To Patrons and Correspondents.

All letters will be run till ordered out, unless otherwise specified.
Don't send us for free publication anything of an advertising character.
Don't ask us to send you names and addresses of correspondents. That is a private matter between them and us.

Copy for ads, changes, etc., must be in the office before 2 o'clock p. m. Wednesdays to insure proper care and attention.

Church and Society notices FREE, except when for money making purposes. Such notices at regular rates at the option of the publishers.
Don't send us articles on politics, temperance or religion. Discussion of such topics only leads to violent and abusive language in the end.

Avoid personalities. Compliments dealt calmly given are always acceptable, but even they must not be overdone, as the charge of incincerity is apt to follow a shower of pretty nothings spread broadcast.

Before coming to the city to trade readers are requested to examine The Observer advertising columns. Its active, wide awake business man who advertises, consequently he is the most accommodating seller the cheapest, and deals the most liberally in every way.

Nobody but republicans can be elected in Oregon this year. "Vote it Straight" is the slogan.

Brother Westgate makes a rattling good Chairman of the Oregon Republican State central committee.

How do the illustrations in The Old Reliable suit you this week? Pretty good. All right, they talk plain fact.

Hon. B. F. Pike last week completed a tour of Gilliam and Wheeler counties. He reports the fences all up and in good shape for republican pastures.

Hon. A. M. Crawford, republican candidate for Attorney-General, does not mistake the temper of Oregon republicans when he expects them to stand by the nominations made at the primaries. Sherman county republicans are proud of that part of their duty and loyalty.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK.

The large audience room in Moro M. E. church was filled to overflowing Sunday forenoon to listen to the address of Rev. Adams to the graduates of Moro high school: Hallie Barzee and Sallie Pickard, and the grammar course: Mollie Robinson, Louise Walton, Lola Martin, Hazel Dunahoo, Robert Hoskinson, George Urquhart and William Mowry. The choir was fitted for excellent service well rendered, and Mrs. Parr honored the event with one of her sweet solos. The chancel was decorated with a beautiful variety of choice flowers. Mr. Adams' address was direct to the point aimed at, and will no doubt be a benefit to all who attentively listened to it. Parts of it made us think of Mr. Baileys remarks in the United States senate a few days since: That we were reaching an era in this devoted land where men are to be judged by how they act and what they think, rather than by what they do; when conduct, more than birth, should be the measure of our esteem; WHEN AN HONEST FAME SHOULD BE THE GOAL TOWARD WHICH OUR AMBITIOUS YOUTH SHOULD BE TAUGHT TO TOIL AND HOPE.

The final exercises of commencement week were held in the Opera House. The program last evening and tonight were suitably and especially appropriate. The field work today will be very attractive, consisting of all outdoor sports. The board of directors: J. M. Parry, E. V. Littlefield, S. S. Hayes and Dr. R. W. Logan, clerk, with Prof. Bryant and his excellent corps of assistants: Mrs. Slayback, Misses Blair, Darby and Harwood, each and all are deserving of high praise and honor for the grand successes which the week crown their past arduous labors in this community. The schools of Grass Valley and Wasco united to make the occasion worthy of remembrance.

WASCO WAS BEATEN.

Score Nine to Eight. Fans Watch a Good Game. Wasco Band on Hand With Music Greatly Enjoyed.

One of the longest and most hotly contested leather swatting matches took place on the Moro field last Sunday. A big crowd adorned the benches, and their thrills put Byron West to sleep with discouragement. It was none of your Pitchers' battles but a general free for all "Hit 'em and catch 'em-if-you-can." Everybody did manual work but father, viz: Charley the manager; who restlessly sat on the bench chewing and puffing viciously at the butt of an overheat cheroot. The whole thing reads like a story with a supplement. I'll try to spread the essence of it on this paper and let you sniff the ozone. During the debut the wagon-tongue began to wag furiously, but neither team did any damage. In the 2d canto Wasco scratched out two tallies on McMillsen's swift drive to left and over the fence. In the following shift Garlick rambled home with the first gift for Moro. A safe hit by Byron left the gate open for Ed Ball, and the score was 2 and 2. The 3d and 4th innings saw no count. Every swat was morgued in the inner and outer garden. In the 5th inning a dinky drive to right by Dan Carmody helped Delph home with one to the good. In the 7th chapter Wasco scored twice and Brannan chalked one for the home team. Again the score was unmercifully even. The bleachers that had been comparatively quiet so far turned loose their bombastic base ball cheerleaders, and even the upper 400 in the grand stand forgot their dignity and let out shrill little shrieks when Dan crossed the plate with a juicy one for Moro.

When the smoke of the bombardment cleared off, after the 9th inning, Wasco had rung the toll-bell for 3 hoarse croaks, while for Moro Meach and John Carmody sang a home sweet home a-piece, and the number of stiffs was even on both sides. Bedlam broke loose. The noise was so loud and fierce that Kents' team, who was deceiving Shaniko on their own ground got insulted and scrapped it out, thinking it was all meant for them. The 10th chapter was an extra issue and might have been the last one had Kenny got technical with the system and reversed his previous decision by ordering Charley to bathe his shanks at the water bucket. At the 11th hour fortune smiled on Wasco when Providence left a hole in the fence and gave Kasburg a homer. This produced sadness, and many got dyspeptic and cross and made unneighborly little speeches. What happened after this was too good to be true—nevertheless it is true. With blood in his eye John Carmody poked the batter on the left eye and ripped out a 2-bagger; Heyd followed him with the same swat in the same place and John came home; Meach stepped in and ripped out another one of the same length at the same place, and Dolph came home. It looked as though it might have continued so, "forever and ever," but one run to the credit side was enough to put the fans in motion, and the jig was up. Then the band played on some more, and everybody was happy. 9 to 8.

