A wedding gown of white lace and veil, highlighted with a wedding ring design in lace on the bodice, and a train of white lace and tulle, was chosen by Sharon Ann Heigeson of Moro for her marriage to Airman Philip R. Gilman of Glasgow, Mont., the afternoon of February 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Heigeson of Moro are the bride's parents. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. John Gilman, also of Moro.

The Rev. David Getzenauer conducted the double ring ceremony at Zion Lutheran Church before an altar arranged with white stock and blue iris.

Miss Aileen Demoss, Moro, sang "O Perfect Love," accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Winick, organist. Cantor was Bob Heigeson, brother of the bride.

Mr. Heigeson gave his daughter in marriage. With her gown, she wore a veil held by a pearl tiara, and carried a white orchid on a prayer book.

Maid of Honor was Joyce Edwards of Eugene, and the bride's sister, Jane Heigeson, was bridesmaid. They were gowned alike in dresses of light blue nylon with Roman-style boucles and full skirts. Their nearesses were of matching nylon cutton flowers, and they carried blue iris nosegays.

Bill Edwards of Moro was best man and Gordon Richards of Wasco and Bob Cyphers of Moro were ushers.

The bride's mother selected a blue print dress and the groom's mother a blue suit. Both wore corsages of feathered white carnations and blue iris.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Highlight of the serving table was the three-tiered

Prescription Pharmacists

A GOOD NAME is the FINEST ENDORSEMENT

Almost daily, new drugs appear which we are urged to offer. To reject the unproved products is just as important to this pharmacy as is the service of being alert to provide the newest and the best.

There are certain helpful guides on which we rely. Reliable pharmaceutical manufacturers, such as Parke, Davis & Company, establish quality and effectiveness with exhaustive clinical tests before a product is announced. Your Doctor is then given facts, and on his judgment we rely in making our decision.

Thus, if a preparation is in our stock, you are assured of its reliability.
