

10 Safety Rules For Swimmers, Boaters Listed

An estimated 6550 people will drown this year in the United States, some 2550 from swimming or playing in the water alone. An additional 4000 will fall from docks, bridges, or drift within 75 feet of shore.

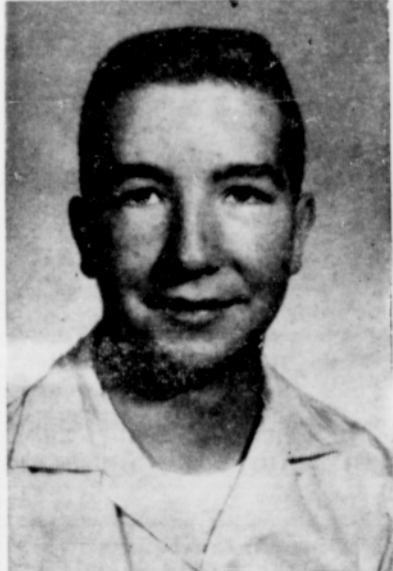

Most of the individuals who become part of these dismal statistics will do so because they fail to observe 10 simple rules around water, according to Edward J. Slezak, associate professor in Physical Education and Recreation at Oregon State University.

To live longer while enjoying water sports, everyone should observe the following rules, says Slezak.

1. Learn to swim.
2. Never swim alone.
3. Refrain from swimming too soon after meals.
4. Enter the water gradually—never turn your back to surf waters.
5. Swim only when life guards are on duty.
6. Never call for help unless needed.
7. Listen to instructions.
8. Observe all beach and pool regulations.
9. Have a boat and two good swimmers escort you on long swims.
10. Never over-load boats, canoes, and wear life jackets.

Kenneth Blagg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Blagg, will go to Boys state at Corvallis. The Grass Valley Grain Growers has agreed to foot some of the expense to aid the legion post.

J. P. Reckmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Reckmann, has been selected as one of the delegates from George Bell post, American Legion to Boys state next month.

OSU Bulletin Gives Bulgur Wheat Recipes

Recipes featuring the many uses of bulgur wheat are offered in a new Oregon State University extension bulletin.

Bulgur, a processed wheat with nut-like flavor, is available at most grocery stores under various trade names such as Ala, Sunnyland Bulgur, and Sun-Dry Bulgur. It has also been added to the abundant foods distribution list in Josephine county on a pilot basis for the western region.

Miss Virginia Ruth Weiser, OSU extension nutritionist and bulletin author, says that bulgur is one of the oldest foods known to man but only in the last few years has it gained popularity in this country. There's not a meal that can't include some bulgur, according to tasty recipes provided in the bulletin.

Recipes include western nugget pancakes, wheat meat loaf, near east baked chops, and wheat parfait.

A copy of "Bulgur — Versatility Plus" may be obtained at county extension offices or from the OSU bulletin clerk.
