

Moro Personals

Mel Schadewitz and his son Orrin, were in Moro last Thursday to do some work on their cemetery lot here. Orrin finished Oregon State this year and will teach science in the Stevenson, Wash., high school next school year.

Earl Griggs is home after two years in Germany where he was an office man in charge of personnel. He likes the army so well he has signed up for another six years to start after he has visited his family here until the 27th of June when he will go to San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles French drove to Medford Sunday to attend the annual meeting of the Southern Oregon Historical society Monday night at which he was the speaker. The old Beekman bank was reopened for inspection of visitors that evening.

Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Goodenberger were married 40 years last Friday night and the occasion was observed by the gathering of friends at the manse to congratulate them on so happy an event. It occurred at O'Neil, Nebraska, a small town near the Dakota line, since then they have been missionaries in southern China, have raised a family, one, Miss Dorothy Goodenberger, being present at the anniversary.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the many friends who sent cards, letters, flowers and gifts and to those who visited me during my time recently spent in hospital and nursing home.

Mrs. Edna Freeman

MORO WOMEN MEET

The Moro Women's Club held its annual potluck picnic June 6, at the home of Mrs. Dewey Thompson. Due to inclement weather the bountiful meal was enjoyed in the comfortable basement. The husbands of the members were special guests.

Mrs. Roy Belshee presided at the business meeting following the luncheon. She reported on the new project of selling "mama labels," to improve the club's finances. Many orders have been received.

A report was made on the number, and types, of books in the Moro Public library.

Ted Thompson, commander of the Chris Schultz American Legion Post, spoke to the group concerning plans for building a community Legion hall, in which the club expects to cooperate. He presented a floor plan approved by the Legion's building committee, and told a few basic plans for the construction.

Mrs. W. A. Burnap, Powell Butte, president of the Fourth District OFWC, installed the officers for 1961-62. Installed for president, Mrs. R. N. Olsen; vice-president, Mrs. Inez Thompson; secretary, Mrs. Harry Pinkerton; treasurer, Mrs. E. Amidon; directors Mrs. Roy Belshee, Mrs. Theodore Johnston and Mrs. A. Douma.

Mrs. Olsen gave an interesting account of her experiences and impressions at the Oregon Federation state convention held in Pendleton May 8 and 9.

Plans were made to hold a club meeting in July to prepare an agenda for the coming club-year. Several morning "coffees" will be held for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

Portland Beaver Manager Vern Benson says

"Sure, I bank at U.S. - doesn't everybody!"

Vern Benson, new manager of the Portland Beavers, hails from Granite Quarry, North Carolina. Vern has found that the famous Southern hospitality of his home state is reflected in the friendly manner of the folks who serve him at U. S. National. Vern especially appreciates the full range of services available at the branch where he banks. Travelers Checks, for example—so convenient and safe for vacationers as well as for people who travel extensively. Vern will readily tell you that U. S. National is his kind of bank. A visit to your nearby branch will prove that U. S. is "your kind of bank," also.
