Mrs Annie Urquhart of this city, reports having had most enjoyable visits in Portland, Eastern Star week and Rose Carnival were the great attractions—and the Park. Indeed Portland is no longer the big overgrown country village that it was a few years ago, and Sherman county ladies are proud of it.

The best piece of grain to be seen in Sherman county is 400 acres belonging to Col C. A. Buckley, which he expects to head about the 22d. It is Early Fife wheat, and will yield 40 bushels to the acre. He intends to reserve a lot of it for seed for any who may want some. It is splendid fall grain, and has never frozen out in the Palouse country where it has been successfully cultivated for years.

Blue Brewing Barley, from seed furnished by the Eastern Oregon Land Co, makes about the prettiest field of grain ever seen growing any where. In company with Mr and Mrs Berrian, and Mrs Pillsbury, the Observer editor visited parts of the county Saturday witnessing scenes that were a revelation even to one accustomed to hearing, and reading daily, about the beauty and immensity of the growing crops in the Pacific Northwest at this time. True good old Sherman county never before looked half as grand. Descending Rattlesnake grade, at 6 p m we began to make ourselves at home with the editors daughter, Mrs G. L. Rohr, at Robr Villa, DesChutes, where another revelation awaited us in the line of fruit. Mr and Mrs R are certainly blest with an abundance this year, in fruit and berries melons and vegetable coming by the ton. Wild blackberries are just off, black caps, raspberries and cherries are at high tide, and people pick and carry away thousands of lbs at 50 per lb, the nicest fruit one ever saw, and Mr and Mrs R extend a general invitation to everybody to come and help themselves. And it will be the same with the peaches, apricots, plums, nectarines, apples, pears, grapes, etc., ripen. They can supply the county now, and when the Oregon Trunk Ry is finished to Madras will be able to supply Crook and King counties. After two good nights rest, feasts and fishing, our party returned to Moro refreshed in time for Mr Berrian to answer a telegram with his presence in Portland. Mr Pillsbury had arrived during the absence of the party, and will become better acquainted with good old Sherman county before his return to the Rose City.

Under the recommendation of Mr Berrian, tenants of the Eastern Oregon Land Co will have homes with attractions long neglected. Work at Mr Silvers place last month is a beginning of the new order.

There was a good attendance at the meeting Saturday afternoon to consider the reorganization and incorporation of the Sherman county Fair Association; and the best of feeling prevailed. L. L. Peetz made several trips with his auto between Main street and the Court house, where the meeting was held, which greatly augmented the number present. It was voted to incorporate and a committee was appointed for the purpose of drafting the necessary papers and report at a future meeting.

Long Live the King Is the popular cry through European countries, while in America the cry of the present day is, "Long live Dr Kings' New Discovery." King of Throat and Lung Remedies! of which Mrs Julia R. Paine, Truro, Mass, says: "It never fails to give immediate relief, and to quickly cure a cough or cold." Her opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds its the proven remedy. Guaranteed by Moro Pharmacy, 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

Moro Jefferson Deal.

Jefferson Review. W. F. Schuler has traded to J. O. Elrod all of his land, stock, town property, in fact all of his interests in and around Jefferson, except his lot south of the mill race, for a stock of merchandise at Moro, Sherman county, and will remove with his family to that place. Mr S receives $32,500 for his property and the stock of merchandise will invoice between $32,000 and $40,000. While the Review is glad to welcome Mr Elrod to our city, we are sorry to lose Mr Schuler and family, but wish them success in their new home, hoping for their return at some future date. Billy is a first class, experienced business man and most accommodating in his dealings. The people of Moro will also find Mr and Mrs S a desirable addition to their social circles. Mrs Schuler and daughter will visit in Eugene for a few weeks, while Wm, Sr and Jr, start for their new home tomorrow, via private conveyance.
