

To the Trading Public of Sherman county

I wish to thank all those who have given me a share of their patronage since my purchase of the Sherman Trading Co. in Moro.

I want to earn the good will and esteem of everybody in Sherman county, not simply by being a "good fellow," but by giving every one a chance to buy goods at right prices.

To do this I wish to announce right here that this is a cash store and will be run on cash principles. It is not one of the kind that takes the money from one and sells another on time, both at the same price.

Goods bought at invoice from the Sherman Trading Co. are now on sale at as low discounts as the goods will stand. These discounts are worth to you five and ten per cent and even better on some goods.

It is evident that it would take considerable effort to re-mark these goods, hence selling them by discount. But new goods purchased will be marked and sold at as low figures as similar goods may be obtained, not only in Sherman county, but in the Willamette valley as well.

Beside discounts as above I have a large number of articles which am going to sell for cost. They are goods which I will not carry in regular stock.

In conclusion I want to say to anyone wishing to take advantage of the prices set by my store that you can do so on a 30 or 60 day basis by calling and making arrangement

When the average housewife can find nothing else to preserve, the rind of a water melon looks good to her.

Dr. G. Hartley, is permanently located in Wasco for the practice of Dentistry. Charges reasonable, and all work guaranteed.

CAN YOU afford to trifle with so serious a matter as to neglect a bad cold or cough, when for a trifling amount you can secure a bottle of Hickory Bark Cough Remedy, that is guaranteed to cure or money refunded? Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. For sale at Moro Pharmacy, and dealers everywhere.

E. C. Davis, proprietor of the Grass Valley Barn, promptly attends all calls, day or night. Animals given the very best of care. Charges are right.

When two disagreeable people marry we are led to believe that Cupid had had the help of an invisible power in arranging matters in a way not to spoil two families.

The Pacific Coast Elevator Co. are buying all kinds of grain, wheat, barley, oats, etc., and are prepared to pay the highest cash prices, at all stations in Sherman county. See ad in this paper.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity, and is now one of the staple medicines, and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases—coughs, colds, croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purposes for which it is intended. Sold by Moro Pharmacy.

The Observer Book Store has now all the school books adopted by the State school book commission for use in Oregon schools. Pupils' books will be exchanged under rules governing the same as established by the commission. As we pay cash for these books and sell them at the same cash rate, we have no books which we can trust out, hence, any book sold must be paid for before it leaves the store. We did not make the law. Books are exchangeable only for corresponding books in the same grade. To illustrate: no 6th grade book can be exchanged for a 7th grade book. The old book must have both covers, all leaves intact, and be in such shape that they can be again used by other pupils. Another important thing to be remembered is that you should know the book you want, before coming, or be prepared to accurately decide, as we positively refuse to take a book back when purchased on the "I guess so" proposition. All we ask is a square deal.

Lame back is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Luke LaGrange, of Orange, Mich., says, "after using a plaster, and other remedies for 3 weeks for a bad lame back I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and 2 applications effected a cure. For sale by Moro Pharmacy."

With the opening of the fair in the Dalles, October 8, 9, 10, 11, 12; the fair in which Sherman county is particularly interested, earnest preparations are now being made for the occasion, and the placing of exhibits will shortly commence. By all means, if possible attend this fair.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea, says E. G. Stewart, of Stewart Bros, Greenville, Ala., that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured me entirely, and I had been taking other medicine for 9 days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy for bowel complaints. For sale by Moro Pharmacy.

The Old Remedies are best. Hickory Bark Cough Remedy has been in use for over 100 years by the old Dutch Dunkards of Pennsylvania, and is still in use by all old families of western Pennsylvania. It is absolutely pure, made from the bark of the white or shell-bark hickory tree. Shipped from the east and manufactured in Salem, Oregon. For sale by Moro Pharmacy and all dealers.

Condon Times: Judge Littlefield opened the regular September term of the Circuit court for Wheeler county, at Fossil on Tuesday. Having familiarized himself with the business to come before the court and ascertained that there would be no jury trials, made an order dispensing with the jury, thereby saving an expense of some $300 to the taxpayers.

The Ladies' Aid Society gave Mrs. Dunahoo a farewell Monday evening frolic with touching sentiment. Mr. and Mrs. Dunahoo have spent many pleasant years in Sherman county, and will leave a long train of regrets following their departure. They go next week to Polk county to be convenient to the State Normal, where Lloyd and Miss Hazel are to pursue their studies. We wish them all the good luck imaginable.

Topsey is at home again in Moro, after three months vacation at J. F. Belshes' farm. Her home now is with P. P. DeMoss, whom she delights twice a day with a big bucket-full of rich golden hued milk. Topsey lived with The Observer family six years, and looking up at the house this morning from the end of her tether, asked The O. Man why it is that she is barred from mixing with the other stock at home? "It's not your fault, Topsey."

Miss Elsie Thompson, long and favorably known in Sherman county died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson, in Portland, Saturday, aged 20 years. Funeral services were held in Portland Sunday, and interment took place at Rose cemetery Monday evening after the train arrived, followed by a long procession of friends and old time neighbors from Moro and vicinity. Deceased was a most amiable young lady, and leave hosts of companions, besides her nearest and dearest of kin, to mourn her sad departure. Mrs. N. W. Thompson and Mrs. Angus Knuts were sisters of Miss Elsie.

Mrs. Strahl has had a shop full of workers at her millinery establishment this week, Miss Edna, Mrs. Henry DeMoss, Miss Lillian Stanley, and Miss Hazel Dunahoo, preparatory to giving the ladies a reception tomorrow.

We are learning this year that there is too much risk in farming large tracts of land. The operation calls for too many men and horses that cannot be obtained for the harvest. Little farms well tilled may be made to pay better.

