Gen. Miles goes to Turkey to see the fight. Greece has added 2,000 American horses to her war outfit.

The Kentucky legislator has made glanders a capital offense. A hail storm demolished buildings and killed people in Kansas on the 23d.

President McKinley has sent an Angel to Turkey—Jas. B., of Michigan, as minister. It transpires that the airships that have been so active late in the middle west were fake advertisers.

The sultan speaks as glibly about the principle of integrity in Turkey as though such a thing really existed there. With reference to the concert of the powers, Turkey does not assume to be anything more than a slightly bored audience.

The sup. reme court of Iowa having decided that "to swipe" means to steal, the fellow who swipes another in the nose is liable to be convicted of burglary. The Oregonian calls the monetary conference "costly nonsense." Sol! Then what do you call that St. Louis National Republican platform which imposed the obligation?

Airship parties seem to be the popular diversion in various towns of Illinois, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska. New Journalism is keeping the sensation up to a high pitch though its dates get badly mixed. O, for a Byron to fire the heart of the Greek as in olden time—seems to be an useless invocation while England is full of poets whose effusions are calculated to make man fight without further provocation.

We extend a cordial invitation to every one to be present during the Convention. Miss MAURICE EATON, President.

There are two redeeming features about the Mohammedan religion. Its adherents are compelled to wash frequently and abstain from indulgence in strong drink. But those Bashi-Bazouks are either somewhat heterodox or else have a new compound of their own to load up on when they go on a rampage in Christian quarters.

Mrs. Mattie Barnes of South Bend has placed us under obligation for copy of a valuable paper recently read before the Indiana Historical Society in which appears an account of some of the doings of the OBSERVER man when, with Hon. Schuyler Colfax, Dr. Orpheus Evans and Wilber F. Stovv we were making Hoosier State History back in bygone days. Those recollections are very pleasant reading to us now.

From whom does the Pendleton Tribune learn that the mugwamp-holding Oregonian "is the leading republican newspaper of Oregon?" The Oregonian is not now nor for years has it been republican, any more than Joe Simon has been republican since he peddled bogus tickets years ago to deft part of the republican ticket himself at the time disgracing the chair as Chairman of the State Central Committee. Republicans? point us to an instance where such party as to be trusted without watching in the heat of any political battles recently fought in Oregon.

Mrs. VanOrsdal is again at home in Pendleton and readers of the EO will miss her pity letters. Her visit to the biggest brewery in America with a delegation of Woodmen and women in St. Louis, where she was "quite confounded by the dazzling array of magnificence and immensity on every hand," produced no bad effect such as she experienced at Excelsior Springs, Mo., after imbibing too freely of the famous mineral waters "warranted to cure everything, from gout to health." Being possessed of the latter disease it cured her and she climbed into a car of "our old friend" the UPR, "not only homsick but physically sick." The train was held at Faolt for her 15 minutes, "a courtesy seldom enjoyed except by plutocrats, railway officials or prize fighters. You can not imagine" she says, "how the honor swell me up until it occurred to me that it was not me at all—that it was just because the people back in those good forsaken run-to-seed places so seldom capture the festive quarter of a dollar that even the railroads would smash a schedule to sell a ticket."

GRAND ARMY CAMP FIRE.

Adjutant J. M. Parry has addressed the following circular from headquarters W. T. Sherman Post, Dept. of Oregon, G. A. R., which is self explanatory:

Comrades—There will be a Camp Fire in the School hall at Moro, commencing at 7 p. m. Saturday, May 8, 1897. Your self and family are cordially invited to be present. There will be a short program rendered in the forenoon consisting of old Army Songs, recitations, etc.

Afterwards an old-fashioned Camp Fire in which every Comrade present will be expected to take part. Post Commander John H. Johnson will preside at the afternoon meeting. Come, and help make this a Grand Reunion—a time of refreshing Bring your Haversack, well filled. Have at least one day's rations. Bring knives, forks and spoons. The W. R. C. will furnish coffee, sugar and cream. By order of the committee on program. J. M. PARRY, Adjutant.

Major's Waco Letter. Letters from Rev. Nicholson say Mrs. Nicholson is slowly recovering. G. N. Crossfield spent several days here last week, attending to the new store building. Road Supervisor Gibson is doing some fine work around Waco. He is using the county road scraper. Mrs. Ada Unruh delivered a lecture in the M. E. church Saturday evening on the subject of Purity, after which ice cream and cake was served in the parsonage. She also filled the M. E. pulpit Sunday morning and gave an address to the Senior L. T. L. in the afternoon.

Monklund Letter. N. W. Thompson has sold his threshing outfit to Stone Bros. of The Dalles. R. Newton went beyond Golden-dale about seven miles last week to get logs for a linn. Miss Ada Linnville of Portland, is teaching the Fairview school and is giving good satisfaction. Fall grain looks fine and spring grain is coming along nicely. Our farmers anticipate a large yield. Miss May Thompson of Hay Canyon will spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. N. W. Thompson. John James McDonald has returned from a long visit in Montana. He finds no place equal to Sherman county. Miss Alma Newton received a letter last Monday from the Valley stating that it was still raining and mud as deep as ever. Most of the farmers are busy putting out gardens and orchards. They say it is no use going to the river after fruit when they can raise as fine fruit in Sherman county as can be produced any where if properly taken care of. Quite a number of our young gentlemen friends are talking of going to South America to locate. The party comprises James Belshie Joseph and Thomas Morrison, R. A. Kell and Richard Bowen. I think the best thing they can do is to stay in old Sherman county where we have plenty of sunshine the year round. MISS S. B. BUTTERFLY.

The Grandest Remedy. Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery and was cured by use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for coughs, colds and consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottles free at A. D. Bolton & Co.'s drug store.
