FRIDAY..... AUGUST 11, 1899

Entered assecond class matter at the Post office at Moro, for transmission through the United States mails.

CITY AND COUNTY.

The price of The Observer is $1.50 per year. 75 cents for six months, 50 cents for four months—but if paid in advance we accept $1.00 in full for one year. Shorter terms than one year 12½ cents per month.

J.C.Kaseberg is still sinking for water at his place.

The latest in blackmail is the Multnomah bike tax.

Capt. Nelson's family are summering in the mountains.

John Kay reports finding a $6.00 a day job in Washington.

Bunch grass is seeding nicely in Sherman county this summer.

Next to watermelons the scarcest thing in this vicinity is farm hands.

Fresh ripe blackberries, at Brocks.

Messrs. Parr & Huntington of the EOLCo. paid Moro an official visit last week.

N.W.Thompson delivered another bunch of fat horses at the Linnton cannery last week.

Wes. Rigdon is keeping an all around first class restaurant at the stand of Councilman Brock.

Mayor C.E.Jones, the Wasco merchant, is "selling out"—an everyday incident; as he is there te stay.

Sherman county will have hay to spare this year. Many farmers are making hay of wheat which it would not pay to thresh.

Henry Dyce, well known in Sherman county, is running the Little Club stables in Antelope, and is doing a good business.

Capt. Stanley, county treasurer, has issued another call for warrants down to and including No. 432, dated August 1st, 1899.

M.L.Cochrane has returned from Sunnyside, Wash., only to redeem his promise to work in the Sherman county harvest this year.

John Dalrymple, who is farming the Floyd ranch has harvested 100 tons of hay, said to be the best crop ever raised on the place.

Mr. and Mrs. Peoples will be at home in their new house soon, if not sooner, judging from present appearances of the work.

Billy Hess has an aunt visiting him from St.Louis, Mo. John Kay stopped at the Golden Rule with Mr.H. when in Pendleton.

Wherever on the road Louie Peetz came in view on his recent long trip south, across the desert, he and his teams received a welcome.

Fred Clark is about disconsolate over the departure of his bachelor partner in housekeeping, Dr. Idleman, who is strawbucker in a thresh ing crew.

Mr.Lake, of the Sherman county Lumber Co., has purchased a new and complete mill which is expected to arrive at the Harris site within a week.

Doug Allen surprised his numerous friends by driving a stage into town one evening just as he used to do. Only this one was loaded with blackberries. He made a combination with Sam McDonald, and now comes frequently.

We regret to learn that C.H.Williams has sold the cow that gives the buttermilk; further, that he has disposed of the balance of his land in Sherman county, bought in a shady nook of Clackamas, where there are purling springs and green pastures; and will soon remove to his new home with his family.

In military prisons an offender is sometimes sentenced to carry cannon balls from one place to another and pile them up all day long. That is all. Perhaps it does not seem very terrible but it soon wears his life out. It is practically a death sentence, and he knows it; he would rather be shot. Many a sick man feels the same way about the burden of disease that he is lugging back and forth from day to day. He would as soon be down with a mortal disease. It will come to that sooner or later.

A man's life can be dragged out by dyspepsia and liver complaint. The experience of Mr. J. T. Cardwell, of Fall Creek Depot, Pittsylvania Co., Va., shows how Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery saves people from consumption by waking up their nutritive organism and giving it power to supply pure, healthy blood, which drives out blood poisons and dead tissues and builds up sound, wholesome flesh and muscle.

"I feel it my duty," writes Mr. Cardwell in a letter to Dr. Pierce, "to write you of the lasting benefits derived from the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and little 'Pellets.' Seven years ago I contracted a severe cold, which baffled the skill of one of the best physicians in my State. It ran on and I continually grew worse until I concluded to write to the 'World's Dispensary Medical Association.' The answer to my inquiry advised me to use 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets' for indigestion and liver complaint; at this time two months had passed. In two or three days after I had commenced the use of your medicine my cough had entirely stopped, my digestion was better, my low spirits driven away and I felt new life and vigor in my whole body."

This marvelous "Discovery" makes nerve force and rugged power. It is far better than oily emulsions; it does not make flabby fat, it does not increase the weight of corpulent people.

Mrs. Patison has resumed picture taking in Grass Valley.

Wm. Murray finds Moro a good market for his fruit products.

Stencils to order at The Observer office. Mark your wheat sacks.

It is a current topic that Prof Peery will return "with his wife."

Mrs. J. M. Filloon returned from the sound of the ocean surf this week.

The New Moro Hotel has a roof garden—delightfully pleasant for sleeping in of hot nights.

