Rufus News

Rufus Grange met last Thursday at the hall with master, Mrs. Roland Johnson in the chair. Mrs. Harland McDonald reported on legislation, George Fox on agriculture and Mrs. Otto Petersen on Home Ec. She reported she will be hostess for the club on June 14 at the hall. Bill Huck said he will serve the Rufus community with Grange insurance even though living at Parkdale, but he expects to be at the Grange meetings in Rufus. Mrs. Roland Johnson was asked to serve as a delegate for the Grange Insurance for State Grange. The next tri-county visitation is at Barlow Gate June 1. For the lecturer's hour Mrs. Bill Baum had a recitation "In Flanders Field" by Mrs. Otto Petersen, a trumpet solo "Faith of Our Fathers" by Martina and Otto Petersen Jr., "Nearer My God to Thee" was sung by all. The first part was a memorial, with the second part graduation. Mrs. Roland Johnson and George Fox were graduates of the 8th grade and they were complete with caps and gowns. Bill Huck presented the diplomas and Mrs. Baum read their class history. Two girls sang "Graduation Day" and the girls were Bonnie Purdue and Nancy Sitton. "A Look into the Future" was read. Then for Mother's day "A Toast to Mother" was read by Mr. Schwendel will also present awards for cheerleading, library club work, science club work, physical fitness emblems and certificates for those above 50% and 80% of national norms, and AAU test fitness certificates.

Mr. C. A. Hockett will present awards for audio visual aids club participation.

Sports awards will be presented by Mr. Carl Ziegler and Mr. Harland Carter for participation and special awards in basketball and volleyball will be given to most improved player and most outstanding player.

Parents and friends are invited to attend as the years extra curricular accomplishments are recognized.

The eighth grade graduating class was honored by a progressive dinner given the evening of May 19 by students' parents beginning with cocktails at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hockett, salad at the Raymond Van Gilder home, main course of fried chicken at the Marvin Thomas home, and concluding with dessert of banana splits and games at the home Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Thomas. Mrs. Paul Patrick and Mrs. Grover Long assisted Leland Schwendel in transporting the honored guests from one home to another.

The 7th grade class, under the direction of teacher Harland Carter, were hosts to a party held Friday evening, May 18, at the Wasco School honoring 8th grade graduating students from all five schools in the county who will be attending school together at Sherman High next year.

A false ceiling of purple and gold streamers was erected in the auditorium carrying out a "Wishing Well" theme throughout the room. The students danced to records and enjoyed refreshments of punch and cookies furnished by the 7th grade mothers. A door dist church will be held at Sunday prize was won by Dick Macnab, which consisted of a box of candy. Maurice Root was chairman in charge of the event. Mothers there to chaperone or assist were Mrs. Verne Dutton, Mrs. Vernon Root, Mrs. Clarence Spencer and Mrs. P. G. O'Meara.

The annual OEA picnic, scheduled for Sunday, May 20 at Sorosis Park in The Dalles was rained out, resulting in a last resort of gathering at the Wasco School cafeteria when about 18 teachers and their families from the school gathered for a dinner. The crowd was small as a result of the weather, but those turning out enjoyed all the fried chicken they could eat and an afternoon of playing volleyball or visiting.

Here from College Place, Wn., to spend the last weeks of school with her daughter, Mrs. Irlene Kirkwood and help her to pack to return to her home in Milton-Freewater for the summer, is Mrs. Lulu Warren.

A potluck dinner will be held at the Wasco Methodist church, May 27, honoring the Rev. Larry Eddings and family and bidding them farewell to their new home in San Bernardino, Calif. Dinner will commence at 12:45 and all Sherman Countians are invited.

Mrs. Herman Ziegler Sr. left Monday, May 21 for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Viridan Martin near Los Angeles, California. From there she will fly by jet to Chicago, Minneapolis, and on to Knoxville, Tenn., where Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ziegler will meet her, taking her to their home in Harrogate, Tenn., where Bob is employed as an instructor at Lincoln Memorial University. After a three week visit there, she will fly to Sioux Falls, S. D., to visit son Jim and family, and become acquainted with St. Augustana College where Jim is teaching and where his wife is attending school. She will return home by plane June 30.

Pre-registration for Summer Bible School at the Wasco Methodist church will be held at Sunday School June 3. The session will be June 4-5, and all youngsters four years of age through the 5th grade are cordially invited to attend. Teachers will include Mrs. Robert Hyars, Mrs. Don Slawson, Linda Van Gilder, 4 year olds; Mrs. Richard Skiles, Mrs. Gordon Hilderbrand, Jannette Long, 5 year olds; Mrs. Tom Moore and Barbara Moore, 1st grade; Mrs. Lloyd Gossen, Mrs. Nadine Medler, and Linda Hockett, 2nd and 3rd grades; Mrs. Evelyn Moody, Mrs. Chester Coats, and Mary Coats, 4th and 5th grades. Mrs. Douglas Alley will be in charge of recreation and art work with Mary Coats being pianist. A special missionary project will be conducted to purchase Bibles for Sunday School use.

Dr. Frank Reid will attend classes in dental emergencies at the University of Washington Dental School May 25 and 26. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reid also made a trip to Portland, Saturday, May 29, to pick up their boat which has been prepared for the oncoming season.

Mrs. Raymond Van Gilder and Mrs. Eldon Lane were hostesses to the members of the kindergarten class honoring their children, Brian Van Gilder, and Sidney Lane on their 6th birthday anniversaries. The class, consisting of 19 members, was escorted to the Van Gilder home immediately following school for luncheon and afternoon entertainment. The party carried out a Indian and cowboy theme, and has been referred to by invitation as a "pow-wow".

Mrs. Chester Coats gave a birthday party for her daughter Margaret, on her 6th anniversary, Saturday, May 19. Major entertainment was the presentation by Mrs. Coats to each guest of an apron and rolling pin, after which a bread baking project was carried out. A birthday cake was presented to Margaret by her grandmother, Mrs. Carroll Sarys beautifully decorated with a dancing girl theme, complete with dancing slippers. It is precedent for Mrs. Sarys to present her grandchildren with a special cake on their 6th birthday carrying out a theme reflecting a major interest of each particular child. Those present were Terry Eddings, Susan Skiles, Sharon Roberts, Janie Root and the little girl friends of the guest of honor.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for their cards, gifts, flowers, and loving kindness during our recent illness and sorrow. Each thought and prayer was truly appreciated.
