CONCENTRATION IN LUZON.

General Bell's Method of Stamping Out the Rebellion in Batangas.

Manila, Dec. 18.—General Franklin Bell has been exceedingly active in Batangas province, where he intends, by every means available, to stamp out the insurgents. Lieutenant Hennessy, of the Eighth infantry, together with one American scout and six Filipinos, captured an insurgent major, with 42 men, 22 rifles and 880 rounds of ammunition, without the loss of a man. A number of captured documents and papers, now in the hands of General Bell, implicate in the insurrection the president and other prominent natives of Lian, Batangas province.

General Bell has notified the natives in Batangas that December 28 he proposes to concentrate them in the neighborhood of towns. He will move their livestock, rice, etc., to within the limits of concentration.

After that date, everything outside these limits will be confiscated. The roads from Batangas and Laguna provinces are lined with a continuous stream of native men, women and children in the carriages, carts, and mounted on carabos, seeking safety from the horrors of war.

The column under Colonel Theodore J. Wint, of the Sixth cavalry, is zealous in its operations against the insurgents and has received high praise from the military authorities.

The insurgent General Torres, who was found guilty by a military commission after ordering the assassination of an American corporal, and sentenced to be hanged, but whose sentence was disapproved by General Clayton, broke down when he was released. He said it was just that his life had been spared, because he was innocent of the crime imputed to him. He has expressed his highest regard and warmest feelings for General Claffee, and his appreciation of the supreme military power in the Philippines is in the hands of such a man. Torres says he is submissive to the existing conditions.
