Tuesday morning, Owen Barnett was awakened by the smell of smoke in their house. The fire department was called and had quite a time locating the source of the smoke, which turned out to be a short in the hot water tank. No one was injured by the heavy smoke, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Barnett took his folks over to their house where they will stay until the house is thoroughly aired out and cleaned. HOW ABOUT THAT MEDICINE THAT KNOCKED HER FEVER OUT LAST TIME... WENT THERE SOME LEFT?

BUT A TEMPERATURE CAN MEAN ALMOST NOTHING... SO HOW DO WE KNOW IT'S THE RIGHT MEDICINE?

One of the responsibilities which parents feel most keenly is that of giving medicine to a child. To be sure, there are times when circumstances would seem to justify trying a course of treatment that worked well during a previous illness... and which seems safe enough to repeat without consulting the doctor.

At such times, parents should recognize that they probably cannot answer these fundamental questions:

Is the child's illness the same?
Should the dosage be the same as it was?
Has the medicine lost its potency?

Many illnesses have symptoms in common. What may seem like a familiar and non-too-serious symptom to you, could be something else requiring an entirely different form of treatment.

Medicine given under a physician's supervision is a known remedy prescribed for a known condition. That's why getting prompt and proper medical care may well turn out to be one of the biggest bargains of your life.—Reprinted from a copyrighted advertisement published by Parke, Davis & Company, Detroit 32, Michigan.

Cindy's listening to flowers talk

Do flowers talk? Cindy knows they do. In a quiet, friendly way they say — Hello! We're here. The older she gets, the more Cindy will discover companionship, and wonder, in things that grow.

Gardeners understand this feeling best. They've worked their fingers in warm, musky soil. Watched a shoot catch its first sight of day.

Standard has been gardening, too, for over 30 years. Today our ORTHO Division makes 60 products to help gardens grow better, more easily, all over the world.

To give a lawn that luxurious look. Help a tree wear its mantle more proudly. Or coax a cascade of blooms from a rosebush.

Standard's gardener-scientists never stop looking for better ways to nourish and protect your garden. In laboratory and test plots they're searching, experimenting, proving.

Out of this research have come many gardening "firsts," which you can share by reading the ORTHO Lawn and Garden Book, available at garden supply stores.

At Standard we're interested in everything that grows... whether it's a hillside's bright blanket of flowers, or one proud plant in a window box.
