The Scrambled Sewers and the Knitting Stars held their style show in the little gym in the school house Monday evening. The gym was decorated with flowers to represent a spring garden, crepe paper streamers were strung from the wall to a bird bath. Card tables were set up and centered with story book dolls. Flower arches were used at the entrance and at the dressing room where the girls entered to model their dresses.

The sewing girls modeled first Susan Eakin, Jerry Alberty and Lou Ann Stark modeled skirts and hats to match; Jessie Brandler and Cathy von Borstel modeled simple school dresses; Judy Dunlap, Sheri Rolfe, Nancy Alberty and Lorraine Stark modeled more simply tailored cotton school dresses; Melva Alberty modeled a capri set; Joy von Borstel modeled her Vogue dress with matching hat; Katherine Reckman modeled a brown wool dress and a beige coat; narrator for this group was Rosalee Eslinger. At this time the girls presented Mrs. Myrle Smith with a corsage. Other leaders are Mrs. Harry Stark and Mrs. Owen Eakin.

The knitting was narrated by Katherine Reckman with Leta Ann Eslinger and Rita Hamman modeling stocking caps and T.V. slippers and carrying octo-kittens on their arms; Joy Ann Brady modeled her blue sweater with white angora trim; Susan Eakin modeled a white cardigan with Peter Pan collar; Patty Crews modeled a coral color sailor cardigan trimmed in white angora with matching hat; Lou Ann Stark modeled a pale brown sweater with brown and pink matching pleated skirt; Janice Lemley modeled a Fair-Isle cardigan in red, black and white. Other girls who had not completed their outfits had them on display on a large table. Music was furnished by Mrs. Dale Padgett.

"Here's what PP&L customer Mrs. W. D. Montgomery says about electric living..."

"My daughters say electricity makes housekeeping fun"

"... That's because electric appliances help us get so many jobs done quickly and easily. The girls help me with the cooking, the laundry, and dishwashing... and they love it. Just a glance at our list of 40 appliances will show you the wide variety of jobs electricity helps us do... and for such a reasonable cost. Electric service is the best value we get these days."

Like thousands of other Pacific Power & Light customers, Mrs. Montgomery and her family live better because they make generous and effective use of modern electric service.
