"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years, says Roland Curry, a Key West, Fla. patrolman. Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet or hands, so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlains Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found that the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than 2 weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by Moro Pharmacy.

Tickets will be on sale June 20th to July 12th, good to return until September 15th, at one fare for the round trip from all points in the United States. A box of beautiful flowers, from Mrs J B Mowry, came too late for the winners on the 24th, and the box was crushed, but the clever art was indeed appreciated.

The Charles Bolchee farm and the Wm Kenney tract in this county, have been transferred to Portland parties by Hon R J Ginn, Consideration $30 per acre.

Business men in Seattle know more about DesChutes river as the link between that city and the Oregon desert (so called), than anyone in Portland. Why? We will tell you, presently.

Since Mr Hansen, brother of N P Hansen of this city, has returned to Sherman county from Denmark, there are others over there reading The Observer, and counting the days when they hope to greet The O. Man again in his Moro shack, Fred Granby, Peter Knudsen, and others.

Mr Akers, late of Ione, an experienced electrician and plumber, will take charge of the Moro pump station. Mr A comes highly recommended, and there is no room for doubt but that the city has been very fortunate in securing him for the place. Mr Johnson, his predecessor, finds it necessary from him to retire, on account of declining health.

The first game of ball between the first teams of Moro and Wasco, was played in Wasco on the 28th. Moro winning by a score of 14 to 7. Wasco had all of its old team except two. Moro had the kids excepting Myers and Reese. Myers done the twirling act, having 15 strike outs. Woods, with his mitt was there to stop them.

Rev EC Holladay of Wasco, will deliver the Baccalaureate sermon to graduates of Moro schools Sunday evening. The graduates are Dayton Henrichs, Letha Cunningham, Alice Hansen, Emma Sayres, Eliza Morrison, Marion Hornaday. Since the above was placed in type Mr Holladay has been obliged to cancel his appointment.

Hans Hansen formerly a resident of Sherman county, but who for 8 years past has been living at his old home in Europe, has returned here with his family. During his absence he was a constant reader of The Observer, and acting like a plasterer The Old Reliable succeeded in drawing him back to America and across the continent to Oregon, where there is yet room for more good folk.

Mr and Mrs CL Ireland returned from Portland Wednesday, where Mrs Ireland has been visiting the past 10 days with Mrs W H Moore. Mr Moore has just received, on an order given last December, a white steamer automobile, which is considered one of the very best machines in Portland. Several rides were taken in the auto by Mr and Mrs Ireland as guests of Mr and Mrs Moore, and the way this White steamer climbed the grades and wound around the pretty roads of Council Crest and environs of Portland, gave evidence of considerable power carried in a small space.

Such an offer as that of ex-Mayor J O Elrod is n't caught up with frequently, and is n't apt to last very long.

If you want a change of location we know of no better way of accomplishing results than to call upon ex-Mayor J O Elrod. His is a bona fide, fair, square deal. See the adv on 2d page.

The success of Miss Letha Cunningham places Moro class in the 8th grade in the lead in Sherman county. Our pupils have done some remarkable fine work during this school year now so auspiciously closing.

The funeral sermon of JE Harris was preached by Rev John Tonkins from the Moro M E Church pulpit Sunday forenoon. A large number of friends of the family were present, and floral offerings were handsome and numerous.

Avenarius Carbolium is a germ destroyer. Decay being a germ, it destroys the cause of decay in posts or timber. The US Government, the ORNCO, Multnomah county, and city of Portland, are making general use of it on bridge timbers, etc. It is the best chicken lice destroyer on the market, and will sweeten and preserve a water trough, pig pen, stable, etc., and keep away flies. It is a guaranteed article. The Observer Book Store is distributor of the pure article in Sherman county.

All joking aside, new things need not be surprising. We shall not be astonished to hear that Mr Hatfield earns that $1,500. When The O. Man was riding these plains nearly 50 years ago wireless telegraphy, trolly cars, general electric lights etc, were unknown. And say: what a good thing to take the places of the reclamation service, when the Supreme court knocks us out of that great blessing. Don't forget this: "Where there is a will there is always a way."

