OFFICIAL PAPER OF SHERMAN CO.

MORO, OREGON.

D. C. IRELAND & SONS. . . PUBLISHERS

WEDNESDAY . . . . . OCTOBER 13, 1897

Bowling alleys are becoming an unbearable nuisance in Portland.

All the Moro business houses are patrons of the CSRy.

The plan for a flouring mill in Moro has by no means been abandoned.

The first car load of wood to reach Wasco over the CSRy was car No. 4301 for THE OBSERVER, shipped by Wm. Tillett, from Hood River.

Roads in Sherman county were never so bad as now. W. H. Moore was home Sunday and it was his opinion that no farmer could afford to haul past Wasco now.

PURE BLOOD is the foundation of health. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure, rich and nourishing and gives and maintains good HEALTH.

Thanks to Prof. Mayberry and other volunteers, Old Glory may now float from Moro School hall flag staff, as they succeeded last week in reeving permanent halliards.

We are pained to learn from the Condon Globe that the condition of Miss Lizzie DeMoss is critical. The wounded leg is badly swollen and festered and blood poisoning may set in at any time.

The Columbia Commercial Co. shipped the first train load of wheat out of Wasco over the CSRy last week. With elaborate banners on each car the train presented an attractive feature of Sherman county resources.

The state fair for 1897 is now a thing of the past and the Gervais Star raises to ask: "Of what benefit has it been to the state of Oregon? How many people looking for information about Oregon attended?" We give it up; Bro. Clarke.

119 Lombard Investment Co. v. S. Calhoun. W. H. Wilson for Plff. Order for sheriff to make deed.

27 Alex. McIntosh. Assignment. Report of assignee approved and assignee discharged.

The Grand Jury reported as follows: "We have been in session two days and have examined into several matters which we have not deemed of sufficient importance to report. We have examined the Clerks', Sheriffs', Treasurers' and Assessors' offices, and find said offices, with the books, records and papers therein, well and properly kept, so far as we are able to judge in the brief time allowed us for such examination. We have examined the County Jail, and find the same in good condition except the cess pool, which we recommend that the County court have walled and arched over with brick. We have examined the condition of the County Poor and find that there is but one county charge and he is properly cared for by the County court." Signed, T. B. Searcey, Foreman.
