Rufus News

by Mrs. George Fox

Mr and Mrs Bill Baum are doing a remarkable job with the square dancing and folk dancing class which was held at Rufus school gym Saturday the 7th. Mr Baum walks the couples in a square in order that they understand the calls, then all dance to music. The music had two loud speakers so all could hear. The women brought sandwiches and cookies for refreshments and a group made and served the lunch in the school cafeteria. A fifty cent charge is made so the school can buy playground equipment. This was a lot of fun and provided entertainment for the local people. There will be another dance Saturday night on January 21. Therefore there is entertainment for each Saturday here as there is a card party at the Grange hall January 14.

After the freezing weather of last week this week the air feels like spring it is so warm out. There's probably more winter lurking around the corner.

Phyllis Lutje Tells Engagement To Wed

Mrs. Eunice Lutje of Wasco, announces the engagement of her daughter, Phyllis Loreen to Robert William Odell Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Odell of Hamel, Minnesota.

Miss Lutje is a senior at Sherman High School and her fiance is a graduate of the College of St. Thomas, St. Paul, Minn. Mr. Odell is employed as a teacher at De LaSalle High School in Minneapolis, Minn.

August 12th has been set for the wedding.

4-H CLUB NEWS

The Playmate Pals had a party for their fun-friends Dec. 19.

We had cupcakes, candycanes, pop and peppermint ice cream. We met again Jan 9. Miss Olsen was our visitor. She helped us plan our program records, she also helps us decide on goals for the end of the year. Stephanie Barnett led us in our 4-H pledge. Ann Winegar led us in a pledge. Linda Hockett brought refreshments. The meeting was called to order by Nina Rhinehart.

The Skrambled Sewers met with Mrs. Myrie Smith Jan. 9 at 3:30 in the Grass Valley school. The girls were reminded that they must be on time. Roll call showed 16 members present. Minutes were read and approved. The girls are to be done with practice projects by February.

For future plans a hair stylist from The Dalles is to visit our club.

Mona Eakin, reporter

The Busy Bumblebees sewing Club met Jan. 4 at 4 p. m. at the Rufus school with Mrs. Petersen as leader.

The members answered roll call by telling what their favorite TV program is. Louana Burnett brought and served refreshments. We played games and sang songs. After the business meeting we sewed on the sewing machine.

Barbara Medler, reporter

The Sews & Sews sewing club met at Mrs. Hockett's on January 4, 1961. We had a business meeting, then Regina Gamble gave a demonstration on how to sew on buttons and hooks and eyes. Mary Coats gave a talk on care of hair. The meeting was adjourned.

The Kent Livestock Club has had four meetings.

At the first meeting held at the Kent school October 29, 1960 we elected officers as follows: president, Don Mobley; vice-president, Roy Sather; secretary, Teressa Bardenhagen; song leader, James Wilson; news reporter, James Tatum. At least one parent of almost all the members was present. Our leader took a record of the animals we are taking to fair.

The second meeting was held at the John Reckman home and the third meeting at the home of Hans Bardenhagen Dec. 6, 1960.

At these meetings we made out a schedule for the year. We have judged pictures of animals and studied the main characteristics of different breeds of hogs.

The fourth meeting was held at the home of Kenneth Sather Jan. 3, 1961. At this meeting we named livestock diseases, planned program for year, talked about advancement program, and then made rope halters.
