A drivers license examiner will be in Moro on Tuesday, March 26 1963 at the courthouse between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Terry and Lila Bucholtz recently bought an Angus bull from Paul Martin of The Dalles.

Chris Schultz post had a dinner Sunday in honor of the birthday of the American Legion, an event of March 15 in Paris, after the end of World War I Now, after 44 years, posts are celebrating it with chicken and cake. And if the event Sunday at the Legion hall is an example, having a good time doing it. There was a world of food to the delight of the many children, to whom eating is more fun than anything. Elders—many of them recently—elder, spent the afternoon playing cards and catching up on their talking.

Mrs Lucille May was here Monday from her home at Lake Grove to look after her property interests in Moro.

Stopping briefly at the schools to take orders for books from Binford & Mort was Howard McKinley Corning, Oregon author in his own right.

The first junior auxiliary unit of Frank Brown No. 91 was organized recently by Mrs Malcolm McDermid Jr. activity chairman of the unit.

Installation of officers was held Monday, March 11 at the Little Legion hall in Wasco with Mrs Keith McDermid, past district president, installing. Mrs Paul Patrick present president of Dist. 5 and Mrs Floyd Root, unit president were also in attendance.

Junior officers installed were: Jr. chairman, Margaret O'Meara; vice chairman, Susan VanGilder; Secretary, Mary Elizabeth Spencer; Treasurer, Linda VanGilder; Chaplain, Meredith McDermid; Historian and publicity, Paula Walker; Sergeant at Arms, Kathleen Welk; Flag bearer, Debbie VanGilder; Honor Guard, Denise Shull.

The Juniors do not hold office but are chairmen, performing such duties as are assigned to them by the unit officer, thus giving them the fundamental training of the American Legion auxiliary. Their eligibility comes from either a father or brother who has served in the armed forces during WWII or the Korean conflict.

The age limit of a junior member is from one day to 18 years, after which she is an adult member. The newly organized group under the capable direction of Mrs McDermid will assist the unit making flowers for the wheel chair parade at the Veteran's hospital. They will make cookies for the Roseburg hospital for their recreation hours.

They may assist in selling poppies, decorate graves of veterans and participate in the Memorial day parade.

Visiting at the Carl Ziegler home last weekend were Mrs. Ziegler's parents, Mr and Mrs Ivan Kirkelle from Kennewick, and Everett and Eva Kirkelle from OSU. Eva and Everett celebrated their birthdays during their stay before Eva left for Portland and the CEA convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walton and children, Ann and Chris, visited the John McMurtrey family last weekend from Creswell.

Mrs. Larry Kaseberg took her boys, Collin, Kevin and Cameron to Dufur last Sunday for the children's great grandmother's birthday. Mrs. Kaseberg's grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Woods, celebrated the event with close friends and relatives. Mr. Kaseberg was unable to attend since he was in Portland for his regular monthly National Guard duty.

VISITOR HERE

Kenneth Burkes, sometimes called Casey Burkes, and who used to be called Tiny Harris when a growing boy around Sherman county. But he has outgrown both the Tiny and the Harris, although he was born on the Harris place on the Deschutes back in 1897. He is a frequent visitor to Sherman county where he has friends of the pre-World War I days before he went off to the Navy. He now lives at Coos Bay where he dabbles in real estate, utilizing his shrewdness profitably.
