FRIDAY SEPT. 21, 1906

The only conservative thing about Bryan seems to be his estimate of the strength of the opposition.

One lock in the Panama canal will require 90,000 car loads of cement.

It may be regarded as certain that Uncle Sam will settle no more rows in Cuba on the former terms of doing the fighting.

Cuba's $21,000,000 for a paper army has given rise to a real army, devoted to revolution and more gift distributions of cash obtained by government loans.

It is probably not generally known that each of the departments at Washington employ an experienced newspaper man to run through the papers each day and cut out what ever bears on his particular department.
