About two months ago our baby girl had measles which settled on her lungs, and at last resulted in a severe attack of bronchitis. We had two doctors, but no relief was obtained. Everybody thought she would die. I went to eight different stores to find a certain remedy that had been recommended, but failed to get it, when one of the store keepers insisted that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and our baby is alive and well today. GW Spence, Holly Springs, NC. For sale by Moro Pharmacy

The Dalles Optimist: A test of supremacy of strength was witnessed when Billy Dalrymple, of the Dalles Athletic club, and George Miller, of Moro Athletic club, appeared on the mat and gave a first class exhibition of their skill. The wrestlers were introduced by squeeze Etheridge, who acted as referee. The men showed up in good form and showed considerable training. The local wrestler was lighter and much quicker, and by his quick work secured first fall. The 2d round found the men in good condition, and for an hour and 30 minutes they struggled to overpower the other, and at that time officer Ralph Gibbons appeared, and notified them that it was Sunday, and asked them to call it off.
