By Mrs. George Fox

Mrs. Blaine Miller entered a hospital in The Dalles last Wednesday and underwent surgery Thursday morning for a goiter. She is now home and doing very well.

Neighbors and relatives called on Mrs. E. E. Barnum Tuesday evening for some pinocle and dessert in honor of her 84th birthday.

Addison Wood was here from Portland on business last Friday, conferring with Ronald Powell. Albert Kaseberg was up from The Dalles Tuesday to attend the hearing on the proposed charter for the county.

Bob Hoskinson drove to Tacoma, Wash., this week to attend the funeral of his brother, Dean Hoskinson, who died in a rest home there Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles French and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schilling were in Portland Monday where the men appeared as witnesses in federal court before Judge Solomon, the case being Ely vs. Pecos Valley, Inc.

Mrs. Ida Akers of Portland was here last week end to visit her daughter, Mrs. Bill Bleker and family.

Phillip Gilman came home last Thursday from Glasgow, Montana to be married Sunday and return later in the week to the airforce base near there.

The student body at Sherman High expects to build a student lounge in the hope it will relieve congested halls and provide a place for activities during the noon hour. Six cakes will be raffled at the ball game Saturday night to help provide some money.

BORN: To Mr. and Mrs. John Cain February 7 in Portland, a nine pound nine ounce son. Every one doing fine.

Temperatures raised slightly Thursday morning to melt the ice off the streets and sidewalks which made both foot and car travelers happy or at least happier.

Power went off in Moro Wednesday for a few minutes caused by some trouble between Dufus and Tygh Valley which caused juice to be switched in along a different route.

CARD OF THANKS

My sincere thanks to all the kind friends who remembered me in various ways during my hospital stay.

Mrs. Dewey Thomas had charge of the program which was on Civil Defense. She gave a talk and showed slides to make her talk more clear.

After the meeting the hostesses Mrs. John Foss and Mrs. Floyd Root served refreshments to all present. The decorations were in the Valentine motif.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jordan drove to Bend Sunday where they visited at the Curley Miller home. It was beautiful weather for a drive, so warm and sunny.

It was reported Mrs. Jerry Brakett is in the hospital suffering with a hemorrhage in her eye. For the lecturer's program, Mrs. Bill Baum had a reading "Why I Joined the Grange" by Mrs. Martin Zimmerman.

"Our America" was read by Mrs. Harland McDonald, Bill Huck read "Teaching a Calf to Drink" which was true to life. The group played a game.

Dianne Cazier reports on a 4-H Sewing Club the Busy Bumble Bees. They met at Rufus school library and worked on their projects. They plan to give a party for the gun safety and electricity clubs.

Martina Petersen reports on the 4-H cooking club, the Busy Cookers. Mrs. Sammy Tsuota is their leader. The group met at Martina's home, and discussed the goals and checked the ones they have already completed, also the ones not completed. At the next meeting they will make a dinner. The next meeting will be held at Carolyn Thompson's home.

The J. C. Compton patching equipment and other machinery has moved into Rufus. Later they will work on Biggs Canyon grade. It snowed in the north end of Sherman county Tuesday morning, but towards evening it was melting fast, and just snow lay on the highlands. A little rain fell after the snow came.

Friday night there will be a volleyball game at Rufus at 7 p. m. The principal said they will move into the new addition in about two weeks.

Four Youngsters

In Speak-Off

Four members of the Wasco MYF group, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Skiles, and the Rev. Larry Eddings, travelled to The Dalles Sunday afternoon to attend the sub-district rally at the Methodist church there. Young people who attended from Wasco were Linda Marden, Maxine Dormaier, Sharon Colesch and Bill Smith. Bill Smith was a contestant in the conference-wide MYF "Speak-Off" contest, and placed second in the sub-district meeting.

The theme of the contest is "Wake Up To Life." Miss Hall, a member of The Dalles church, was the first place winner of the sub-district contest.

cending on the Masten home for a surprise housewarming party. The group took card tables and chairs, as well as plenty of salads and sandwiches for refreshments. The evening was spent playing bingo and scrabble, and the Mastens were presented with a gift for their new home. Bill and Eileen moved into the new house, on the Walt Bruckert ranch, shortly before Christmas. Mrs. Masten is a much appreciated and talented member of the Wasco Methodist church choir, and her husband is also very active in church work.

Marian Rebekah Lodge held a waffle supper and card party at the Legion hall on Saturday evening. There were three tables of pinocle and winners were Mrs. Art Smith, with high score for the women, Leo Watkins, high for men players, and Mrs. Floyd Haines and Art Smith were low scorers.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Smith are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Watkins, and his brother in law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Pshigoda. Mr. Smith, who is with the navy, has been stationed near Bellingham, but is now on leave prior to going to a new assignment at Midway Island. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Watkins and Don, and Mrs. W. D. Watkins, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Buck at Moro Sunday.
