When you remit for The Observer, use an express or postoffice money order, registered letter, or bank draft, payable to D. C. Ireland & Son.

We are here to do printing, and want some done bring it to us or let us call on you. If you are not extensive enough for your consideration—oh, go long.

A Blue Mark here will answer an inquiry, when entered upon our calendar, giving the date of the paper as the date at which your current subscription expires.

Hurry up with that order for letter heads, envelopes, etc. You will be out before you know it, and then we'll have to hurry—but you bet your boots we'll do it.

Difficulty in having your Observer changed may be avoided by sending the desired alteration to the office from which you want it changed, as well as the one to which it is to be sent.

Before coming to the city to trade, readers are requested to examine The Observer advertising columns. Its active, wide-awake business man who advertises, consequently he is the most accommodating, sells the cheapest, and deals the most liberally in every way.

Did it ever occur to you that it costs no more to produce printing than is pleasing to the eye than the other kind. The Observer is equipped with all modern facilities for doing good work at the very minimum of cost. Try with an order and if it is not executed to your perfect satisfaction you need not pay for it.

FRIDAY Nov. 16 1906

Taft has done too much dirt for Roosevelt ever to be himself a clean candidate.

An Iowa scientist says "infant prodigies are defective. How about boy orators, when they grow up?"

In the eyes of American civic associations a bill board is a more unsightly object on the urban landscape than a peanut roaster.

The irrigation money is to be kept going, if it ever breaks away from Hitchcock, on a revolving system, the plan that seems to be adapted also to Mr. Cortelyou in the cabinet.

Simplified spelling has reached Dalles city through the government employes on river improvements, who have been instructed to use the new form in making out their reports "if it takes all winter."

An American observer in Havana says the object of the recent insurgent advance on that city was to seize the millions in government cash stored there, and that Havana would certainly have been captured on the night planned, but for the landing of American marines.

Before leaving for Panama on the 8th, President Roosevelt signed proclamations creating four new forest reservations in Idaho, and enlarging two others, adding 7,406,506 acres to the forest area of that state,—not that the forest area need of necessity be extended, but just as a reminder to U.S. Senator Heyburn that Mr. President is "still in the ring."

Hitchcock and Richards appear to have hastily decided to get down and out of the U.S. Land departments. It is rumored that there is therein an open door for some good detective work and prosecutions of those high officials on charges growing out of their failure to prosecute certain railway and other corporations guilty of coal land steals and forest reservation frauds.

Felix Adler, in his first fall address to the society for ethical culture, spoke of the present moral crisis in American life, and referred to the recent mass of depravity exposed in public print. He contended that the humiliating fact was that men high in state and church were those chiefly guilty. One thing was almost pathetic, the persistence of some editors, writers and speakers, "when some heartrending revelation has been made," in affirming that the people have the power and ability to set things right. He has to faith in the fatalism that shows the masses role things will "come out right somehow." Speaking of the recent Hearst platform in New York "that the fruits of the labor of right belong to the laborer," he asks how it is possible for this to be done under our present factory system and insists on the need of new laws and new principles upon which to set these problems.

THE OVERLAND ROUTE.

Road of a Thousand Wonders—Books Advertising the Beaver State.

According to Wm. McMurray, general passenger agent of the Harriman lines in this state, the O.R. & N.Co., the U.P.Ry. and the S.P.Ry. will redouble their efforts to advertise Oregon, in the east in future. Notwithstanding the excellent advertising given this state by the Harriman system in the past, new features and new advertising departments will be added to all the railroad publications issued by the Harriman people on the Pacific coast. Mr. McMurray has secured a number of hunting and range photographs from Maj. Lee Moorehouse, and in the forthcoming edition of the Road of a Thousand Wonders, and The Overland Route, to be issued by the above named railway corporations, the hunting advantages of Oregon will be featured.

Thousands of eastern hunters come west every year in search of good hunting, and heretofore this feature of Oregon has been neglected in all advertising. The Harriman people will now place this feature prominently before the east and photographs and views of hunting scenes will have a prominent place in all forthcoming publications. Maj. Moorehouse had a number of excellent mountain scenes which Mr. McMurray found suitable for the forthcoming books, and these will appear, with suitable reading matter in the advertising publications.

