Sherman High School announces the employment of Karen (Mrs. Lee) Kaseberg as foreign language instructor for the 1963-1964 school year. Mrs. Kaseberg will teach Spanish for one period daily.

Word has come indirectly by way of Charles Ruggles, that Stan Reavis has retired as line-man-agent at Parkdale after 35 years with the PP&L company. Mrs. Reavis died a year and a half ago and Stan has an orchard to take care of and found the two jobs too much. He was here for a number of years in the thirties.

George Reed thought he had locked up one night last week and was sitting at his bar when three men came in demanding something to drink. It was past hours and George said "No". So the men started beating him not knowing or not caring that he was recently out of the hospital after a serious operation. In the end the men began quarreling among themselves and quit beating George then left without anything to drink.

Mr and Mrs William Kennedy of Walla Walla came last week end to visit a few days with their son, Bob Kennedy and family here.

Mrs Louis Sather is home again from the hospital after an operation on her eyes which, she says, was successful and she can see better now.

Mr and Mrs John Brownlie of Portland came up last week to do some work around her place here and visit with her sons, the Thompson boys, and their families. They returned home Monday.

Mr and Mrs Max Belshe were in Portland last week end to do some business and visiting.

Miss Doris Pearson came over from Selah, Washington where she is teaching to spend the week end with the Lynn Hamptons with whom she stayed when she was a teacher here.

Mr and Mrs Charley Powell drove up from Portland Friday of last week for an early look at the wheat crop.

Mr and Mrs Bob Bernards and children left Thursday for Mt. Angel to visit her mother, Mrs. Alois Keber until Tuesday when they returned home.

Nearly everybody who had wheels under them went to Heppner Saturday night to see the local basketball team defeat the Morrow county boys. The local boast is that there were about as many Sherman countians as native at the game.

Keck McKean and Irving Hart went to Portland Monday night to attend the Hayward dinner at which athletes were given awards for accomplishments during the year. Keck was one of the judges of the contests. Paul Dietzel of the Army was the speaker at the Portland University auditorium.

Mr and Mrs Harry Dutton were up from Portland Saturday to visit with her sister, Mrs J.K. McKean and family.

David Tyler, five year old son of Mr and Mrs Ed Tyler, is back in school again after 11 days in a hospital with an unidentified virus.

Mr and Mrs Tommy Jones spent the week end in Eugene visiting relatives, returning on Monday.

The Wasco Women's Study club met February 11 for its annual family night. Thirty four members, husbands and guests began the evening with a 6 p.m. potluck dinner.

Mrs Martin Pshigoda, president introduced Tommy Thompson, Sherman county agent, who presented the program on conservation. He spoke of the part taken by the Wasco Women's Study club in the conservation tour for 7th and 8th graders of the county. He also gave a history of the Sherman county experiment station.

He then introduced Don Graham who is with the Sherman county experiment station. He talked about the soil and erosion in Sherman county. Mr Thompson presented slides showing the conservation practiced in various parts of the county.

Last year the seventh district of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, of which Wasco is a member, was awarded a plaque by the Richfield corporation for its help in conservation. The seventh district is composed of 14 clubs from The Dalles to Milton-Freewater.

Mrs Tom Moore helped out in the Wasco school cafeteria for three days last week in the absence of Mrs Bill Long who was unable to work due to a cut on her finger.

The Wasco merchants basketball team took second place in the Mid-Columbia AAU tournament in The Dalles last week end. They defeated Mosier Friday night by a score of 67 to 75, then bowed to the Sugar Bowl of The Dalles Saturday night 66 to 54, which left them in the second place position. Players on the team, coached by Chuck Wallace are Frank Zaniker, Keith Hockman, Dave Wallace, Jack Wallace, Everett Royse, Malcolm McKinney, Larry Kaseberg, Gene Fridley, Norm Fridley and Jim Wallace.

Mrs Chet Coats and daughter Mary went to Portland Tuesday for the day.