Mrs. W. Stanley of this city, and Mrs.C.C.Kuney of Wasco, drove to the Dalles on a three days visit last week.

J. W. Carter is again delivering fruit from Peter Flecks orchard this year. It comes up fresh, clean and nice.

Mrs. D. M. Radley, has placed us under obligations for some of her choice cooking this week which came in most opportunely.

Alfred, the little son of Mrs.O.W. Nelson died on the 9th at Rutledge of cholera infantum. The remains will be taken to California for burial.

V. M. Bennett in the attitude of catching; and the final caught; makes two nice pictures by J. M. Filloon. The scene was on the Des Chutes.

Attention is called to the adv of the Dalles Soda Works in another column. These gentlemen can furnish any first class article in the way of soft drinks.

R. J. Ginn accompanied Mrs.T.R. McGinnis to Portland this week to place her daughter Jesse under medical treatment for tubercular absess of the neck.

Vigorous showers visited this region on the 8th and 9th, purifying the dusty air and aiding vegetation in its maturing process, with no damage to other crops.

The Ladies Aid Society met on the 2d at Mrs. J.M.Dunahoos'. Had quite a turn out, added three new names to the list of membership, and just before going home were treated to ice cream.

Paul F.Mohr is again at work to open the Columbia river, and if reports are true the cinch the railway companies have had on the wheat producers of the Waiting Empire in the past will be broken inside of another year.

Six applicants for teachers certificates are pursuing the examinations in Moro this week: Miss Molesworth, and Miss Hurley, of Bigelow; Mrs. Jas. Mitchell, Miss Mae Rust, Miss Jennie Kay, Moro; Gilbert Edgington, Wasco.

F.H.Watts of Dufur has located a Marble and Granite Monument Works in the Dalles. An opportunity is afforded parties to secure estimates on any work in this line. A carload of entirely new designs has just been received at the works which will be shown on application. See adv on 2d page.

We have just finished perusal of some Hoosier newspapers, handed to us by C. H. Toms from his old illahee back in Indiana. It revives recollections of the days when we were one of the Hoosier editors whose names have dropped from the rolls. That "we still live" may be owing to the fact that we live in Oregon.

A. Kohn, a Portland clothier, says $250,000 was lost to Portland business men by having the volunteers mustered out in San Francisco. Besides the boys from Manila every transportation line into the city would have been taxed to the utmost capacity to handle the passenger traffic for a week.

All the young men that can be spared from town are out in the field assisting the farmers to save their crops: Arthur Starr, Dr. Idleman, Clarence Skinner, Walter Parry and C.W.Whitelaw are with J.F.Belshee; Perre Comstock, Fred Comstock, Adolph Heydt, and others are also at work in fields. D. M. Radley helped J. B. Mowery.

Whoever it was who started it—rival stage men, rival merchants, or whomsoever—that story about the Moro-Antelope stages having drawn off is a pure fabrication. The line is in good hands, trips are regularly made, on time, and perfectly satisfactory to the traveling public "and all whom it concerns," excepting, of course the gentry who adapt themselves to the policy of ruining everything that does not come their way.

On the 15th of June last, Chester W. Claypool was initiated into Prineville Camp No. 216, Woodmen of the World. On the 24th he was buried, having suddenly died of pneumonia. On the 29th of July a check for $3000, full payment, was received by the camp clerk, and on August 4th the check was turned over to Mrs. Claypool, his widowed wife and beneficiary. The W.O.W. is undoubtedly one of the best orders in existence today.

Moro boasts several first class kodak-fiends, and frequently we are called in to admire the superb productions of their skill. Now this not a josh. The work of Moro amateur-artists would be difficult to beat. Occasionally a subject is presented that is suggestive of thoughtful consideration. This occurred to us a day or so since in comparing a raft of little knotty pipe stems called saw logs which Wm. Henrichs photographed on the Mississippi, when he was back in Iowa last month. The comparison was with a similar picture of the large, fat, sleek looking logs in the Harris boom, taken by J.M.Filloon. The Father of Waters must be ashamed of the logs he floats—and how can money be saved by cutting such things into lumber—so-called.

The Dalles, Oregon.

A half page illustration of the Dalles, accompanies an article in the current number of the Overland Monthly, from the pen of W.A.Tenney on the topic of the times, From Savagery to Civilization. Tenney says that according to Indian traditions the Dalles was anciently called hooey-hooey—meaning "the place of barter," and holds that the geographical position, and the contour of the country are such that "the Dalles has always been and must forever continue to be, a mercantile center."

