Rufus News

by Mrs. George Fox

The Rufus Home Extension Unit met Thursday at 10:30 a. m. at the Rufus Grange hall with 22 present. The chairman, Mrs. Millard Leight, served coffee to the women as they came in. The December meeting will be a potluck lunch at 12:00 p. m. Hostesses to serve the dessert that day will be Mrs. John Jensen, Mrs. Norval Bevans, and Mrs. Trace Fields. Mrs. Bill Huck and Mrs. Harland McDonald will have charge of the program that day, which will be a Christmas party. There will be a gift exchange of gifts not to exceed 50c in value.

The Rufus Grange held their regular semi-monthly meeting on Nov. 17. The Master, Geo. Fox, called Grange to order, after which the drill team officers took their places to give the third and fourth degrees to the following: Mr. and Mrs. John Beers, Mrs Carol McInnes, Mr. and Mrs Walter Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gayman, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bleakman, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sorrick, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Doyle. After the degree work the Grange resumed their meeting. Mrs. Harland McDonald, on legislation, said we should all get behind our new president. Mrs. Rolland Johnson said the next Home Ec Club meeting would be Dec. 8 at the home of Mrs. Millard Leigh. This will be the usual gift exchange of not to be more than a dollar in value. Rolland Johnson said installation of officers will be held here December 18 at 2 p. m.

A felowship dinner, associated with the Rufus Church of the Nazarene was held at the Grange hall Sunday afternoon. Rev. and Mrs. Griffiths, the pastor and his wife who recently came to Rufus, were sponsors of the dinner. They are building a room in the church basement so the young people can have a place to meet.

Miss Mary Brackett had a Stanley party at her ranch home Friday night of last week.

The Rufus Grange held its second card party at the hall Saturday night. Five tables of pinochle were in play with Atlee Wilson and Mrs. Peter Matz winning the high prizes. Receiving low prizes were Peter Matz and Mrs. Otto Petersen. The Grange women served supper at the end of the card party. The next party will be held December 3.

A group of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Macnab Saturday to give them a house warming. The Macnabs recently moved to the former Aehman house, now owned by Pat Kaseberg, about nine miles south of Rufus.

Here's what PP&L customer Mrs. E. K. Strong says about electric living:

"Here are four good reasons why I call electricity my biggest bargain!"

"With four active children around, you can be sure there's plenty of work to be done. But, when I think of the time and effort my 29 electric appliances save me at a cost of only 35¢ a day—that's a bargain that can't be beat!"

Like Mrs. Strong, thousands of PP&L customers are using lots of low-cost electricity these days. In fact, the average homemaker in Pacific Powerland is using twice as much electricity as the national average!

See your appliance dealer for the many modern electric helpers that are ready to serve you. Then be sure you're making full use of PP&L electric service—today's biggest value!
