MORO, SHERMAN CO., OREGON: THURSDAY, JANUARY 7, 1897

Entered second class matter at the Post office at Moro, for transmission through the United States mails.

CITY AND COUNTY.

Judge Blackburn of Grant, was in Moro on business last week.

We had a very pleasant call from J. W. Walker of Grant recently.

Dr. Smiths noble little boy has been very sick with an attack of the croup.

We are pained to learn that J. L. Brackett of Bigelow has nearly lost his eye sight.

Jas. McMillan was a caller Saturday. Things about his acres are looking healthy.

Judge J. O. Cooley is filling his new position with honor, and credit to his home, at Grant.

You get THE OBSERVER for one year for One Dollar from the date of payment of arrears.

The Moro Odd Fellows installed new officers Saturday evening. S.S. Hayes was chosen N. G.

A fine part Holstein cow, fresh milk, is for sale by Page & Parry at the Moro City Market.

The hog nuisance is increasing in Sherman county too rapidly to be ignored very much longer.

Call on J. B. Pulliam when you go to Wasco. He has all new stock and a fine quality of yarns.

Volunteer wheat is going to cut a figure of some proportions in Sherman county crops this year.

Hon. J. Harvey Smith of Grass Valley, was in Moro with his brothers Alex and Robert on the 21.

Grass Valley Odd Fellows installed Monday night. L. K. Moore was chosen N. G., C. A. Buckley secretary.

The school exhibition to be given here tomorrow evening, will be reproduced in Grass Valley on the 23d.

Irwin Pike left for Salem Monday to be in attendance during the legislative session which will meet next Monday.

Friends of John McDermaid will be pleased to know that he is mending rapidly. A sister is with the brothers now.

L. K. Moores new store in Moro has been opened with promising prospects. He has a fine stock of fresh groceries, etc. See ad.

Judge Fulton was in attendance at the probate court Monday. The county court is now in session with an exceptionally large docket.

"Charity begins at home" these days and the dead head system of business has been teetotally wiped out in THE OBSERVER for 1897.

The Moro Fire Department will give its 2d entertainment, a St. Valentines ball, in School Hall, Friday evening February 12th, 1897.

Dufur flour is good. It has gained such a reputation that it is in general demand, and the mills are being run over time to most orders.

Page & Parry at the City Market Moro, have for sale a 3 1/2 truck, with rack, that has been used a very short time and is in good condition.

The utter failure of crops in Argentine and the famine in India, ought to create a paying demand for growing wheat crops in Oregon.

Prof. C. E. Brown will install the new A. O. U. W. officers this week. Fred Krusov was chosen M. W. and Prof. Hargreaves recorder, of Grass Valley lodge.

The state board of equalization raised valuations in Oregon from $142,449,821 to $152,033,666. The net taxable valuations in Sherman county were fixed at $1,682,284.

The headquarters of J. R. De-Mille the well driller, is now at Bigelow. He has been very successful in getting water wherever he has set up his drill. See ad on 2d page.

A social dancing club will be organized in Moro on the 9th. The first dance will be given in Moore Bros. hall on the evening of January 9th. Good music has been secured and a very pleasant time may be anticipated. Everybody is invited.

Now is the time to purchase a Canton gang plow. Moore Bros. are making special prices and terms on all Canton goods for the next 30 days. They have a large stock on hand such as gangs, walking plows, discs, harrows and cultivators. Call and see them. Moro, Oregon.

Sixty three numbers were sold at the Grass Valley dance New Years' night. An enjoyable time was had by all present, and the dance continued until 5 a.m. The dancers dedicated the Vintin hotel by demolishing an extra fine supper served in the commodious dining room of that already popular hostelry.

Moore Bros. have sold more grain drills in the past 60 days than any firm in Oregon, outside of Portland, and more than any retail house in Portland. They handle the McSherry, made to their own order direct from the factory. As we feel a pride in all home industries we advise purchasers to call on Moore Bros. before buying.

County warrants will be taken at per on accounts in THE OBSERVER office.

Judge Bradshaw of The Dalles was present and delivered an address at the K. of P. installation in Wasco New Year evening. Wm. Hendrichs of Moro attended.

Mrs. C. E. Brown installed the officers in the D. of H. Moro Monday evening. Mrs. G. N. Bolton was chosen C. of H. and Miss Mary Peoples Recorder.

If you have cattle you want to trade for a new 3 1/2 Studebaker high wheel wagon Page & Parry at the City Market, Moro, are the persons you want to call upon.

L. Clark has plenty of dry fir, oak and pine wood also Rock Springs and Roslyn coal. A carload of Star A Star shingles just received at L. Clark's Biggs, Or.

Get a new yearly subscriber for THE OBSERVER. Collect $1.00 and send it to us and we will make you a present of the N. Y. Tribune for 1897, the subscription price of which is $1.00.

Supt. Irwin has promised something. He promises to recommend an act providing by law two more text books for parents to buy in educating children in the public schools.

"Let your light so shine," and if you want a light that lights up your house and makes you feel light-hearted, get a lamp from R. C. Craven. He has the finest assortment in the city.

