

M. M. Co 's NEW YEAR GIFTS GIVEN AWAY!

Commencing Thursday, December 9th, 1897, every cash purchaser to the amount of $1.00, at any of the M. M. Co.'s Sherman County Stores, in Moro, Monkland or Klondyke, will receive a ticket for each Dollar, entitling the holder to the chance of drawing one of the following first class prizes, to-wit:

Steel Range

Worth SIXTY Dollars.

Sewing Machine

Worth THIRTY Dollars.

8-Day Clock

Worth FIVE Dollars.

The contest will close at noon on New Years Day. Rules governing the contest: The tickets will be kept in locked boxes. At noon on New Years Day the boxes will be opened by a disinterested person and the contents of the three boxes, from Moro, Monkland and Klondyke, will be placed all together in one large box, big enough to hold them and admit of shaking them up well. A blindfolded boy will then insert his hand and draw out one Ticket. The holder of the coupon corresponding with that ticket will be entitled to the Handsome SIXTY DOLLAR RANGE. The boy will then proceed in like manner to draw out another ticket which will entitle the holder of the corresponding coupon to the Beautiful THIRTY Dollar SEWING MACHINE. Another ticket will then be drawn out by the boy, the coupon of which will entitle the holder to the Eight-Day FIVE Dollar CLOCK.
