SHERMAN TRADING COMPANY MORO, OREGON.

The Observer

MORO, SHERMAN CO., OREGON:

The price of The Observer is $1.50 per year. 75 cents for six months, 50 cents for four months—but if paid in advance we charge $2.50 in full for 3 years. Shorter terms than one year 12 1/2 cents per month. Send for advertising rates.

FRIDAY..... JUNE 8, 1906

The Observer is the home paper you want.

Don't fail to see the new Stockton drapers made for all headers.

C. L. Montgomery returned from a trip to Beaver land Monday.

Latest maps of both Oregon and Washington, for sale at The Observer Book Store.

The Stockton new draper, made for all headers, for sale by Holt Mfg. Co., Wasco, Or.

Several good living rooms, stores, and offices to rent in Peoples' Main street building. For terms and particulars apply to J. O. Elrod.

Many inquiries are being received by Prof. Cordley of the State agricultural college, with reference to spraying for codlin moth. It is the evident purpose of farmers to make a struggle to redeem their fruit from the worms. Indeed, they must do so in order to be able to sell their apples at all, for it is the announced purpose of inspectors to condemn all wormy apples found in the market, and to prevent the sale of them, as by law required. The penalty for offering such fruit for sale is confiscation and a fine, and the state board is requiring all inspectors to enforce the law. This means that those who do not spray will simply lose all fruit that is not used at home, for it will not be permitted to be sold. A further inducement for farmers to spray now, is that the arsenate of lead used for spraying codlin moth is fatal to caterpillars, and that in the destruction of the former, caterpillars will also be destroyed.

Gas engines, all sizes. See Geo. N. Crofield, Wasco, Or.

Sample copies of this paper may be had at The Observer business office—5c. per copy.

If you want to keep posted on all that is doing in Sherman county, you want The Observer. Terms $1.50 per year.

Our "ads" attract attention and advertise. When you get our advertising, you get business bringers. You can always find it profitable to use the classified adv. columns of The Observer. They bring buyer and seller together.

Will sell you a gas engine, and set it up, running in order.—Geo. N. Crofield, Wasco.

Some of the attractions at Demos, the 4th, will be a picnic dinner, good program at 2:30 p. m., including a chorus of twenty voices. A merry-go-round, and swings for the children.

CHEAP RAILROAD TRAVELING. A reduction in fares from Pacific Coast points to New York, Boston, Montreal and intervening points, make the through fare $58, is announced by A. L. Craig, general passenger agent of the Harriman lines in the Northwest, after a conference with passenger officials of other Northwestern roads. The new rate becomes effective immediately and will continue until further notice. This rate is the result of a cut in tariff by the Soo lines and the readjustment in the east called for a similar cut in the price of through tickets. The rate from Spokane, Pendleton, Walla Walla and common points is now $53. Tickets sold at the $58 and $53 tariffs will be good by way of Montreal and St. Lawrence River gateways, over either the Grand Trunk or Wabash out of Chicago. How long the reduced rates will continue is only a matter of surmise. Some railroads predict that they will not last longer than the final week of June, although a continuation after that date is considered likely.

Get one of our indelible pads and stamp for marking linen.

There will be preaching in Monkland next Sunday at 2.30 p.m.

Wagons, Wagons, Wagons. See Geo. N. Crofield, Wasco.

A young lady, relative of Mrs Barze, died of tuberculosis in Wasco last week.

McCormick headers and extras. See Geo. N. Crofield, Wasco.

Miss Darby left on the 5th for a 90 days outing, and visits with friends abroad in Oregon.

Difficulty in having your Observer changed may be avoided by sending the desired alteration to this office. Always give the name of the office from which you want it changed, as well as the one to which it is to be sent.

For sale 1-15 horse Case engine, 1-30x54 Russell separator, with fork, cables, cook house, at a snap. Good terms. See Geo. N. Crofield, Wasco.

