FRIDAY, Dec. 27, 1907

Our Last and Best Proposition.

A good many are taking advantage of The Observer Club rates this winter, as printed on the 4th page. Here is one, finest and best of all: Oregonian 12 months $1.50
Observer 12 months 1.50
Youths Companion 12 months 1.75
Toledo Blade 12 months 1.00
Three-a-Week World 12 mos. 1.00
N. Y. Tribune Farmer 12 mos. 1.00
Total value $7.25
Subscriber pays us 5.00
Subscriber saves for himself $2.25
See additional list on 4th page.

The Observer has been established nearly 21 years, and it has some subscribers who have received it regularly for more than half a score of years. Many of these object to having the Old Reliable discontinued at the time of expiration of their subscriptions, and for their benefit, as for other reasons, we discontinue subscriptions only when notified to do so, except by agreement made at the time the account is opened, when it is made upon the calendar to be discontinued promptly at the time specified. All persons paying in advance at the time of subscribing, will have the benefit of the $2.50 rate for two years, or the $5.00 rate for five years. We send The Observer to any responsible person who orders it, though they may not send the money with the order, with the understanding that they are to pay 12 1/2 cents per month for it, until such time as they wish to take advantage of the above liberal discounts. From this date we are prepared to discount rates to all leading Weekly and Magazine publishers in the United States, to any prepaid reader of The Old Reliable Observer. Come with the money—as that is indispensable.

It is with Kings as with other men. After they are dead we learn how good they are.

Friends of the third term rumor should not forget to pass around and view the remains.

It is most astonishing to what extent Tacoma has permitted holy rollerism to spread over there.

Brewers who retired from business a few years ago can see now what long heads they possessed.

Friends of the Taft boom believe that it is strong enough to overcome the endorsement of Wall street.

A Chicago poet was fined $3 recently by the court. But not for being a poet; there is no law against that.

The prohibitionists should note that it is a dry wave, not a prohibition wave; that is sweeping over the country.

An expert makes the declaration that oysters are not harmful. Sure not, they won't even fight back when attacked.

Send The Observer to your absent friends. It is better than a letter, and gives all the home news. Four months for 50c.

A scientist is going to have the world vibrate as the moon in 50,000,000 years. Thanks, for not being in a hurry about it.

If President Roosevelt sticks to his determination not to run again some of his opponents will be mean enough to say that he is afraid.

Here's another score against the Dr. Oaler theory. Hon. Henry Gassaway Davis, at the age of 84, is running down a matrimonial rumor.

"Man wants but little here below," is a comforting thought at this season of the year, when he will have to be satisfied with a red necktie.

Some of the press are hitting McClure's roughly on account of the startling article on the subject of the American Navy. Laying bare with unsparring hand alleged shortcomings which The Observer believes could be profitably discussed by congress in its endeavor to check executive interference with the acts of the legislative branch of the government. If there is nothing but compliments for the Navy, if there is nothing but words of praise for its personnel, no practical person need be told where all this will ultimately land us in case of war. If it has taken 15 years, as alleged, to get one of the boards to modify a glaring architectural defect long recognized and obviated in every other navy on earth, it will not do to meet charges such as this with simply denouncing the man who makes them.

Seuth Bend papers report that $15,000 in bogus clearing house certificates were passed in Lebanon.

Mr Cortelyou will never be able to convince the country that he has not been treated fairly in the matter of promotions.

One thing that may be mentioned against Tom Watson's idea of issuing $100,000,000 in greenbacks is the present high price of paper.

The 60th congress is the biggest one that the country has had, so there should be no kick if it talks louder and longer than any of its predecessors.

Senator Fulton will take advantage of the holiday recess of congress to come home to Astoria to register for the elections of 1908. Beautiful law! Another superfluity.

No doubt Senator Jefferson Davis, of Arkansas, no kin to the Confederacy Jeff, believes with all his heart that he has succeeded in giving Ar kan saw a conspicuous place on the map.

A New York news paper protests against the introduction of the kitchen cabinet, which means a culinary room no larger than a closet. The tablet may not have arrived in food, but is near in living quarters.

None of the financiers in congress has a more comprehensive monetary measure than that of the old Kansas greenbacker who introduced a bill in the legislature providing for a currency that should be more numerous and limberer.

