

Local Personals

The annual Sherman county picnic will be held at Lagrethurst Park Sunday, August 9 at 1 p. m. Coffee and punch furnished, says Lottie Lee Pieper, secretary.

Karl Landstrom and daughter, Karen, flew to Oregon from their home in Arlington, Va., to spend a few days in Oregon. Karl is now on the staff of the House Insular and Interior Affairs committee and has some inquiries to make in Oregon where he will also visit his parents at Lebanon. They were here Sunday to visit M. S. Lanstrom's (Leora Peetz) relatives.

Roy Cyphers is home again after a tour of duty as infantry officer at Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Willy Knighten were here the first days of the week after a trip to San Francisco to visit her sisters who live there. They drove to Seattle and will go to Fairbanks, Alaska to see son, Willy later.

Mrs. Leta Eslinger left Wednesday for Astoria to spend several days visiting with her son Walter and family before they leave for Seattle where he will become civilian manager of a hospital, leaving the navy after the biggest part of a lifetime in it.

A crew consisting of a boss, a couple of boys, a woman or two and some children supplemented by Ivan Kirkelie has been working in the new postoffice building this week putting the thin sheet metal pieces together so operation can start eventually.

Mrs. Tom Woodcock was taken to a hospital in The Dalles Tuesday evening with another attack of the paralyzing illness that has afflicted her for the past two or three years.

Mrs. Mary O. Coons is spending this week at Gresham where she is helping put on the Multnomah county fair and sort of getting in practice for the Sherman county one.

Henry Grabenhorst was at Maupin the first part of the week working with the southern Wasco soil conservation district.

Mrs. Wendell Balsiger and her mother, Mrs. Roy Powell of The Dalles, are spending the week at the Oregon beaches.

There will be a Tupperware party at the home of Katie Goss, Monday afternoon, August 8. Everyone invited.

Ricky Johnson is in a hospital in The Dalles recovering from an infection in one ear which is clearing up. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson.

Roy Cyphers spent a few days in a hospital getting the kinks worked out of his back after lifting a motor while at work at Cushman's this week.

Mrs. Edna Melzer and her grand son, 11, were here Monday after-

Wasco News

By Pauline Broughton

Bradley Barnett, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Barnett, was ill for several days last week with tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Workman and Mrs. Martin and children from The Dalles and Mrs. Leona Van Gilder, enjoyed a picnic dinner Saturday on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Reid.

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Leo Watkins drove to Oswego to attend the wedding of Nancy Vose, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Arno Vose and Carlile Krusi. The affair took place at the Lake Oswego Congregational church.

Terry Kaseberg has been presented with a Certificate of Merit in Farm Mechanics, awarded by the Thor Research Center for better Farm Living of Marengo, Ill., for showing the greatest farm mechanics ability among the graduating seniors of Sherman High School, Moro.

Mrs. Leo Mayers spent the first three days of this week in a hospital in The Dalles with an illness from which she is now recovering at home. The Mayers will move Friday to Walla Walla, Washington.

The Red Cross swimming course was finished last month and some children won awards for ability. From Wasco they were Donald and Douglas Dutton, Fay Larimore, Greg and Billy O'Meara, Michael Patrick, Maurice Root, Nina Rhinehart, Lee Rathbun, Mary Spencer, Joe Thomas, Kent Thomas, Allison Walker, Ann and Cathy Winegar. In addition 22 received cards which are given to younger swimming pupils. About 60 attended from Wasco.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Watkins of Heppner visited briefly at the Funeral of Corwin Barnett Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barnett and Susan from Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Spencer and son Gordon from Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClellan from Mill Valley, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. John G. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Barnett and Mrs. Marie Barnett Cooper all from Portland; Hoyt Barnett of Sausalito, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick Barnett of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Turner and son Donald;

Vinson Watkins home Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Mark White, Joe & Nancy drove to Toppenish Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Clark. On the return trip, they stopped at the home of Mark's brother, R. M. White in The Dalles, to pick up Terry and Linda, who have spent most of the summer vacation with their aunt and uncle.

Mrs. C. H. Barnett left Monday to accompany her son and daughter in law Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barnett, to their home in Chicago.

The elder Mrs. Barnett plans to spend several weeks there before going on to Minneapolis, where she will spend some time with her daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Spencer.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gosson, Denise and Leslie Kay, drove to Portland to help celebrate the birthdays of Mr. Gosson's mother, Mrs. Leo Watkins and sister, Mrs. John Buck of Moro.