The West End of Moro has dogs and cats to spare. One hundred years ago Lewis and Clark would be glad to get the dogs that are fat. Outlaw cats make excellent fertilizer.

The charge that the beef trust sells diseased meats reminds one of the story of the Dutch groceryman who sold meat to a customer that had maggots in it. He had assured the customer that the meat was fresh and good. The next day the customer came back with the meat. He was red heated about the matter and proceeded at once to hand the groceryman a chunk of his mind: "You sold me this meat yesterday."

"Ya-as, said the German calmly, "und vat if I did?"

"You said that it was fresh."

"Vell, und vat if I did?"

"It is full of maggots."

"Vell, und vat if it is?"

"You are a — liar."

"Vell, vat if I am?"

Congress and President Roosevelt will settle such deals in Chicago and elsewhere in future.

Sherman county will enthuse July 4th and 5th in Moro. Everybody come.

Robert Kaseberg has purchased the Shockley cottage on McCoy avenue, and may soon be living in Moro.

L. L. Peetz & Co. now have two thrashing machines, having purchased the Medlar machine last week.

C. L. Montgomery has taken up his temporary annual abode in the Rose City, between seed time and harvest.

The Bigge-Shaniko train over the C. S. Ry., is becoming generally known as the dogs tail—it is uniformly behind.

C. K. Cochran will have no more trifling with a wind-mill over his well. He has installed a gasoline engine to do the pumping.

After carefully canvassing the situation in three counties, Edgar Lewis has decided that Sherman county suits him best of all.

Lloyd Leslie returned from Alberta last week, to secure 30 days refreshment from the genial climate of good old Sherman county.

Sprinkling ones lawn in the rain is like building bon fire in the streets "just because the law allows it." Better repeal a bad law.

W. A. Norcross is looking about for a home farm in good Old Sherman. Selling out this summer as he has, does not carry removal with it.

Geo. Hennagin had six 4-horse teams loading with brick in Moro yard one day last week, with which to line up a big cistern he is building for his farm.

Miss Jennie Ginn is the guest of Miss Lillian Stanly, having come down from Walla Walla last week to visit her brothers, Arthur and Elwood, and numerous friends.

H. M. Shull, now of Kent, was a Moro visitor Monday. He has bought another thrashing machine, with which to attack the golden harvest promised in that part of the county.

Pendleton, Walla Walla, and towns between, suffered much damage from the flood last week. In parts of Umatilla county whole farms were ruined. The storm center was the Blue mountains.

Having secured a thrashing outfit, with which to harvest his grain, as he must husband the straw stack for his cattle in winter, L. L. Peetz has sold his combined harvester to P. J. Dillinger. Consideration $1,200.

Woodmen of the World will serve their Contest Supper in the hall at this city Wednesday evening, June 13th, at which all Woodmen are expected to be present and take part in the festival, several initiations will be made.

Dr. W. H. Snook has a pair of horses which he purposes entering at Salem as the Boss Runaways. Three times they've demolished things, going through barbed wire fences, etc., coming out each time without a scratch.

The boy who saves his money becomes the banker, the merchant, professional man. The boy who never saves a cent makes the man who "earns his bread by the sweat of his brow," hardly ever owns a home or enjoys the luxuries of life.

G. T. Parr, general agent for the Eastern Oregon Land Co., was amongst the lot of O. R. N. marooned passengers at Pendleton, but succeeded in reaching home Saturday, before it became necessary to come aboard by Spokane, Seattle and Portland.

Eberman & Shockley, barbers, have sold their shop and fixtures in this city to Edgar Lewis, former proprietor. Ed. is a popular tonorial artist, always giving satisfaction; and we are pleased to see him back in Moro. He will give people good laundry service, also.

The New Idea magazine for June will give you excellent advice on one of the burning questions in the female world during springtime; that of the wardrobe to be prepared for the summer outing. The article winds up with some notes on kimono and comfortable dressing jackets.