The American Armada celebrated its Christmas at sea, with old Neptune made up as Santa Claus. As it moves along it receives and sends the daily news by wireless. Father Neptune is getting his share of the new things under the sun.

The United States will be represented in the Tokio world's fair a few years hence, but not by American stewards in the restaurants. But then, the show will have an Honorable Court of Cherry Blossoms, instead of a pike, warpath or midway.

The Swiss minister to Japan informs his government that the Japs have fully mastered the Swiss way of manufacturing condensed milk. How they acquired the knowledge is not known, but it has long been apparent that the Japanese are an observant race.

The bill to establish a forest reserve in the White Mountains and Southern Appalachians will be pushed again in the present congress. As soon as the Eastern states fairly catch on to the march of empire they may also look into the merits of irrigation and draining of swamp lands.

The Kaiser's countrymen are sitting up and taking renewed notice of South America as a big field for profitable exploitation. If the U.S. shall be forced eventually to manifest more than an intermittent interest in its sub-equatorial neighbors, the feeling may be labelled "made in Germany."

McClure's Magazine was advanced in price Oct. 1 1907 to $1.50 per year, but until Feb. 1, 1908, The Observer Book Store, by special arrangement with the publishers, will accept your subscriptions for one or two years at the old very low rate of $1 per year (add 50c for postage if to Canadian points, $1 if to points abroad).

Rev. Dr. Alexander, acting President of Union College, says, "I am always ready to cheer for old Union, to sing for her and work for her, but I can't discern wings sprouting from the possessor of ill gotten gains, even though he gives large sums to his alma mater; I can't pretend to believe a victory on the baseball field to be the supreme test of intellectual culture. I cannot profess a belief in a system which crams a youth with uncorrelated facts, and labels him 'liberally' educated."

From the Dean's report at Yale it appears that students living in high-priced dormitories get far more warnings for poor scholarship than those in more modest quarters. The difference is due to a degree, of course, to the fact that sons of poor men usually go to college with an object—while many sons of wealth go because it is "the thing" to do. It is true, however, that reasonable moderation in living is an aid to the formation of good habits in diligence, while extravagance affords a constant temptation to let study stand on pleasure.

One trouble about the state and federal elections next year is that much of the excitement will come at a time when the country will be interested in football scrimmages.

A Missouri spinster who has a large interest in a 500,000-acre rancho in Western Mexico has recently purchased for herself 80,000 acres adjacent for a rubber and coffee plantation. Missouri proposes to show the world that there is no limit to a woman's career.

Most of the Russian officers and soldiers are defending Gen. Stoessel in his present trial for needlessly surrendering a position he was powerless to hold. There are occasions when discretion has the edge on valor, and the incident at Port Arthur was one of them.

It is predicted that the completion of the Panama canal will create a great tide of European emigrants to the coast regions of the Pacific in North America, Central America and South America. The isthmian waterway will cause many changes that Uncle Sam cannot foresee, but he is willing to pay the freight.

If the United States continues to allow other countries to surpass it in fostering a merchant marine, it is more than probable that the flag of America will be seldom seen even in the Panama canal when it is completed.

The historian has an opening sentence. On December 16th, 1907, the great fleet announced its readiness by firing a national salute and the Oriental cooaks.

In Washington official language, the voyage to the Pacific is "a detail of naval practice." It is in order to congratulate the government authorities on their attention to the minutiae.

Leave orders now for the New Year Oregonian, only 5c and postage, to any part of the world. Best edition ever printed.

The Pencil Pusher.

An All Around Globe Trotter.

Sending secretary Taft around the world was much less expensive than to go to war.

Surrounded by 16 battleships "Fighting Bob" Evans must look quite peaceful to other nations.

The suggestion that congress does not understand the currency question will not keep it from trying to solve it.

The report that President Roosevelt has thrown another flat-iron at the 3d-term cat lacks official confirmation.

There are lots of people in this country who like a man like Gov. Hughes who can keep quiet when he has nothing to say.

The historian has an opening sentence. On December 16th, 1907, the great fleet announced its readiness by firing a national salute and the Oriental cooaks.

Ladies' Aid Society, every Thursday, at 2 o'clock p. m. Mrs. C. G. Huls, President.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges, and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound city, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death, with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes, writes Mrs. Clapp, when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung complaints, at the Moro Pharmacy, 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.
