Roysse, and family. Sunday the Portland family brought the elder Mrs. Roysse to Hood River, and were met there by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Roysse and all enjoyed a picnic lunch at the park. Others who joined in the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. Otis Roysse's mother and aunt, Mrs. Charles Sundby and Mrs. Detmer of Portland and her brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. William Sundby and son Terry of Hood River. Also present were relatives of Mrs. Lloyd Roysse, Mr. and Mrs. John Shel-drake and Roger and Mrs. Sheir-bon, also of Hood River.

CORRECTION — Last week's news items stated that Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hines of Seattle were guests of his mother, Mrs. Elva Dehler. It should have been Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hines—brother Joe resides in San Francisco, and is unmarried. Sorry, Joe.