Mr and Mrs C. R. Shandy finally left for their new home in Idaho on the 2d. Mrs Dora Williams and Miss Jennie, left also, on the 4th for their new home in California. Mr and Mrs W. E. Crogan take the place of Mr and Mrs Shandy in the C. S. Ry. employ, and Dr. J. F. James and bride (Miss Grace Hobson), take the place of Mrs Williams and daughter. True it is, whilst some go, others immediately step into their places, and after a time the sad thoughts at parting heal over, but where years of life have been spent together, we of the pioneers who remain feel the pang much more sensibly.

I. Hathaway was in from Monkland Monday.

G. E. James has had a new picket fence placed around his city home.

The Dorcas Society will meet next Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. Logan's.

Dolph Heydt and D. D. Carmody left Sunday for a fishing trip to Collins.

The heavy rains this week made Sherman county wet. The voters made it dry.

There will be services in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening. All are welcome to these services.

"Lawyer" Finch, pulled by the Portland Police Judge, for telling his client to swear falsely, was at one time an ordinary stage driver, on the Rutledge route out of Moro.

Ralph Kay put the break down too hard Tuesday on The Sachs Market wagon, descending Lowerhook grade, which twisted the rig so that the team got a glimpse of the hind wheels, which set them to going and in the twinkling of an eye they were gone, over two roads. The wreck was not quite so bad as it might have been.

The cloud that tipped its load of water overboard Sunday just above Sherman county, filled every dry creek full to overflowing from McDonald bridge to Arlington. Gibson creek and Chlms hollow were full to the brim when the C. S. Ry. train met the waters, doing some damage from West to Biggs. Two slides occurred west of Arlington on the O. E. N. line, one of them 300 feet long.

L. L. Peetz drove to the city scales the other day with a ton of fine green hay in his headerbox. Immediately he was surrounded by the owners of Moro cows, and pressed for knowledge as to where it came from? was there any more? how much a ton? etc., showing that there is an earnest desire on the part of people here, to obtain feed for our famishing bosnies.

People who have growled at having to pay 30 cents for ferry at Twickenham, and always used the ford when possible, sometimes at the risk of life, may now suck the sweet curd of content. The boat is sunk, to rise no more. It was put there by John Asher, and was a very great accommodation, but was never truly appreciated. Now, when the river is not fordable, the grouchy traveler may go up to the Service creek bridge, cross over, and double-back.

Last week W. A. Norcross and Charles R. Belshoe finished a deal involving $5,300 by which Mr Belshoe takes the lease of section 7, the growing crop and 16 head of horses. N. W. Thompson, G. A. Meloy and L. L. Peetz bought the thrashing outfit, paying Mr Norcross $600 for it. The Russell Co. took the engine back. This leaves Mr. Norcross free to enter some other lines of business for the benefit of his health, or remove to Nevada, as he is almost persuaded to do.

Robert Belshoe began tapping a spring-well on Elwood Thompson's farm to drain water to his premises, and left some of the tools on the ground. An old pet of a horse in Elwood's bunch, with more curiosity than the fabled monkey, went nosing about the place to discover if possible what Robert was doing, and, of course, into the well he flopped; after digging and enlarging the well the animal was dragged out, apparently satisfied.

Bro. Johns says, "no improvement has been made on the kiss old Adam invented." Guess not, says Bro. Hall, "if us guys could get the article that Adam got we wouldn't want the garden. Think; he had no corset to encounter to spoil his bug, no paint to spoil his kles, no small brother to watch, no old man to dodge and mother-in-law to fear. Guess there ain't no improvements been made. Give an ordinary Oregonian the chance Adam had and there's no telling what he wouldn't invent."

Mrs Mary Junkin, of Tangent, who has been very ill, is now convalescent at the home of her daughter, Mrs Ollie F. Stephens, Portland. "Grandma" Junkin, as she is familiarly called, is a pioneer of Llan county, having located there in 1852. She knew Oregon when it was uncultured and uncultivated. Tuesday being the 85th anniversary of her birth, friends and relatives joined in making the day a happy one for the aged guest. The parlors were decorated with choice roses, and tokens of love and esteem were in evidence. Mrs H. L. Vorse rendered several vocal numbers in a sweet manner, and Mrs Young and Mrs Stephens also rendered musical selections.

