DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

"I had been a sufferer for many years from nervousness with all its symptoms and complications," writes Mrs. G. N. Fisher, 1861 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. "I was constantly going to see a physician or purchasing medicine. In the spring of 1897 my husband induced me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After taking one bottle and following your advice I was so encouraged that I took five more bottles, and then stopped for several weeks as I felt so much better, but still I was not completely cured. I commenced taking it again and felt that I was improving faster than at first. I am not now cross and irritable, and I have a good color in my face; have also gained about ten pounds in weight and one thousand pounds of comfort, for I am a new woman once more and your advice and your 'Favorite Prescription' is the cause of it, coupled with the 'Pleasant Pellets' which are not to be dispensed with. I took eight bottles of the 'Prescription' the last time, making fourteen in all, and will not take any more unless you so advise, for I do not see as I need it."

Biggle Swine Book is just as valuable for a man with one hog in a little sty as for a man with 100 hogs feeding on the sheltered side of a barbed-wire fence. Its chapter on "Cholera" is alone worth ten times what the book costs. You ought to have it, The Observer says so. The price is 50 cents, free by mail. Address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia. See adv.

Dr. Styner, the Electric Doctor from Portland, is in Moro this week advertising his new method of applying electricity as a curative agt for nervous or chronic diseases of men and women. The Doctor gave three very interesting lectures at the Opera House the first three nights of the week. He is a good talker, and proves his points with sound logic. All the suffering ones that have investigated Styner's System, seem to speak well of it. The Electric Doctor will visit Grass Valley next week. His first lecture and entertainment will be given in that place next Tuesday evening. Admission free.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlains Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Sold by Mrs Dora Williams, who will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant safe and reliable.

Mrs. Filloon has opened up a book store in part of the hardware store and has on display the best authors and newest books. "David Harum" and "Richard Carvel" will be in, in a short time. More books and holiday goods will arrive by November tenth.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlains' Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill, of Beaumont, Texas. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by Mrs. Dora Williams.

The cow kicked the bucket over and spilled the milk, and if you do not get the Farm Journal for the balance of '99 and all of 1900, 1901, 1902 and 1903, nearly five years, just by paying for The Observer to date and a year ahead, you will be like that cow. The Farm Journal is the biggest paper of its size in the United States of America.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S.A. Donahoe, pastor M.E. church south, Pt. Pleasant, W.Va., contracted a severe cold, which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says, "After resorting to a number of so-called specifics, usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlins' Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by Mrs Dora Williams.

We happened in at F.H. Meader & Co.'s the other day and took a look through the beautiful array of cloth specimens sent out by The Royal Tailors of Chicago. How they can afford to make up these high-grade goods at the prices charged is more than we can understand. Presume it's another case of thousands of orders and a little profit on each. Messrs. Meader & Co. showed us a wedding suit and several other suits just received from The Royal people which are certainly the embodiment of style and grace in tailoring. See advertisement.

During the winter of 1897 James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay co., W.Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swolen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and 2½ gallons of whisky bathing it, but nothing gave relief until he began using Chamberlains' Pain Balm, this brought almost a complete cure in a weeks' time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequaled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. Sold by Mrs. Dora Williams.

Mountains Blocked to Travel.

Dr. Jack Daily the Last Visitor at Summit House—Forest Rangers Deer Hunt, Supt. Dufur Badly Injured.

Writing from Summit House October 17th, Mr. Daly says: I got in here last night in a heavy rain and found the people about ready to pull out for winter quarters. This morning on rising I found about an inch of snow. Travel has about stopped, and unless the weather moderates will not be resumed this fall.

Supt. W.H.H. Dufur was in here during the last week and ordered the rangers out. Between here and Strickland he met with an accident that will confine him to his bed perhaps for some time. His horse fell over a log crushing him beneath breaking two ribs. Archie Moad, a ranger, rescued him, restored him to consciousness and took him to the Gate, from whence he was taken to his home in Dufur. He suffered intense agony.

On account of sleet and snow the traveling is very disagreeable. Hard windstorm, just before my arrival at Summit house blew down some stuff in the road but not sufficient to very greatly hinder travel. What one needs most in these mountain roads is a ships' cable to hold him to the rig, and in places ballast would be desirable, to keep the rig from going over.

From the Toll Gate Mr. Daily writes, under date of 19th: As I am delayed here I will give you the benefit of my experience. Mr Ashoff one of the Forest Rangers, came in from a deer hunt and left his son in the mountains. It being about dark we got very much alarmed about his safety. His brother went back along the road three or four miles, and found him doing his level best, with a 150-lb. deer on his back, his clothing about as heavy as the deer as it was raining hard all day. We all felt greatly relieved.

This morning the weather is mild but cloudy, and is liable to rain any minute. I found the toll gate a great place to stop at. The accommodations, for both man and beast, are good and charges cheap. The gate keeper tells me the road is generally kept open up till the 10th or 15th of November. For the benefit of travelers I wish to say that after this date no feed or hay can be had going west till you reach the toll house.

MAYS & CROWE, The Dalles, Or

A Bouquet Received.

From The Dalles Chronicle: Even the newspaper fraternity in Sherman county are joining the great majority and entering the matrimonial field. This morning we were surprised to receive cards announcing the marriage of Francis C. Ireland, second son of D.C. Ireland, of the Moro Observer, and Miss Abbie M. Illingworth, at her home in Falls City, Polk county, Oregon, Oct. 18th. Not having met Francis for a number of years, we remember him as but a lad working at the case in the Chronicle office, and can scarcely imagine him as a benedict. But Francis was always a favorite, which accounts for his early marriage and The Chronicle force extend their heartfelt congratulations.

Dr. Shilohs Cough and Consumption Cure

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine ever known to science; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a Cough, we earnestly ask you to try it. In United States and Canada 25c., 50c. and $1.00, and in England 1s. 9d., 2s. 3d. and 4s. 6d.

DesChutes in the Field.

Joseph J. Miller has a Complete Stock and Invites the Farmers Trade.

As Messrs. Atwood and Higinbotham have each stated through the Observer what they can do for the farmer, I think it advisable to invite attention to what we can do in a similar manner at DesChutes for the farming community of Sherman county, and ask them to come here and see for themselves. We sell wood low enough to make it an object for them to come to DesChutes, and lumber also, and as for storage that has been reduced to 40 cents a ton. We make no extra charge on wheat, only 40 cents a ton all the year around.

As for Dry Goods and Groceries, etc., you can get them here at the catalogue prices for the same article in The Dalles, adding freight only on heavy goods.

Our road is in good condition in the John Fulton canyon, and we keep a man all the time on it to keep it good.

We bar no sand here, as Mr. Atwood does at Biggs and Rufus, and all who haul here will have their grain so much nearer to market with equal facilities for shipping it, and we furnish them wood at $3.75 to $4.00 per cord, pine and fir. Now look at the difference in the cost of shipping by the Columbia Southern—there is no argument to combat the fact that this is the very best point in Sherman county for the farmer to meet the railroad and do business on a basis of economy. I invite them to come here once and give it a trial. JOSEPH J. MILLER, DesChutes (Biggs, P.O.) Oregon.

Ladies Suits and Jackets to Order.
