Mrs. Edna Melzer accompanied by a friend, Mrs. Evelyn Wright, came up from Portland Sunday for the church 75th anniversary. Here also was Mrs. Wilma Pinkerton Poole, who now lives in Portland. She was a daughter of the late Robert Pinkerton.

Mrs. W. B. Johnston came up from Newberg for the church anniversary and to visit her son Theodore and wife. Age doesn't bother her and she has lots of it, in fact, 91 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Balzer brought her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Blagg home to Grass Valley Tuesday after a weeks stay at Cove on the Balzer chicken ranch.

Mrs. Ida Moon, nee Ida Mowry, resident of Moro in the real early days when the big Mowry house (on the hill west of Alfred Kock's) was the center of social life for young people. Brothers George, Bill and John have gone on.

Mrs. Leta Eslinger returned Monday from a trip to Philomath where she lived when a girl, to attend a reunion of former students of the United Brethren academy.

Mr and Mrs. William Frees and their four children arrived Friday to visit at the Giles French home. She was Jane French. He has recently left the navy after 20 years service, the last three of which were spent in Georgia. They will settle in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hoskinson of Eugene, newly married, came through Moro Saturday while on a short trip. Hugh drives truck at Eugene.

Earl Griggs came home from San Francisco for his final visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Griggs, before going to Japan as a member of an army unit.

Sheriff Cornish Lee Roberts of Sherman county today received an invitation from Lane county Sheriff Harry H. Marlowe to participate in the Emerald Empire Roundup Parade in connection with the Emerald Empire Round-up in Eugene, August 3, 4, & 5.

Mrs. Ralph Busse and sons, Barry and Stan, and Mrs. Grace Zevely spent July 4th and 5th visiting Mrs. Busse's sister, Mrs.

Oliver Fraser and family in Bend Carol Fields, daughter of former Sherman County sheriff Norman Fields, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Busse and daughter, Vee, Friday and Saturday. Miss Fields has spent the last nine years living in Alaska and has recently moved with her family to Seattle.

Mrs. Dick Bailey, formerly Dorothy Ball, and Mrs. Myrtle Smith of Grass Valley visited Wednesday evening with Mrs. Ralph Busse to talk over school days of twenty years ago, and to discuss possible plans for a class reunion picnic.

The annual Dugger family reunion will be held at Tygh Valley next Sunday, July 15, says John DeMoss who will be back from Hood River for it.

Here Sunday for the church reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Williams of Portland. She was Pearly Hennagin.

Turquoise with white accent was the color scheme for the beautiful summer wedding on Sunday afternoon when Miss Martha Joan Minto became the bride of James Donald Griggs. The couple exchanged their vows at Trinity Methodist Church with Rev. Park Anderson performing the three o'clock nuptials.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Douglas Minto and Mr. Griggs is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Griggs of Moro.

Turquoise organza sheath dresses over taffeta were worn by the four attendants and the candle lighters. They wore matching wedding ring headresses with scalloped veils and carried crescent bouquets of creamy white spider chrysanthemums.

Miss Jean Minto was her sister's honor maid and the bridesmaids were Miss Suzanne Jochimsen, Miss Joyce Aune of Milwaukie and Mrs. Terry Lowry of Portland. Misses Mary and Virginia Griggs of Moro, sisters of the bridegroom, lighted the tapers.

The attractive brunette bride wore a white organza gown over taffeta styled with short sleeves and a full-length skirt with bustle bow of taffeta. Her fingertip illusion veil was caught to a ring style headpiece with bow in front. She carried a crescent bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Fred Johnson of North Bend served as best man for Mr. Griggs and seating the guests were James Kepner of Vernonia, Douglas Minto, brother of the bride, and Terry Lowry of Portland.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the church parlor. Pouring were Miss Nellie Schwab, Miss Barbara Keudell and Mrs. Robert Trelstad of Boston. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Kenneth Carl and Mrs. Herman Jochimsen.

For their wedding trip to the Oregon coast the new Mrs. Griggs donned an off-white suit with striped shoes and purse. After June 23 the couple will be at home at 3724 SE 35th Place, Portland.
