Wasco news.)

Mrs. Lora Fordyce of White Salmon has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Emma Dutton the past two weeks.

Mrs. Sally Wright was pleasantly surprised by Mr. and Mrs. Ingles of Bremerton who stopped by for a short visit. The Ingles, accompanied by Mrs. Wright, motored to Shaniko where Mrs. Ingles owns farm land. While there they visited with the Ingles niece who operates the gas station there. In the evening, the Ingles, who have just returned from an extensive tour of the east, took time out to show their pictures taken on the trip. Mrs. Augusta Royce and Mrs. Lloyd Royce were also guests for the evening.

The first load of barley (Hudson) for the season was brought into the Sherman Coop Grain Growers, Friday, July 5, by Willard Harper. Several others expect to be going within the next few days.

Mr. Arthur Sargent received word this week of the death of his sister Mrs. Edith Kennedy of Farham, Quebec.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Spencer and daughter Donna Lee, Montesano, Wash., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dunn last Wednesday.

Deanna Quillen, of Portland, is visiting with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George Weedman. Deanna will be one of the instructors of swimming at the DeMoss pool.

Mrs. Myrtle Funk left Wasco Thursday for Bend where she will spend a few days with her relatives the Elfin Ross family.

The Tuesday Club met at the home of Mrs. Idah Everett Tuesday July 2nd. Cards were in play at three tables. Delicious refreshments were served. Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. E. Shull, Mrs. Arthur Sargent, Mrs. Keith McDonald, Mrs. Leona Van Gilder, Mrs. Elva Dehler, Mrs. Bill Nesbit and Mrs. Paul Patrick. High score for the club went to Mrs. Mabel Haven and low score to Gladys Zell. High for the guest went to Mrs. E. Shull.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Walker and son Jim of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Anderson and daughters of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Patrick and son Michael enjoyed the 4th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harper and The Dalles Country club.

Mrs. Leona Van Gilder, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gunnel and daughter Donna Lee of Moro, and Mrs. Elva Dehler of Wasco, motored to Camp Sherman over the 4th. Donna Lee caught three nice trout, one measuring seventeen inches.

The John Robinsons and the Lloyd Royces were also visitors at Camp Sherman over the 4th. Their day was marred, however, by a minor accident, that of knocking out a reverse rod, which cut short their plans of motoring on to Wizard Falls.

Mrs. Carl Tuggle entertained with an afternoon of refreshments and visiting for her mother, Mrs. Lahmann of Olympia. Mrs. Lahmann has been visiting with the Tuggles for the past week. Those present for the afternoon were Mrs. Robert Bish, Mrs. Gordon Harper, Mrs. Leland Anderson and daughters of Salem, Mrs. Hilda Hartmann, Mrs. Arthur Sargent, Mrs. Harry Van Gilder, Mrs. Idah Everett, Mrs. Jennie Hearing, Mrs. Rosalie White, Mrs. Alice Anderson, Mrs. Earl Richelderfer, Mrs. Harland McDonald and Mrs. Douglas Alley and son Dwight. Mrs. Harper poured and Mrs. Bish served the cake. Mrs. Lahmann is leaving Sunday to visit with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lahmann of Carson.

Anne Fulton Chapter No. 124, OES held its Annual picnic at the Masonic Hall, Sunday, July 7. Approximately 60 members and their families attended. A special cake was baked by Mrs. C. Tuggle for Mrs. Grace Medler's birthday which fell on the day of the picnic. Members spent the afternoon relating some experiences of the Fourth.

Approximately 125 spectators watched Tuesday night, July 2nd as the Sherman Babe Ruth team took a decisive lead over The Dalles Yankees early in the game and went on to win 7 to 1. Gene Lanthorn threw another two hitter.

A caucus of the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary will be held in Madras July 21, at the Madras Legion hall. A potluck dinner is to precede the meeting. The dinner will be at 1:30 p.m. with all attending participating in bringing food. All members of the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary are cordially invited to attend. The delegates will attend to elect a District Commander and District President for the coming year. Several department officers are expected to attend.

Miss Annette Sutter, niece of Mrs. Carl Tuggle, has been a guest at the home of the Tuggles for the past three weeks. She returned to her home in Tacoma on Wednesday in time to see her sister, Frances, a Airline stewardess, who was flying in from Minneapolis, for the Fourth.

John Buck and family of Bend, had as their guests over the 4th, Mrs. Mae Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Roberts and family, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Van Gilder and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Watkins and son Don, all of Wasco, and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Taylor and family of Prineville, Mr. and Mrs. George Buck and family of Grants Pass and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Virtue and family of Moro. Mrs. Mae Buck reports that the day was spent visiting, swimming and playing tennis. The day was completed with a lovely potluck dinner in the spacious backyard of the John Bucks. It has been several months since the entire family were together, so it was a real celebration for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Engberg and daughter Kaye motored to Spokane this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Curtis and family of Portland, were in Wasco the latter part of the week, making arrangements for their move from Portland to Wasco on or about the 15th of August.

Mrs. Grace Medler has received word that her daughter Mrs. Harry Adams and children of Lasland Airport Tuesday, July 9. Mrs. Medler will meet them in Portland and motor home. Mrs. Adams (Phyllis Joy) will be visiting here two weeks. Mr. Adams will drive up from Las Vegas later to return his family home by car.
