Rufus News

By Mrs. George Fox

Mr and Mrs Fay Brackett, their two adopted children and Mrs Brackett's mother, Mrs Jessie Langford from Pottlatch, Idaho came Saturday night to spend the Christmas holidays here with a daughter and family, Mr and Mrs Charles Griggs and their son and family, Mr and Mrs Jerry Backett. Fay has to be back at work in Pottlatch on Wednesday.

All the family of Mr and Mrs Eugene Eaton are home for the Christmas holiday. Their daughter Elaine and family from California and their son and wife Mr and Mrs Gayle Eaton also from California, then their son and family Mr and Mrs Wayne Eaton from The Dalles and another son and wife who live in Rufus, Mr and Mrs Neal Eaton and their son. This is the first time the family has been together for several years.

The 1962 Christmas program at Rufus school was lovely under the direction of Mrs Roy Gayman and Miss Alice McCoskey, teachers. The children in the character costumes made very pretty settings for the program which was as follows:

The Elves were the 3rd and 4th grade boys, Fairy Nimble was Kathy Steward, Fairy Joy was Debby Cazier and Santa was Rich Frickey. The Snow Storm were the 4th grade girls. Toyland was the 1st and 2nd grades as Toys with Jeff Macnab as Toyshop owner. The Candy shop was the 3rd grade girls.

The upper grades were in costumes of Christmas in early Europe and at the Holy season the groups sang songs of different countries. Oh, Come All Ye Faithful were a Portuguese carol, Hark The Herald Angels Sing was an Austrian carol, Shepherds Hurred to Bethlehem was a French carol, Eastern Monarch, Sages Three was a French carol and the Holy season was a Yugoslavian carol. The Festive season was the Wassail song by an English carol, Deck the Hall was a Welsh carol, The Yulelog in America was called the Indian Christmas in colonial America. There was the Moon of Wintertime a Huron carol, a World Was 11 Christmas "I'll Be Home for Christmas" and "White Christmas", both American ballads.

A Christmas of today was "Joy to the World, a traditional carol and "Silver Bell" and "Jolly Old St. Nickolas" both American carols. The finale was the Christmas story of the Bible and Silent Night a Bavarian carol. The cast was a narrator, Danny Jensen, chorus the 5th and 6th, 7th and 8th grade pupils. Seen were Shirley Morris as Mary, Ronald Hinkley as Joseph, Cheryl Shouse, Ronita Guillery as angels, Jim Cannon, Nick Reniff and Leslie Parker as shepherds, Lynn Parker, Keith White and David Reniff as kings. On Scene 11 were Chuck Coats, Bonnie Pardue as decorators. Jay Rude, Bill Lockman, Walter Myes and John Macnab as Yulelog bearers. Judy McInnis as tree bearer. Scene 11 Ginnals as Father. Scene 11 Brebeuf, the 5th and 6th grade boys as Indians and the 5th and 6th grade girls a chorus. Scene IV were Dennis Staats as a soldier and Jack White as a sailor. Scene V were Greg Jensen, Jimmy Summers as shoppers; Chris White as a Christmas card; Susan Morris as a Christmas seal; Lonnie Sunderland as Santa Claus and at the finale Peggy Empolen a reader. After the play the Rufus PTA social group served punch, coffee and cookies to all in the school lunch room. Santa Claus was present to pass out bags of candy and nuts to all the children.

The Rufus Community Church held its Christmas program Sunday night. The program began with a congregational song; Rev. gave the prayer. Mr and Mrs John Janahn Kalista gave the welcome; Mike Beers, Willis Newman, Lianne Morris, Tommy Offord, Janis Byrd, Tammy Quillory, Jean Patch, Julie Steward, Larry Blackburne, Michael Quillory all gave recitations; reading "The Shepherd that Didn't Go" by Mary Brackett. Then Go" by Mary Brackett. Then Detra and Alfred Offord gave recitations; Linda Blackburne, Richard Myers, Leila Coleman, Elaine Patch, Mark Shaffer, Linda Empolen, Richard Goodrum, Wanda Empolen, and Marcel Myers also recited. Then there were Bible scenes with John Matheson reading the Bible. It was an angel appears to Mary, the birth of Jesus, the angels visit the shepherds and the wisemen follow the star, all done as tableaux with the other children singing appropriate songs. Mrs Charles Griggs played Star of the East on the piano. A reading "For Jimmy and Me" by Mrs Joe Morris; five children sang "Silent Night" and Lael gave the farewell. After the program sacks of candy and nuts were passed for all. A lovely decorated tree decorated the room with red ribbon bows on the pews in the church. Mrs Fay Brackett played the piano for all the singing.

Mel Counts, Oregon State University's sensational seven-foot All-American, will lead the Beavers into the Far West Basketball Classic this year in quest of their seventh consecutive title. The 1962 classic, sponsored by the University of Oregon and held in Portland's Memorial Coliseum, will start December 26. The lineup of universities represented includes Iowa, Arizona, California, Seattle, Washington State, Idaho, Oregon and Oregon State.

In Our Time

ALUMINUM IS THE THIRD MOST ABUNDANT ELEMENT ON EARTH, BEING EXCEEDED IN AMOUNT ONLY BY OXYGEN AND SILICON... YET THE METAL WAS NOT DISCOVERED UNTIL 1825...

CRUDE SALTS FROM NATURALLY OCCURRING ALUMINUM SULFATE WERE USED BY ASTRONAUTS AS EARLY AS THE 3TH CENTURY B.C. TODAY ALUMINUM DERIVATIVES ARE USED IN SURGERY AND INTERNAL MEDICINES...

THE DEVELOPMENT OF ELECTRICITY AND THE DYNAMO MADE POSSIBLE THE MODERN ELECTROLYTIC METHOD OF PRODUCING ALUMINUM AS USED TODAY... IT WAS DISCOVERED SIMULTANEOUSLY BY CHARLES M. HALL OF U.S. AND PAUL L.T. HEROUULT OF FRANCE IN 1825.

THE LIGHTNESS AND DURABILITY OF ALUMINUM, AS THE WEIGHT OF IRON, COPPER AND BRASS, MAKE IT ONE OF THE IDEAL METALS OF THE MODERN AGE, AND ITS HIGH HEAT CONDUCTIVITY MAKES IT PERFECT FOR COOKING UTENSILS AND APPLIANCES.