In regard to the heavy travel over the Harriman lines, Mr. McMurray says it is unprecedented in the history of western railroading. Every effort is being made to add greater facilities for handling this travel. The Union Pacific is being practically double tracked from end to end, and several millions are being spent for the O. R. & N. and Short Line. Within a short time the entire Harriman system will be practically rebuilt, so vast are the improvements now under construction.

The Observer has been established nearly 20 years, and it has some subscribers who have received it regularly for more than half a score of years. Many of these object to having the Old Reliable discontinued at the time of expiration of their subscriptions, and for their benefit, as for other reasons, we discontinue subscriptions only when notified to do so, except by agreement made at the time the account is opened, when it is noted upon the card that they are to pay 12 1/2 cents per month for it, until such time as they may wish to take advantage of the above liberal discounts. From this date we are prepared to discount rates to all leading Weeklies and Magazines published in the United States, at a prepaid reader of The Observer. Come with the money—as that is indispensable.

The Observer is prepared to turn out any class of up-to-date job printing. New stock, steam presses, new type. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Every Two Minutes

Physicians tell us that all the blood in a healthy human body passes through the heart once in every two minutes. If this action becomes irregular the whole body suffers. Poor health follows poor blood; Scott's Emulsion makes the blood pure. One reason why is such a great aid is because it passes so quickly into the blood. It is partly digested before it enters the stomach; a double advantage in this. Less work for the stomach; quicker and more direct benefits. To get the greatest amount of good with the least possible effort is the desire of everyone in poor health. Scott's Emulsion does just that. A change for the better takes place even before you expect it.

The Local Churches

Wasco Catholic Church.

The 3d Sunday of the month is the day of regular fixed services in this church, and the hour hitherto has been 11 o'clock a. m., so as to afford an opportunity for those on the line of the C.S.Ry. to attend. Commencing next Sunday (Nov. 18th), however, there will be a change, from 11 to 10 o'clock, and this change is made: 1st, because Father Hickey finds it an unnecessary hardship to fast until the 11 o'clock mass; and 2d, because from one and a half years experience he has not found the 11 o'clock mass to be of any convenience to a single individual. Hence, without further notice all interested will please remember the change. Sundays of extra services (besides the 3d Sunday of the month), mass will be at 9:30 a. m.

Moro M. E. Church

Services next Sunday as follows: Sunday school at 10 o'clock a. m. Preaching at 11 Children's meeting 3 p. m. Preaching at 7:30 Subject: "Where majorities are wrong."

Revival services will be held in this church beginning December 4. The pastor will be assisted by Evangelist C. O. Branson and wife. We extend kindly invitation to attend these meetings. "Repent ye therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the time of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord." Acts 3:19.

CONTEMPORARY TALK.

Shaniko Republican.

C. P. Ragsdale purchased 2500 lb of lambs this week from the Black Butte Land and Sheep Co., Sisters. The price paid was $2.75 per head, delivered at Shaniko.

The coal situation here is getting to be something fierce, and unless there is a car load blown in pretty soon we will all have to take to the timber. However, The Republican force is all right so long as Moody don't put a bear trap in his rubbish pile.

Wasco News.

Something must be done to destroy the weed seeds in the alleys of Wasco. There are enough weeds around in nooks and corners to seed the whole neighborhood, besides, it looks bad. We want a big celebration here next 4th of July, and now is the time to begin to clean up the city.

W. E. Miller finds it profitable to raise a small band of sheep on his farm. In January 1905 he bought 37 head of ewes, he now has 118. He has sold wool and mutton $644, and has only fed straw and refuse grain, and they are better weed destroyers than any summer fallow machine.

Kent Recorder

Mr and Mrs Goetjen of Rutledge, came up Saturday evening for a visit with their children at this place.

C. D. Boardman and family spent several days this week visiting relatives and friends in and near Moro.

Two brothers of Mr Gates who have been visiting here several days left last week on a visit to a sister at Thornton.

Mr Underwood of Dufur, was here Monday with a load of apples, that were disposed of in short order.

In the matter of the claim of John Schassen, for damages on account of the Buck hollow road, the county court allowed him $150.
