Barstow-Belshe Rites Observed September 8

The Wasco Methodist Church was the setting for an afternoon wedding, September 8, of Dorothy Jeannette Belshee daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Belshee of Wasco, and Darrell Alden Barstow, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Barstow of Corvallis.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Carl Mason, cousin of the bride, assisted by the Rev. John McMurtrey, after which the young couple repeated their vows in unison.

Preceding the ceremony, Mr. Don Earl of Grass Valley, sang

"O' Promise Me" and at the close while they were kneeling at the altar, "The Wedding Prayer". After the recessional, he sang "I'll Walk Beside You". The organist was Miss Sharon Coelsch of Moro.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white nylon lace over tulle and net. The fitted bodice of lace had a scalloped neckline and wrist length tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt was covered by a lace redingote. The brides elbow length pouf veil of silk illusion fell from a tiara trimmed with seed pearls.

Her bouquet was a cascade of stephanotis, centered with pink roses. Also carried by the bride was a handkerchief of white linen, edged with lace and hand decorated with seed pearls and rhinestones by Mrs. Norville Bennett, her former music instructor. For something old, she wore her paternal grandmother's wrist watch.

Identical dresses of white lace over mint green taffeta were worn by the maid of honor, Miss Delores Belshee, sister of the bride, and bridesmaid Jean Wick of LaGrande.

Their headpieces were white and topped with white velvet bows. They carried nosegays of white carnations.

Best man was Dennis Barstow of Corvallis, twin brother of the groom. Honorary attendant for the groom was Darrell Christenson of Corvallis. Ushers were Steve Burnet of Moro, cousin of the bride and David Reid of Rufus.

The brides mother wore a green silk print dress with beige accessories and wore a gadenia and stephanotis corsage. Mrs. Barstow wore a pink sheath with white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

A reception in the social rooms of the church followed the ceremony. Lynda Marlea of Wasco had charge of the guest book. Receiving the wedding gifts was Marilyn Smith of Wasco, and pinning the corsages previous to the wedding was Darlene Goehner of Moro. The rooms were beautifully decorated with pink roses and ivy. A four tiered white wedding cake decorated with pink rosebuds and topped with a cluster of white wadding bells was baked for the bride and groom by Mrs. Walter Bruckert. Ivy frozen in ice rings floated in the mint green punch.

Mrs. Harold Brown of Grass Valley, cut the cake and Mrs. Ked Dejmaj of Sweet Home, Bonnie Schaumberger of Grass Valley, Mrs. Frank Reid of Rufus, Mrs. Russell Belshee of Moro, served the cake. Presiding at tea and coffee service were Mrs. Jeff Wilson of The Dalles, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Charles Burnet, Moro, Mrs. Clyde Lawson of Bairbridge Island, grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Roy Belshee of Moro, grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Don Wilson of Tacoma and Miss Eva Kirkelle of Corvallis served the punch.

Kay Wilson, cousin of the bride and Susan Skiles presented favors to the guests from little umbrella baskets. Grooms cake was passed out by Kenny Wilson, cousin of the bride and Jim Medler.

The bride made her light brown suit dress for going away and wore chocolate brown accessories and the pink rose corsage from her wedding bouquet.

The young couple left for a week on Bainbridge Island and the World's Fair.

They are presently making their home at 1106 Jefferson St., Corvallis, where both are seniors at OSU. Mr. Barstow served in the U. S. Navy previous to enrolling in OSU.

Guests attending from out of town were: Ralph Wetter, Donna Melvin, Mrs. Jennie Belshee of Corvallis; Mrs. Estella Benson, Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Kenaga, Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Sherwood, Mrs. Sally Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo See and sons, Ray and Steven; Mrs. Eunice Lutje and Beverly of Portland; Don Wilson and Scotty of Tacoma; Ked Dejmaj of Sweet Home; Lynn Teadtke of Mollala; Mrs. Ivan Kirkelle of Kennewick and Mrs. Carl Mason of Forest Grove.

The wedding was on the 39th wedding anniversary of the brides aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wilson of The Dalles.