People from Moro who have witnessed the plays of the Josephine Deffy company in Wasco and Grass Valley assure us that the company is first class in every way, and is worthy of the very greatest respect. They give a finished performance that will be appreciated by patrons.

Two big combines, with teams of 32 horses each, passing through this city Sunday evening. C. H. Belshes was moving west, and Del Calbreth was moving east. Main street, at the railroad crossing, lacked one inch of being a foot wider than necessary to let the big machines pass through.

Deputy Sheriff Meyers caught 3 men Sunday, near Biggs, charged with stealing a suit case from Louis Brownleaf, an engineer on the North Bank Road. The stolen goods were found in the possession of the thief, or thieves, and the trio: Luther, of Underwood, and Ames and Johnson of the Dalles, were landed in jail to answer, on examination before Justice Rudolf.

The kangaroo rat is becoming numerous in portions of Crook county. Dr. Goffin has one that was caught in Sherman county. They are prolific breeders, and will soon overrun the country, unless care is taken to destroy them. They are native of Australia, and may be classified along with the ballot, registration law, and other abominations thrust upon Oregon from Australia.

Music, and a great variety of entertainments of a high order, including the famous shows of E. J. Arnold, will add to other attractions fair week in the Dalles, October 8, 9, 10, 11, 12. Manager Arnold is the best amusement promoter on the Pacific coast.

The steamer Bailey Gatzert, just off the ways, is now the Princess of Pacific coast inland waters. Capt. F. H. Sherman, of our Astorian boys, is in command on the Portland-Dalles City route, in the Regulator Line. The Gatzert is now an ideal of the O. Man, when editor of The Astorian, advocating a Summer resort and a Grand Hotel afloat, combined. On special occasions she is fitted to accommodate 625 passengers, and carry 300 tons of freight.

Young people are beginning to hunt up their school books, as it is only 10 days until school will begin. Moro never has had better prospects for a good school year. The organization is complete and the corps of teachers was never better. Our city in the past has had reason to be proud of its schools, and present indications are that the current year will make a record superior to even the best.

On and after tomorrow, Saturday September 14, Mrs. Strahl will have her new millinery on display at her store in this city, and invites all the ladies of Moro and vicinity to call and inspect the same. On Tuesday and Wednesday Miss Edna Strahl will open a fine assortment in Grass Valley, and invites the ladies of that city and vicinity to call and see the new creations at the most reasonable prices ever offered in the county.

Chances for an Education.

Compared with former years the present is the most auspicious time for young people to educate themselves. Dozens of boys and girls in this county have the opportunity of attending college, but it is safe to say that only a small percentage of them will avail themselves of the privileges offered to make the best out of their lives. What wouldn't Abraham Lincoln have given for such a chance? A majority of our great and leading men are college bred, yet but a very small percent of all the boys ever attend a school of higher learning. Then there is the satisfaction of knowing many things to be learned in no other way and a training of the thinking faculties and many other advantages even though one never does, nor desires to, secure a noted place in the world.

When Prof. French was here recently, he showed how it is possible for young people to educate themselves, so to speak, at the Eastern Oregon State Normal School at Weston, now open, where the pupil has golden opportunities for paying their way by doing a variety of light work about the institution, and singled out to us, pictured in sketches of the many departments of the school, several pupils so engaged in the work of educating themselves. Weston Normal is one of the best fitted schools on the Pacific coast, and we expect to see several young people join it at the close of the present harvest where their services seem just now to be indispensable. Unfortunately for some of this class our schools open too early in the fall; however, 150 pupils were enrolled at the opening of Weston Normal, and 50 more are confidently expected.

President Robert C. French is supported by a very able staff of teachers and assistants and every department is as thoroughly sustained as any school in the Pacific states the entire faculty being of the highest standard in their line of work. Send for catalogue.

The emergency rate agreed upon by the Railway Co., $7 per ton in car load lots, and the mine owners charge of $1 per ton, enables you to lay your coal down in Moro at $8 a ton from Missouri river points.

Travel from the East into Oregon is just now enormous. It will keep up for 30 days, then we never expect to hear of such cheap fares across this continent again.

Talks with the Doctor

HEALTH SUGGESTIONS.

"You smoke 30 cigarettes a day?" "Yes, on the average."

"Yet you don't blame them for your run down condition?" "Not in the least; I blame my hard work."

The physician shook his head and smiled in a vexed way. Then he took a leech out of a glass jar.

"Let me show you something, he said, "bare your arm."

The cigarette fiend bared his pale arm, and the doctor laid a lean, black leech upon it. The leech fell to work busily; its body began to swell; then, all of a sudden, a kind of shudder convulsed it, and it fell to the floor, dead.

"That is what your blood did to that leech, said the doctor as he took the little corpse between his finger and thumb.

"Look at it, he said, quite dead, you see; your blood has poisoned it!"

"I guess it wasn't a healthy leech in the first place," gasped the cigarette smoker, sullenly.

"Wasn't healthy, eh? Well, we'll try again," said the doctor, as he clapped two leeches on the young man's thin arm.

"If they both die, said the patient 'I'll swear off; or at least I'll cut out 20 cigarettes of my daily allowance."

Even as he spoke the smaller leech shivered and dropped on his knees, dead; and a moment later the larger one fell beside it.

"This is ghastly," said the young man, "I am worse than the pestilence to these leeches."

"It is the emphyreumatic oil in your blood," said the doctor. "All cigarette fiends have it; smoke reasonably, and this oil will disappear, and you will be no longer deadly to the leech. Furthermore, your appetite will return; you will sleep better; your muddy color will clear up; it is not hard work that has brought these troubles down on you, but hard smoking."

"Doc," said the young man, regarding the three dead leeches thoughtfully, "I half believe you're right."
