Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Christianson took his mother, Mrs. Daisy Byers to Portland Sunday to attend the Sherman County picnic there at Laurelhurst Park. She remained for the week to attend the wedding of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patson, nee Melba Thorgerson.

Mrs. Anna M. Davis, widow of Bert Davis, died in Portland August 7 and was buried in Rose City cemetery. She was for many years a resident of Sherman county.

James B. Adams was elected president of the Sherman County picnic group that holds a picnic usually at Laurelhurst park every August. Mrs. Blaine Damon was elected secretary. There was about 80 former Sherman courtians who attended and several were down from here.

Mrs. Estella Dillinger fell and broke her left arm just above the wrist and is partially laid up at her home at Banks.

Harold Fariello came over from Goldendale Thursday to bring a group of five FFA boys to the fair to judge livestock.

Loy Cochran and Ralph Busse left early Saturday morning for Cochran's mining claim on the lower Rogue river where they will remain ten days or more doing the assessment work and living the life of miners of old.

Ray Kelso in getting ready to leave for another job in Corvallis bequeathed his hunting dog, Slo Mo, to Darwin VanGilder, who had practically inherited him anyway. Mo thinks he owns the entire town and acts it. He will hardly touch a round steak bone and sometimes sniffs at T-bones.

IT DOESN'T ALWAYS PAY TO BE BRAVE...

Adults too often will put on a show of courage with a "cold," rather than retire and rest—and call the Doctor. Pneumonia sometimes attacks such stalwarts.

Do not try to be brave with a "cold," however simple. Follow the well-established guidance—rest, eat a well-balanced diet, and drink plenty of water and fruit juices. If symptoms persist, call your Doctor promptly, while there is still time for treatment of the current illness and prevention of possible hazardous complications. If medicines are indicated, we will be happy to render the best in Pharmaceutical service in filling your Doctor's prescriptions.