We can see no reasons for not being proud of the fact that we shall always have the Dalles for a close neighbor. Her citizens do not burst their shoe-strings in chasing after business—indeed, they are somewhat indifferent about it; nevertheless they seem proud of the fact that the good country back of them enables the Dalles to be known as the greatest original wool shipping point in the United States, the greatest live stock mart in the Waiting Empire, a wheat market not to be sneezed at by any means, and much more that goes into the make up of a mercantile center.

Now while the country people—one of whom we are which—feel a state pride in their close relationship to the Dalles, they'd kindly suggest to the people at the Dalles that they get together amongst themselves and resolve to show some better appreciation of "the country back of them" in future. Roads need looking after, tolls abolished and many things attended to, to relieve the impression at present existing that the barter at hooey-hooey is too much like a jug-handle—all on one side.

Kent Komments.

W.A.Taylor had the best crop on Poverty flat.

B.M.Brown lost a valuable horse lately. He got one of his feet in the halter while out in the pasture.

The school house looks a hundred per cent better than it did before the paint was put on. Messrs. Garfield & Brown did the painting.

A dense cloud of what seemed to be smoke or ashes, passed over from the direction of the coast Monday evening. It cleared away in about three hours.

It is not generally known that the largest and most convenient barn in Sherman county pays taxes in this precinct. It is on Finnegan canyon, and is a model barn.

Machinery whizzed on The Observer boys ranch for the first time on the 7th. They are not harvesting as much as some older farmers in the county, but its just as good.

Speaking about a water supply from draining the melting of snows in winter, one has only to see what John Donohue has accomplished. His reservoir holds a summer supply and it fills in four hours.

The man with the air ship dropt into our midst late one night last week with thoughts of taking a rest but owing to the scarcity of wood, water and grass 'pulled his freight' early next day. He has seen every part of the world, had wonderful experiences, and could, if he would, revolutionize the financial world, but prefers to keep his own secrets travel for his own pleasure, and die when he dies, unwept, unhonored and unsung. His air-ship and other wheels, he carries in his head, a burro carries his grub.

Farm for Rent.

For rent—480 acres of good farm land. Good house and barn, and plenty of water on the place. $600 per year, cash in advance. For further particulars apply to

C. D. Hayner is here for the summer. He says half a crop in Sherman county is better than a whole crop in Webfoot.

Hon. Otis Patterson of the Dalles visited Heppner recently, and the Gazette says, "his genial presence had the effect of dislodging the gloom of business depression while he was here with those he came in contact with."

The person, persons or corporation that attemps to compile reprint and publish in book form all that the eastern editors have to say quid pro quo in return for the receptions granted them this summer in Oregon—will have a very large contract in hand.

For a long time past a certain class of Oregon misprints have been careful to inform intending immigrants that this state offers no inducements to people without money. At the present time, however, the man without means, but willing to work, is very much in demand in Oregon. Farmers find it almost impossible to secure as many hands as they need.

Hon. Binger Hermann, commissioner of the United States land office, for years one of the ablest representatives in congress from this state, a man of pure ideas and right sentiments, never afraid to express himself according to his convictions either publicly or in private, but a man whom the Oregonian dislikes; is visiting in Oregon for the first time in several years, and is very cordially received by the people.

Leroy D. Walker and Miss Mary H. Jones were married on the 13th at Weiser, and are now at home in Carson, where Mr. W. and brother are in business. This is one of the mile stones in the journey of life to remind one of other days when separation of years partly obliterate associations formed in early life. As a young man in Sherman county Mr. Walker is kindly remembered by a host of friends who will join with us in many wishes for his future happiness.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucuous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Halls' Family pills are the best.

Messrs. Tozier and Armsworthy have located their gold machine on Junction bar in the John Day river, a point which revives memories of the terrible winter of 1861-'2. A camp of prospectors wandered in there, built a cabin and proposed to winter there, lured by the hope of developing a rich camp in the spring but before that time arrived every one of the men struck out for civilization and but three of them lived to reach the Dalles. W. S. Failing and Peter Taylor of Portland are two of the survivors still living.

Mrs.J.A.Howe returned from a sad mission to Prineville on the 7th having been called to the bedside of a sick daughter, Mrs.T.D.Lafollette whose death occurred July 27th. Deceased was the beloved wife of J. D.Lafollette, and was buried in the city cemetery at Prineville, in the presence of a large gathering of sorrowing friends and neighbors. To Mr.and Mrs.Howe, and other members of the stricken family, we extend heartfelt sympathy.

About one month ago my child, which is 15 months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases but as nothing gave relief we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about 10 days and was having about 25 operations of the bowels every 12 hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlains' Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better, by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy C.L. Boggs, Stumptown, W.Va. For sale by A. D. Bolton & Co.
