

Grass Valley

by Ann Balzer

Many friends and members of Sherman chapter No. 122 OES attended the reception honoring Mrs. Wallace May, who is serving as grand representative of Saskatchewan in Oregon, held in the Masonic hall Sunday, Dec. 3 from 2 to 5 p. m. The rooms were decorated with yellow and bronze mums. The program was opened with Mrs. Harold Eakin, worthy matron pro tem, and Harold Eakin, worthy patron, presiding. Mrs. May was escorted to the East, and introduced as grand representative of Saskatchewan in Oregon and presented with a corsage. Mrs. Harry Justesen, conductress, did the escort duty. Mrs. Andy Paulson, worthy matron of Moro chapter was escorted to the East introduced and welcomed and presented with a corsage. The Theta Rho Girls under the direction of Mrs. Earl Olds and Mrs. Art Schilling, presented some drills. During the drills a heart was formed at which time Mrs. Jack Adams, past junior worthy matron, escorted Mrs. May to the center of the heart and presented her with a gift from the chapter with appropriate words of appreciation, then the girls sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" after which she was escorted back to the East and the girls continued with their beautiful drill and Mona Eakin, junior past president presented Mrs. May with a gift. Mrs. May gave a brief talk and Mrs. Leta Eslinger, worthy matron of Sherman chapter, gave a brief talk and was presented with a corsage. Mrs. Earl Olds and Mrs. Art Schilling, Theta Rho advisors were introduced and each presented with a corsage. Mrs. L. E. Kaseberg of the ESTRAL committee was presented with a corsage.

The lace covered table held a beautiful arrangement of mums and flanked by pink cardies in crystal holders. Cookies, coffee and punch were served. Mrs. May and Mrs. Eslinger presided at the coffee service and Mrs. Bernard Martin served the punch. Mrs. D. L. Reynolds and Mrs. Frank von Borstel served on the food committee.