Coming from out of town to attend the funeral of Corwin Barnett Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barnett and Susan from Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Spencer and son Gordon from Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClellan from Mill Valley, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. John G. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Barnett and Mrs. Marie Barnett Cooper all from Portland; Hoyt Barnett of Sausalito, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick Barnett of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Turner and son Donald;

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Blakney and Tommy of Bremerton, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. James McClellan and son from Eugene, and a host of other relatives and friends whose names are not given.

Teresa Fridley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley, celebrated her seventh birthday last Saturday with some of her cousins and a few little friends at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Robert Nisbet, where the youngsters enjoyed the Nisbet swimming pool and later shared cake and ice cream. In addition to the Nisbet children, Rene Thomas, Gary and Ted Eddings, and John Richards shared in the fun. Teresa's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McConaughy, were also present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Roysse, Mrs. Augusta Roysse and Mrs. Sallie Wright enjoyed a leisurely drive Sunday that took them up Mt. Adams way to Glenwood. They returned via Hood River, and stopped there for several short visits with Mr. and Mrs. John Sheldrake, Mrs. Sheirbon and Mr. and Mrs. Ed McKee.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley and two children and Mrs. Robert Nisbet and three younger children drove to Viento State park for a picnic. They took with them their niece, Cynthia McConaughy, who had visited here the past week. Her father, Gene McConaughy met the group and escorted his daughter back to Portland that evening.

Capt. and Mrs. Leland Anderson

Pamela and Dabbe spent from Thursday until Sunday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harper and Mr. and Mrs. Art Macheel of Biggs.

Mrs. Floyd Rathbun is suffering from a virus infection and will be confined to her bed for several weeks.

Mrs. Murray Walker of Olympia visited the Gordon Harper ranch early in the week, and took her son Jimmy home with her. Jimmy had spent the past week at the Harper home.

Last Friday Mr. and Mrs. Vern Dutton and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Root drove to Suttle Lake to pick up Don Dutton and Maurice Root, who had spent the past week there at a 4-H camp. Young Doug Dutton had planned to attend, but was stricken with an intestinal ailment on the day of departure and was hospitalized over night. He was disappointed in having to miss the fun of camping with the others.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Root, Maurice and Jane drove to Athena Monday. They reported a hard early morning rain in that vicinity, saying that at 10 a. m. there were still puddles of water on the road.

Prescription Pharmacists

Our Own Acts Affect Our Good Health . . .

. . . and common sense living is an excellent guide to follow. The functions of medicine and surgery are most often used to help nature overcome the results of our own abuses and neglect.

By normal care, by regular living, and with the aid of frequent examination by your Doctor, you can maintain better health. An important part of this care is the use of highest quality drugs and medicines, such as those of Parke, Davis & Company—which are regularly stocked at this pharmacy.

WASCO PHARMACY
PHONE GI 2-5262

Dr. Otis G Perkins
Optometrist
40 E. 2nd St.
Tel. CY-6362 The Dalles, Ore.

PHARMACY

Mother And Baby Doing Fine — In An All-Electric Home!

Electricity warms the meals, washes and dries the diapers, heats the bath water—yes, dependable electric service makes life easier for baby and mother in dozens of ways each day—and for so little cost. That's why modern mothers say... PP&L electric service is today's biggest value!

See the new electric appliances at your dealer's today.

MORO COMMUNITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
9:45 Church School
11:00 Church Service
All who have no church home are cordially invited to worship with us.
Ernest C. Goodenberger, Pastor
The pastor and his wife plan to take their vacation during August. The following ministers will be our guest speakers:
Aug. 7, Rev. William C. Shane, Pastor of Rose City Park Pres. Church, Portland.
Aug. 14 Rev. Titus A. Frazee, Executive Director of the Oregon Council of Alcohol Problems.
Aug. 21 Rev. James D. Moberg, former pastor of this church
Aug. 28 Rev. Earle P. Cochran, former pastor of First Pres. Church at Pendleton

Smith Callaway Chapel FUNERAL SERVICE
Leonard R. Smith
Phone CY 6-3135
The Dalles, Oregon

AT LAST!
An effective economical way to control these noxious weeds:

- ✓ Field Bindweed
- ✓ Canada Thistle
- ✓ Russian Knapweed
- ✓ Leafy Spurge

New Du Pont "Trysben" 200 weed killer controls a wide range of noxious weeds, as well as woody vines and brush. Field tests show "Trysben" will keep roadsides, rights-of-way, fence rows and similar areas free of noxious weeds that have been difficult to kill with other chemicals. See us today for this highly effective new weed killer.

Du Pont TRYSBEN 200
WEED KILLER
Far Chemical Fertilizer Co.
W. More - Dalles - The Dalles
Phone GI 2-5201

PP&L 50 YEARS
PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT
Live Better... Electrically!