

NEW SWING IN RINGS!

Fascinating new diamond styling

A thrilling departure from traditional ring symmetry. Upswept lines dramatize the fiery center diamond. Three graduated diamonds in each ring add to rhythmic effect.

Miss Sandra Kay Zachary and Glen Andrew Hurn exchanged wedding bands in an afternoon ceremony Saturday, April 20, at St. Peter's Catholic Church in The Dalles.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zachary of Moro. The groom is the son of Mrs. Carroll Hurn of Arlington, Wash., and the late Mr. Hurn.

The church was decorated with large baskets of Shasta daisies, fern and calla lilies.

The floor length bridal gown was of white lace and tulle with fingertip sleeves. She wore an illusion veil caught up in a tiara of seed pearls and carried a white prayer book topped by an orchid and a spray of stemonitis. The bride was given away by her father.

Miss Patricia Zachary served as maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Chet, Kay, Farnsworth of Salem, cousin of the bride, Carol Palmer and Judy Morgan, both of Ione. The attendants wore Nile green dresses of taffeta, overlaid with organza, matching shoes and head pieces. They carried fan bouquets of small white mums.

Bill Darst of Arlington, Wash., served as best man. Ushers were Mike Zachary, brother of the bride, Keith Hockman and John Capaci. Karla Day Alderman of Salem, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl, while Patrick Beers of Rufus was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a jacket-dress of mauve lace and taffeta with matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a pink lace dress with white accessories. Their corsages were of white gardenias.

The soloist was Howard Harrington of The Dalles, who sang, "Ave Maria," accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Healy, also of The Dalles.

The guests were greeted at a reception held in Vogt Hall following the ceremony. Decoration consisted of large baskets of Shasta daisies, fern and calla lilies. A three tiered elevated wedding cake formed the center piece of the refreshment table and was flanked by candles carrying out the green color scheme. Those cutting the cake were Mrs. Lamer Sayers of Moro, Mrs. Bill Mettee of The Dalles, Mrs. George Portschy of Pilot Rock and Mrs. Paul Farnsworth of Salem. Those pouring coffee were Mrs. John Shipley of Moro and Mrs. Eldon Meeteer of The Dalles. Mrs. Michael Mulick of Moro presided at the punch bowl while her daughter,

Holly had charge of the gift table, assisted by Sue Townsend of Ione. Mrs. Gerald Alderman of Salem, sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

For a going away costume the bride chose a knit suit of royal blue with white accessories. Immediately following the reception the bride and groom left for a week's stay at Oregon beaches after which they will make their home in Wasco.