Dr. G. E. Sanders, dentist, will reach Wasco today where he will remain one week, arriving in Moro on the 14th. After a week he will go to Grass Valley, on the 21st, where he will remain one week.

Why haul your flour from The Dalles, when you can save money by going to the Dufur mills? They have a large stock of flour on hand and their prices are lower than the lowest. Give them a trial.

We have on hand two 8 foot McSherry broad-cast seeders which we offer for sale at a bargain. We wish to introduce these seeders. We believe them to be next to the McSherry drill, and cost less. Moore Bros., Moro, Oregon

Heydt & Co. of the Moro saddlery and harness shop, wish to call the attention of buyers to their new stock of lap robes, horse-blankets, leggings, etc., which are up to date, bought low and will be sold cheap enough to satisfy anybody.

The local paper is supposed to print all the home news but if it printed all the scraps, family rackets, etc., there would be a howl. You can never realize the true value of a home paper until you want something kept out of its columns.

While making a special feature in the line of fine and fashionable hats at the very lowest prices, Mrs. M. E. Briggs the leading milliner at The Dalles, always has a complete stock of other goods bought in the east, and sold at eastern prices. Give her a call.

T. A. Van Norden the long established and well known watchmaker and jeweler at The Dalles respectfully solicits a portion of the trade of Sherman county. All work warranted. Second street, next door to the First National bank, The Dalles, Oregon.

All persons in Sherman county favorable to the permanent organization of a horticultural society are requested to meet in Moro Saturday January 9th in Moore Bros. hall, at 1 o'clock p.m. The creamery topic will also be discussed at the conclusion of this meeting.

Go to any grocer and ask for Schilling's Best tea: Japan, English Breakfast, Oolong, Ceylon, or the Blend.

He will pay you your money back if you don't like it.

A Schilling & Company San Francisco

This sacred dramatic cantata which is to be reproduced in Moro as an oratorio, Geo. DeMoss director, with a chorus of over 40 voices, on the 15th, was written by J. M. De Moss, harmonized by Henry S., and will be presented under the direction of the DeMoss family, with the following personages:

CAST OF CHARACTERS. George DeMoss King Pharaoh, Henry DeMoss, Miss Lydia Beecher, Miss Myrtle DeMoss, J. B. Hooford, J. Schaeffer, Miss Lydia DeMoss, Miss America Moore, Mrs. Nora Craven, Miss Maggie Morrison, Mrs. C. R. Webb, Mrs. M. Smith, Mrs. M. DeMoss, Mrs. Wm. Rossman, Mrs. Vera Webb, Mrs. Edna Siders, Mrs. Dora Craven, Mrs. J. B. Hooford, Mrs. Maggie Strahl, Mrs. J. J. Schaeffer, Mrs. Florence Carson, Mrs. E. Brown, Mrs. C. E. Brown, Mrs. E. Brown, Mrs. C. E. Brown, Mrs. J. R. Thompson, Mrs. Chas. H. Belcher, Mrs. M. B. Hart, Mrs. C. L. Ireland, Mrs. Geo. Belcher, Mrs. B. F. Schaeffer, Mrs. Thos. C. Morrison, Mrs. John Strahl, Mrs. Elva Strahl, Mrs. Stephen Roseman, Ernest Webb, Mrs. J. M. DeMoss, Mrs. Henry DeMoss.

Donnell's drug store is still at the old stand opposite A. M. Williams & Co.'s store. Call when in need of drugs or any thing in the drug line. Orders sent by the Dalles-Moro stage will receive prompt attention.

Moro lodge No. 64, A.O.U.W., is the only lodge in the county from which we have secured a list of the officers elected for the current term. They installed Tuesday night as follows: W. B. McCoy, PMW; Leon W. Hunting, MW; C. M. Whitelaw, foreman; Douglas Allen, overseer; H. S. McDaniel, recorder; E. Boone Wheat, rec; H. A. Moore, financier; E. Peoples, guide; A. Hennagin, IW; G. N. Bolton, O.W.

Housewives and bachelors can test an oven by using a bit of white paper. If it burns at once the oven is too hot for anything. If it turns a delicate brown, it indicates pastry heat. For cake it will be dark yellow; light yellow shows the proper heat for biscuit and sponge cake, or any cake, or any cakes requiring rather slow baking. For meats the first heat should be strong to keep the juices in the meat.

A friend from Bigelow called at the bank a few days ago and wanted two drafts of $150 each, one on Portland by the Oregonian and one on San Francisco for the Examiner. Henry told him he could do better by taking THE OBSERVER. He came to us and left a check for $325 getting THE OBSERVER really for 12 months for 25 cents. If you want the Oregonian, etc., come here for them and save your money.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Ginn had a genuine surprise last week. Mr. and Mrs. Smiley and family of Iowa, on a tour of the coast, came on New Years day. Mrs. S. is a sister of Mrs. Ginn and Mrs. McGinnis. Miss Maggie Ginn came on the day before New Year. Then came Miss Lydia Coleman sister of Mrs. Ginn Mrs. Smiley and Mrs. McGinnis, from Blachard, Iowa. It is needless to add that these visits are very greatly enjoyed. We tell Robert J. that they came to see that handsome baby, but the little fellow is badly sick with a terrible cold.

