

Moro Personals

James B. Adams was up from Portland Tuesday to make some comment on the "pinto pony" wheat fields but on second thought reflected that they might turn out better than the "palomino" fields of last year.

Darwin VanGilder is getting about again after his frightening slight stroke and says he feels fine.

Luther Davis, still with a crushed vertebra since the accident of a couple weeks ago, is getting about again, although unable to do any field work.

Sherrie Fraser is in Tours, France, one of a group of Stanford students chosen to study there during the spring term. Other groups are in other places in Europe. All will move about to other cities and other universities during their stay which is for upperclassmen at Stanford.

Rev. Fletcher Cannell was buried Monday in Gresham following his death there Thursday of last week. Mr. Cannell was minister of the Methodist church in Wasco during the war years and was known to many Sherman countians.

Bob Bernards made a trip to his ancestral home in Yamhill county last week end, returning Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Wallace returned Monday from a visit with his sister and other relatives in Portland. They were also in Washington county where her brother, Ira Fridley, lives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Woodcock went to Madras Saturday to spend the week end with their son there, who has sold his farm and will enter another line of work.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peters are back from Phoenix, Arizona and again taking up the job of watching the wheat grow.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kirkelle jr. were visitors at the home of his parents here last week end, coming from Richland, Washington.

Cleo Barnum, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Z. Barnum, suffered a coronary attack on his farm near Bend Tuesday and is in the Bend hospital for treatment.

ABOUT THE COUNTY

Mrs. Larry Eddings entered St. Vincent hospital last Wednesday and underwent surgery Thursday morning. Rev. Eddings reported Sunday that she is improving nicely. Also admitted at St. Vincent the same day was Mrs. Hildred Zell. She is in traction again for a back ailment. Mr. Zell took her down and was going back to see her Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Royse, Mrs. John Royse and Mrs. Dell Wright drove to Walla Walla last Sunday. The Royses visited an old friend of theirs, Carey Green, who is a patient in the Veterans' hospital there. His wife was there to visit also. Mrs. Wright visited her brother who is in a Nursing Home there.

The ESPRAL spring bazaar and food sale will be at the John Foss building April 13 and pie and coffee will be served.

Mrs. Frank Reid has accepted the nomination for the state treasurer of the Oregon Federation of Womens Clubs, the elections will be held during the general convention to be held in Portland May 8 to 10.

Mrs. Pauline Droughton said to tell all of her friends that she is improving slowly and would welcome phone calls or visits now.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harper spent Sunday visiting the Bill Broughtons. That afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Anderson and children drove up from Portland for a short visit with his parents, the Gordon Harpers.

CARD OF THANKS
I want to give my sincere thanks to the friends who sent me get well cards and came to visit me while I was in the hospital as a result of an accident. It was all appreciated.
Luther Davis
