Lynn Hampton, county superintendent, was in Monmouth the first of the week attending a Teaching Personnel Leadership Workshop.

Five of the nine children of William Edwards met at the home of Mrs. Wilma Shaw in Condon Sunday for a reunion.

Mrs. Karl Landstrom was here Monday evening for a visit with friends and relatives. Her home is in Arlington, Va., but she has been in Salem about three weeks to welcome the arrival of a son, born Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sebers (nee Maris Lou Landstrom). He weighed three pounds, ten ounces and is in an incubator.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Grant arrived Tuesday afternoon from Long Beach, Calif., for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Collis Moore and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Woodcock came home Monday from a trip that took them as far as Huntington where they formerly lived, to visit relatives with stops at Stanfield where a nephew of Mrs. Woodcock lives.

Norval Lane was here Tuesday to get his hay baler repaired so he could get the rest of his hay out of the weather over on Willow creek.

Daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sparling, Donna Kay and Vivette, were here Monday to visit their grandmother, bringing some of their children to see Mrs. Daisy Byers. Donna Kay lives in Boise and Vivette in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Roberson left early Thursday morning for Emloops, B. C. to attend the annual meeting of the Cariboo Trail association where he will represent this section of the international highway.

Saturday a group of 16 local people spent the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas. They were watching slides and listening to the most interesting experiences of Tom Ten Eyck, son of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Ten Eyck, Portland, who was an exchange student to Italy with the AFS (American Field Service), last fall and winter. This is Tom's third year with the Alleys for harvest—he will enter pre-med at the University of Oregon this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Chadwick of Salem, former hotel proprietor and member of the legislature, stopped in Moro Wednesday afternoon while touring eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Van Gilder are in Grants Pass the last end of this week to attend the convention of Justices of the Peace. After it is over they will go into California for a visit with the Ken Youngs and the Hines family.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Long of El Cerrito, Calif., visited at the Tommy Jones home a couple days last week enroute to the Seattle Fair and a months vacation of fishing in Canadian rivers.

Rufus News

By Mrs. George Fox

Mr. and Mrs. Harland McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jordan took a picnic lunch and went over to Lost Lake which is west of Dee, Oregon. They reported the lake was beautiful that day.

Mrs. Jean Thompson who has lived and near Rufus for more than 70 years lost a son who was buried Saturday in The Dalles. Curtis was near the middle of her eight children born to her and her deceased husband, Glen Thompson. And although the children have been raised and gone for some number of years this was the first bereavement of any of her children. Curtis attended school in the former grange building years ago. Mrs. Thompson's younger children attended school in the present school building which was built in 1928.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thompson and son who live near Sacramento were here for his brother's funeral and as houseguest of his mother, Mrs. Jean Thompson for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Coote of Dallas, a brother of Mrs. John Mathieson were houseguests of the Mathiesons Monday night.

Here's what PP&L customer Mrs. James H. Edeler says about electric living...

"Living's wonderful in our Medallion Home... I never dreamed you could use electricity in so many ways"

"The electric dishwasher is just one of the dozens of ways electricity makes housework easier and living more pleasant in our new home. The whole family enjoys the convenience of our modern electric helpers. In counting up the many ways we put electricity to work, you can see why electric service is the biggest value in our budget."

Thousands of other Pacific Powerland homemakers, like Mrs. Edeler, live better because they make generous and effective use of modern electric service.

How about you—are you making full use of Reddy Kilowatt's helpful service?

In the typical U.S. home Reddy works 332 hours per month.	332 KWH
In the average Pacific Powerland home Reddy works 732 hours per month.	732 KWH
In Mrs. Edeler's home Reddy works 1710 hours per month!	1710 KWH
