BORN: To Mr. and Mrs. George Benson, December 8, in The Dalles, a daughter.

We are informed that it was Mr. and Mrs. Ted Carlson who bought the Lester Wilson land at Kent and that they will farm it in connection with the Irma Laffoon land which they have operated for 15 years. Mrs. Carlson is Mrs. Laffoon's daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Van Gilder were in Portland Monday and found that city very cold and in danger of getting a silver thaw.

Mrs. Alfred Kock went to The Dalles Wednesday to spend a few days with her sister in law, Mrs. Ted von Borstel, who fell down the basement stairs and broke an arm.

Mrs. Edna Freeman was returned to the hospital Tuesday and it was thought the plate in her broken hip was damaged and another operation would be necessary.

Word from Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Platt state they are now in Arizona enjoying the warm winter there. They have bought a new trailer and expect to do a lot of traveling in the next two or three years.

Lester Barnum underwent eye surgery December 8 in Portland. He returned Thursday for a check to see if very thing is progressing as it should.

The American Legion boys poured their concrete floor in the new building last Friday a job that extended nearly all night. It was a cold day and some damage may have been done to the floor near doors but it is not thought important. As with the roofing job a large work force turned out to help.

The Moro city council is concerned over pilfering from the fire houses and the loss of gasoline and equipment from the fire trucks. Surely there are few more unsocial acts than taking gas from a fire truck.

Rufus News

The lecturer's program was put on by the Home Ec Club with the chairman, Mrs. Bert Swigart in charge. All sang "Jingle Bells", a reading "A Prophecy" by Mrs. Swigart, a game "Human Checkers" by chosen members. Mrs. Harland McDonald gave a reading. The group played the game "What I Want For Christmas."

The master reminded all to come to Harlandview Grange Dec. 10 for installation. Harlandview also put on the 1st and 2nd degrees of the order Dec. 13.

The Rufus Community church announces their Christmas party will be on Dec. 17 at 7:30 p. m. The public is invited to come. Rufus has had its share of the cold here the last couple of days. It was down to 16° above zero Sunday night.

The John Day Cafe is closed down as of Monday, and it is reported it will not be opened again under the present management. This also takes in the cocktail lounge along with the cafe. Mr. and Mrs. Murray who operate Otteson Cafe say they are closing down on Saturday and Sunday now that there aren't so many working men to eat out. Dinty's is open 24 hours.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rust went to Milwaukee Saturday where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl Runke returning home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Dugger were business visitors in The Dalles Thursday and back on Friday.

The Grass Valley Altar society sponsored a Christmas party for the youngsters of the Parish held at the IOOF hall Sunday afternoon, with a nice crowd attending. A film of the "First Christmas" was shown and later Santa Claus arrived and passed out treats to the children.

Mrs. Josephine Parkhurst of Kent went to Bend Saturday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Brittain. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stark and family drove up Sunday and spent the day with the Brittains. Mrs. Parkhurst came back with them.

Phil von Borstel went to Washougal Thursday and brought his mother, Mrs. A. von Borstel home after spending several weeks there after being dismissed from a hospital in Portland following major surgery.

Members of Sherman chapter No. 132 OES held a regular meeting in the Masonic hall Tuesday evening. Mrs. Harold Eakin, WM presided and, Harold Eakin, WM presided during the opening of the meeting. The hall was decorated with yellow and bronze mums. Mrs. Leta Eslinger, WM, presided when the initiatory degree was conferred on Bernard Martin and Bill Paus h. A silver offering was taken as a Christmas gift for the Masonic home at Forest Grove. Visitors included Mrs. Andy Paulson and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Martin of Moro. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank my friends for the lovely cards, get well wishes, and flowers I received while I was in the hospital.