A story is told of a young lady who found a package of love letters that had been written to her mother by her father before they were married. The daughter saw that she could have a little sport and read them to her mother, substituting her own name for that of her mother, and a fine young man for that of her father. The mother jumped up and down, shifted her feet, and forbad her daughter to have anything to do with the young man who could write such sickening nonsensical stuff to a girl. When the young lady handed the letter to her mother to read the house became so still that one could hear the grass growing.

A new swindle is being worked in Oregon. It takes two to play it. Swindler number one calls upon a farmer with a patent wagon tongue on his way home, having made a good thing out of it, and has only one county to sell. He tells the farmer that he can have it for $100 and if he wants it to write to him. In a few days swindler number two comes along. He has heard that the farmer has the right of the county for the patent wagon tongue, and as he made a big thing of it in Pennsylvania, he wants to buy the right of the county and offers the farmer $250 and pays $10 down to bid the bargain. The farmer writes to swindler number one and sends him his note or check for $100. He never hears of either of the men, but his note turns up for collection in a neighboring town and he is out $90.

The two organs will be "manipulated" by Mrs. J. M. DeMoss and Henry DeMoss.

In presenting this cantata the author has been very careful to avoid fictitious characters in presenting absolute truths, believing it to be the most consistent, to present in a modest manner, the conspiracy of the brethren, also, the ill treatment by Capt. Potiphar in sending him to prison; showing from the depts of afflictions, God was able to raise him to a high position, that he might be able to feed God's chosen people, Israel, during the great famine.

The preparatory remarks introducing the oratorio are too lengthy for comment and cannot well be abbreviated to give the reader any intelligent idea of the plot. All, however, know enough of the bible account of Joseph's eventful life, the conspiracy of his brethren, etc., and his final success when he proclaims "I am Joseph your brother whom ye sold into Egypt." The brethren fall back with astonishment, then they come and bow down to Joseph. Asenath, the governor's wife, and the house of Pharaoh, hearing the noise come in. The names of the brethren are presented to Pharaoh, who welcomes the governor's kindred to the land of Egypt. The brethren are commended to bring their father and all his kindred to Egypt. On their arrival at Jacob's house, in Canaan, there is great joy. And Israel says, "It is enough; Joseph my son is yet alive; I will go and see him before I die." Full chorus singing as they march to Egypt's chariot at Goshen. Solemn meeting of Jacob and Joseph. Closing with a grand chorus of rejoicing, and an anthem of praises to Jehovah for deliverance.

Doors will open at 7 p.m. Begins at 8. Admission 25c, children 15c.

W. M. Ropine, editor Tishlwa III, "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colic. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at A. D. Bolton & Co.'s drug store.

Many readers know that a mixture of two parts of pounded ice and one part of common salt will reduce the temperature of anything enclosed so as to be wholly surrounded by the mixture (say a milk can in an ice cream freezer) to a point 38 degrees below that at which water freezes. There are but few readers, however, that know of the remarkable properties of a mixture of chloride of lime and ice. A mixture of three parts of crystallized chloride of lime and two parts of ice forms a combination that will freeze mercury in seven minutes.

Public School Entertainment. An entertainment will be given in School Hall, Moro, Friday evening January 8th, 1897, for the benefit of the school, at which two excellent pieces will be rendered as follows:

A temperance drama in three acts. This play is equal to The Social Glass. Wherever this drama has been produced it has been received with the greatest enthusiasm. Listeners have been melted into tears at the trouble of Mrs. Bradford and in the next scene been convulsed with laughter at the drolleries of North Carolina Pete.

CAST OF CHARACTERS. Colonel Wayne, C. E. Brown; Solomon Davis, Clyde Williams; Matt Davis, Adolph Heydt; North Carolina Pete, Charles Ragsdale; Dr. Medford, Drew Harnum; Mrs. Wayne, Jesse Erad; Miss Nina Wayne, Miss Nellie Boulder; Mrs. Bradford, Mrs. G. N. Bolton; Minnie Bradford, Lulu Bolton; Pullerman, A. H. Tarroun.

The Yankee Peddler. Or old times in Virginia. This is one of the most laughable farces ever placed before the public. It describes the adventures of Hiram Dodge, a dealer in wooden nutmegs, etc., on a Southern plantation. Full of impudence and assurance, he gets everything and everybody by the ears and does a good stroke of business at the same time.

CAST OF CHARACTERS. Yankee Peddler, C. E. Brown; Sophie, Clyde Williams; Charles Harris, Llewellyn Bursum; Singly, John Parry; Jennings, Adolph Heydt; Pompey, H. A. Parry; Miss Maria Fuller, Minnie Smith; Jesse, Mrs. C. E. Brown; Finah, Charles Ragsdale.

Good music has been provided. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.; performance at 7:30 p.m. Admission 25c; children 15c; reserved seats 35c.