Social Event.

Mrs. R. S. Hayes and Mrs. W. G. Hadley royally entertained the Dorcas Society Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hayes. On the invitations was written "Bring a Dime" which made each recipient search her memory for some game in which a dime figured. But instead of the dime figuring in a game, it was deposited upon a plate near the door, as each guest arrived, and netted the Dorcas Society $5.00 toward the fund they are raising. The afternoon passed quickly with a guessing: Going Back to Childhood Days, divided into school of alphabet, arithmetic, geography, and physiology divisions. Mrs. J. B. Mowry won first prize and Mrs. J. W. Cochran the consolation prize. After this an innovation was introduced by the hostesses when they pinned advertisements, cut from The Observer, to the backs of the ladies present; each one having to seek questions and by the motions made by the one questioned had to guess whose advertisement was pinned to her back. To quiet the apprehension of any of our advertisers by the hostesses when they pinned advertisements, cut from The Observer, to the backs of the ladies present; each one having to seek questions and by the motions made by the one questioned had to guess whose advertisement was pinned to her back. ### To Sherman County Voters.

Before stepping into the booth on the 4th day of June, ask yourself: What party has contributed most to the present prosperity of the country? When you get down in your heart and wrestle with the question, you cannot come to any other conclusion than that the republican party has always been and is the party for the people. It has always stood for the issues that have been of the greatest good for the American people. And what is more will always stand for a square deal to every man, woman and child in America. The principles of the republican party are as firm and as solid as the rock of Gibraltar, and the entire ticket now before the voters of Sherman county is composed of men whose characters are as firm as the principles of the party they represent. Men whose past records are unassailable, and who have always worked for the best interests of the entire people. These principles are not necessary for us to vote for and elect the men who represent them? Will a democrat uphold these principles? Will a democrat vote for a man who has ever had the interests of the people at heart. There is no question but that what they will receive a vote we may be proud to give. A vote for W. B. McCoy is an endorsement of the present administration, as well as a vote for one of the best sheriffs Sherman county has ever had. He has been a life long republican and always worked for the best interests of the Grand Old Party.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sanford have become settled in their new home in Madras. After 1 p.m. Wednesday, it is very difficult for us to handle copy that calls for changes in the form. We are continually "filling in" on new goods for spring and summer wear. J. W. Messenger & Son. All persons desiring my services please notify me by letter at Moro, Oregon. Joseph Sanders, Veterinary Surgeon. Office in Ginn bldg.

W. B. McCoy Sheriff on the republican ticket for Sherman county, Oregon, has filed that office for the past two years and has given entire satisfaction to the people of the county. Mr. McCoy has at all times been kind and obliging and has done everything to please the people transacting business in his office, besides running his office in an economical manner. Mr. McCoy has captured every criminal that he has started after and in this respect he has no equal in any county of the state. Ben is a thorough gentleman, a friend of everybody, and is entitled to the suffrage of every voter of Sherman county, irrespective of politics. Vote for him on the 4th day of June.

Base ball Saturday between Wasco and Moro juniors resulted in a score of 14 to 5 in favor of Moro.

If the women of Oregon themselves wanted to vote there might be some excuse for giving them the right. But, apparently, the women do not want this privilege and pay little attention to the glowing speeches made by woman suffragists imported from other states. That this is so plainly proved by many recent occurrences, and the man must be blind indeed who does not recognize them. It is not necessary to dwell on the fact that an association of women with headquarters in Portland, and branches all over the state, have sent out circular letters asking the men of Oregon not to mistake the clamor of female agitators from distant states for the sentiment of the women of Oregon. A more striking and convincing proof that the women themselves do not want the burden of the ballot forced upon them, is found in a recent debate which took place in the largest church in Portland. At this debate two preachers, Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher and Rev. Clarence True Wilson, took opposite sides on the woman suffrage question. The audience was composed, by actual count, of 400 women, and about 40 men. At the close of the debate a vote was taken on the question of woman suffrage, and the result was that only 173 voted for it, and the suffragists had their crowd out. Of the men in the audience many refused to vote, and the result is most significant. The women themselves do not want the ballot.

Pasteur is one of the very best draft horses that ever left France. His physical proportions are perfect and he possesses in an extraordinary degree the high finish and great activity which has made the breed of Percheron horses so famous. His pedigree like his individual merit is the best that can be found in France, his ancestors on both sire's and dam's sides being the most noted prize winners and breeders in that country. His sire, Scipion, was a prize winner at the Universal Exposition at Paris in 1900. He also won First Prize at the two greatest shows in France in 1901. Pasture on account of his great individual merit won First Prize in Collection at the greatest horse show in the history of the world, that of the World's Fair at St. Louis in 1904.

TERMS:—$15, single leap, payable at time of service. $20 the season, payable at the end of the season. $25 to insure, payable when mare is known to be with foal. Mare and Colt to stand good for service. Care will be taken to prevent accidents but will be responsible for none. Trading, selling or removing the mare from the neighborhood forfeits the insurance and money becomes due.
