It seems as if the John Day dam, is using divers to help place material for footings this past week. These are trained men who go down into the darkness below of the Columbia river and can tell by feeling where to place the material. They use both the divers suits and the heavier equipment. It's a treacherous job watching out for the current, seeing their lines don't get tangled, and always hoping nothing unexpected will be falling down. The elk hunters cars were seen bumper to bumper last Thursday and Friday going up highway 30 to the hunting grounds. They traveled in jeeps, pickups, campers, trailers and cars in pursuit of their game. Some elk were seen on the hunter's rigs going home Sunday.

Sherman County Club Tuesday night. The Goblins were discreet. Harlandview Grange will meet 1st & 3rd Mondays. Nov. 5 with a potluck dinner and elections. HowD horse club will meet Nov. 3 at 7:30 at Grass Valley school. Kay Whipple sustained a back injury, probably a fractured vertebra, when a car in which she was riding with John McMurtrey overturned and left the highway two miles below Moro Tuesday afternoon.

All members of the American Legion auxiliary are expected to bring their Veterans' Hospital gifts to the meeting Nov. 5. The meeting with the state president, Vi Larsen, will be held Nov. 28, when she makes her official visit. The Wasco cub scouts will be dropping off bags to be filled for good will on Tuesday, November 6 and will pick them up Saturday November 10. Those not at home will please leave bags by their doors. The cubs wish to thank everyone for the success of their bottle drive which made $24.84 for the cub treasury.

The Methodist church loyalty dinner will be held at 5:30 this Sunday, with the WSCS group taking care of arrangements and serving. Mr. C. H. Beard of The Dalles will be the special speaker for the evening.

The Mid-Columbia sub-district Methodist Youth Rally will begin at 2:30 Sunday, and the cars will leave the church at 1:30 for Goldendale. About fourteen persons have signed up to go. Because of this quarterly meeting, there will be no MYF meeting Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mansfield went to Oceanside, Calif., to visit their daughter and her husband, Cpl. and Mrs. Dave Hill. They will spend two weeks visiting and enjoying their three granddaughters, Rene, Denise and Darlene.

Miss Eva Kirkelle, sister of Mrs. Carl Ziegler, visited the Ziegler home last weekend on her way back to Portland after attending a student OEA conference in Bend. Miss Kirkelle is president of the state group and is a student at Oregon State University, now doing her student teaching in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hastings have returned home after a week's visit in Redding, Calif., with their son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Rob Hastings.

Wasco Grade School has acquired a new 1963 school bus, which is being used on the northeast run. It was used to take Mrs. Grace Zevely's third grade class to Maryhill Museum last Wednesday, driven by Bill Hockett, principal.

Thirty young people of the Wasco Church of Christ went on a Halloween hayride last Friday, October 26, after which they returned to the church for a devotional program and refreshments of hot dogs, donuts and cider.

Next Sunday the Church of Christ will hold its regular business meeting after the morning services.

Bob Chandler gets my vote for Congress. Here's why:
Mrs. Larry Kaseberg
Wasco, Oregon

"There's a man you can count on — an intellectually honest, self-sufficient man dedicated to the service of all Eastern Oregon. As editor of his daily newspaper, Bob Chandler has long measured the pulse of the people here. He knows what makes our economy tick. He knows the needs and the opportunities of our area. And he's fully prepared to speak out for us in Congress. Bob Chandler deserves your vote of confidence, too!"