The Observer is the Sherman county paper you want.

The Ladies Aid society will serve dinner in Moro July 4th.

When is a table like the book cover? When the leaves are in it.

When do waters become like the wicked of the earth? When dammed.

When is a meal like a stylish bath's costume? When skimpy.

When is a street car like a man's boot being repaired? When the last is in.

Demos springs will celebrate on the 4th in a good, old fashioned basket picnic, in the grove.

Mr Blue and one of his sons are spending a week or two in a Hood river valley strawberry patch.

Don Wheatand wife left Tuesday for a visit with relatives in Roseburg, Eugene and Oakland, Oregon.

The Ladies' Aid Society met in the country Wednesday, at the pleasant farm home of Mr and Mrs Blue.

Sunbonnets for the ladies; summer hats for the men, including the imitation straw panama, at Messinger & Son, Moro.

We've got the tools and whate more we know how to use them in this Print Shop. Come and see for yourself.

The Dorcas Society receipts for luncheon election day were $74.65, with expenses of $14.95; netting the society $59.70.

The list of premiums to be awarded at the Sherman county fair in Moro July 4th, will appear in this paper next week.

Children are specially promised a good time in Demos grove July 4th. Basket dinner, everybody come. Program at 2:30 p. m.

We enjoyed a real good old-time visit with Mayor C. W. Moore of Grass Valley Wednesday. His first call in this shack for five years.

I am better equipped to test eyes than a traveling optician could be, and will always be here to guarantee my work. O. M. Heacock, Moro, Or.

It is reported that O. M. Heacock has sold out. There is no truth in the report however, as he has no thoughts of quitting business in Moro.

This week has added wealth to the farmer daily, in increase of crops, until the old-time talk about 40 bushels per acre is heard in spots.

Beware of traveling opticians, they charge exorbitant prices, and will not be here to guarantee their work. Patronize your home optician.

A. M. Wright is the owner of a bob tailed calf. The animal forgetting to order one before its arrival on this mundane sphere. So Robt. Hunter says.

Mrs Robert Kaseberg accompanied Mrs Carrie Jackson to hospital for treatment in Portland Monday. Mr Jackson and Dr. Logan went also on the 5th.

Demos springs will celebrate the 4th with a basket dinner. Demos orchestra will furnish music during the day. Refreshments such as ice cream, lemonade and confectionary will be sold in the grove.

Beeson's Uncle Tom's Cabin crew of musicians helped themselves to nearly all the music of Moro band on their recent visit. The music had been left in the Opera house a few hours, at the time of commencement-week work.

Buy the genuine imported aversorius carbolineum; the imitation being offered is only a temporary remedy if at all. If genuine one application lasts for all time. Ask to see our sealed packages. The Observer Book Store.

The Dorcas Society had a real jolly meeting at Mrs Hayes Wednesday. The game was thimbles, needles and thread, hats, caps, etc. Misses Ida Mowry and Cashie Murray were winners in hats and caps. Mrs Logan and Mrs Laura Ireland losers.

A couple of parasites preying upon people afflicted with weak eyes, were arrested Wednesday by Sheriff McCoy, on complaint of Mr Heacock, and brought to this city for trial. They refunded $40 of $55 robbed from one lady, and gave back $40 of $45 taken from another lady, then paid fines of $20 each and costs, and skipped over the line.

Headaches are mostly caused by the strain of The Eyes and can be Permanently Cured by wearing the Correct Glasses to relieve the undue strain put upon them.

My Equipment for making an Accurate test of the eyes is Unexcelled by any office in the state. I have all the latest improved instruments, which are expensive, and know how to use them. Consult, me. My advice in this matter will be worth something to you. I am strictly honest in my examinations, and never prescribe glasses, unless they are actually needed.