Mrs Lottie Rinearson served 600 meals at The Vintin in Grass Valley on the 24th. It is estimated that there were from 1200 to 1500 people in the city that day. A good one is told on Walter and Mrs Rutledge about the day. In view of the fact that they have not for years had a day off together they agreed to nominally close The Hotel Moro and go to Grass Valley. Their cook formed a similar resolution, and joined in the rush. But when they reached The Vintin, visions of a good time vanished. The cook was pressed in to service also, and dinner lasted till way after supper time for the three.

Sherman County Notes

ROHR VILLA.

My Dear Papa: I am glad I have an opportunity and a few leisure moments in which to write you a few lines, and I hope they will find you well. This is a beautiful Sunday, and how much I wish you could be here to enjoy everything with us. I know a few hours spent beneath the shade of this box-alder tree would rest you, and do you much good. I am sitting here while I pen these few lines to you, and as I think my thoughts and listen to the birds chirping from tree to tree, hear the quail calling on the island, and the dripping of the water from the flume, and the swish of the DesChutes on its ceaseless chase from the mountains to the Columbia, it all seems like music, and relieves the monotony, otherwise the silence would be lonesome indeed.

The Villa is lively today though, for we have had a number of visitors, but they are off on pleasures bent at present, leaving me free to write you. Mr Ginn (Elwood), and two ladies from Moro are on the Island for a little picnic, and I hope they will enjoy the grove, for the shade is so cool and inviting these warm days.

A wagon load of young people from the Columbia School House neighborhood (Wasco county), are here today for an outing. One of the party is Miss Sears, the teacher, whose home is in Polk county.

Three gentlemen from DeMoss Springs were here also today, and they were very much impressed with our place.

Last Tuesday Mr Gregory, of the Seattle Abstract and Trust Co, and Mr Nelson (WS), promoters of the Oregon Trunk Ry. line, were at The Villa, remaining over night, and leaving for Sherars' bridge the following morning. Mr George Alexander, one of the engineers for the line accompanied them. Mr G had a camera and was taking photos of views of the scenery along the river. They were very favorably impressed with the route, and from what they said it will not be very long before we have the railroad.

Friday evening Mr L Barnum, Mr Melon and Master Harlan Meader, remained over night at The Villa. They were taking a band of fat cattle to the Dalles.

Last Sunday "we three" had a little jaunt and picnic down at The Narrows, to try our luck at fishing. Francis was the lucky one, catching five graylings; Grant "nary" a one. We had a pleasant day, although we had a heavy shower soon after leaving The Villa. But the clouds soon blew over, and the afternoon was all one could wish for.

Judge and Mrs Littlefield were down, trying their luck at fishing, and they started home at the same time we did. Mrs L and I had a short visit together from our respective rigs, while our husbands left us for a try at trout from a favorite rock.

Francis had a pleasant visit with Harlan, while he was here Friday evening, and they had a social game at marbles. The little fellow had a bad eye, caused by something getting into it, and I hope it will soon get better.

We expect to drive to the Dalles Wednesday, and I am afraid we will find the roads quite dusty. However, we will enjoy the drive, and spend a few pleasant hours in the city. I always enjoy the drive, although I come home tired and dusty.

The birds are busy in our cherry trees, and are taking all the early fruit. There appears to be more birds here than last year, and they seem to enjoy the strawberries as fast as they ripen. Occasionally we manage to find a few for ourselves. Lillian

The Herald informs us that Rev Father Hickey arrived in Antelope on the 26th, intending to leave on Monday to fill appointments with his parishioners in the outlying districts, but owing to a recurrence of an eye trouble which has affected him seriously for some time, he was confined to his bed and forced to cancel his engagements, and unless his condition improves he may be obliged to return to Portland and consult his physician. He has never entirely recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia and bronchitis which confined him in a hospital for several weeks last winter, and in consequence of his condition his eye trouble is easily aggravated and compels him to remain in a darkened room often for days at a time. It is hoped that his condition may speedily improve, and that he may soon recover his usual health and strength.

conveys an idea of success. You may never see the man himself. It's his letter head, his envelope, his business card, circulars or catalogue. You size the man up by these things. What impression of a man and his business do you get if he writes to you on wrapping paper or axle grease stationery? How does yours look? Is it neat, tasty and modern? It is if The Moro Observer Job Department prints it. Better bring in that next job.
