The attack upon Senator Fulton by the state federation of labor, was at the instigation of a few Portland politicians. There is no way of determining how seriously the average young woman takes leap year. With a widow it may be different.

There has just been an auction sale of prehistoric bones in England. In America the market turns rather to modern family skeletons. It is not certain by just which route the armada will return to the Atlantic; but it is the optimistic thing to bet that it will return.

The 1908 calendar is doing its best for an elastic currency. There will be five Saturday pay days in the short month of February. Mount Hood Catholic ladies gave a dance last week, and recently the high school boys and girls gave a dance, at which 'punch' was served.

Prophets are busy predicting the end of the world again. It is about time that medical scientists discover a germ for this sort of periodical ailment. Tacoma, Seattle and San Francisco about that it doesn't seem fair to show our armada to the people of foreign nations when there are so many folks at home who have not seen it.

The traffic department of the Portland and Seattle (North Bank Ry) Co, has appointed R H Jenkins assistant general freight and passenger agent, with his headquarters at Portland. The most unproductive job yet discovered, is that of foreign spies, reported to be studying the weak places of the United States for defending its main territory. Any invading party would be turned over to a constable and held for observation.

A 1-cent Postal Card, no more, nor no less, is all that is necessary to change your address, or have The Observer follow you wherever you may go. Then why send a verbal message by any one who has business of their own to attend to and forget to attend to your errands? Remember this suggestion. In buying a cough medicine for children, never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it, and relief is always sure to follow. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and there is no medicine in the world better for these diseases. It is not only a certain cure for croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given as directed. It contains no opium or other harmful drugs, and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by Moro Pharmacy.

All persons having claims against the firm will see J. W. Messinger for settlement. All persons owing the firm will make settlement with J.W. Messinger. W O'Reilly, Fogarty, who is a member of the city council of Kingston Jamaica, West Indies, writes as follows: "One bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had good effect on a cough that was giving me trouble and I think I should have been more quickly relieved if I had continued the remedy. That it was beneficial and quick in relieving me there is no doubt and it is my intention to obtain another bottle." For sale by Moro Pharmacy.

The event of the winter in this circuit in educational matters was the oratorical contest between the Hood river and Dalles city high schools, at Hood river. A special train carried a load of passengers to witness the contest which was a spirited one, decided in favor of the Dalles. Prof W C Bryant of Moro, Prof R P Robinson of Portland, and Prof White of Portland, were the judges.

It Does The Business. E E Chamberlain, of Clinton, Me., says of Bucklen's Arnica Salve: "It does the business; I used it for piles, and it cured them; for chapped hands, and it cured them; applied it to an old sore, and it healed it without leaving a scar." 25c at Moro Pharmacy.

Sherman county court adjourned to the 20th. J J Schaeffer and wife were Moro visitors Tuesday.

J I Messinger & Co never get tired of showing shoes. Mr and Mrs Wheat have returned from their Western Oregon trip. Monday was the beginning of the 2d winter hereabouts since last fall.

Hans Thompson was over from Monkland Saturday, and bought books for a whole school. O A Ramsey is in Wasco this week, remodeling the interior of the McCoy-Atwood-Co. store.

There was quite a run on that honey in bulk last week, but we still have some of it. J I Messinger & Co. Someone states that the President "shot at a turkey and a rabbit, one of them on the wing." Can you guess which one?

A trio of dirt removers: Old Dutch Cleanser; Dutch Hand Soap; Pyramid Soap Powder; at J I Messinger & Co. N P Hansen, manager of the Gordon Bank of this city, is attending to business in Portland this week.

Mrs Lottie Pierson is here with her little girl, on a visit to her mother Mrs Cushman, and sister Mrs H S McDaniel. That New York physician who recommends that society members fly kites for their health, was smart enough to suggest something that looks like play.

A commercial report places Michigan 2d state "in the production of grindstones." She also stands well up towards the front in the production of breakfast foods. J J McDonald, a property owner and old time resident of Sherman county, now living in Vallejo, Cal., is sheriff of the county in which he lives.

A deal was made in this city Tuesday by which H M Shull will have 2,100 acres of grain to cut and thresh next harvest, adding 900 acres to his holdings by purchase of that amount seeded, from Orville Smith. If the donors had taken those $20 pieces back, and not substituted other money for them, its dollars to doughnuts that that Pittsburg preacher who refused them, because they did not have In God we Trust on them, would have regretted his refusal.

Rudolf Rink is a big drawing card. Everybody, big and little, young and old; have a fine time gliding around on the rollers. There are a few, however, that seem to have difficulty in managing their toes. One foot will persist in going north while the other, with equal persistence wants to go south. Result, a collapse. Mrs Maggie Rutledge has a valuable book for teaching beginners. The numerous favorable reports concerning the cure for cerebro-spinal meningitis discovered by Dr Simon Flexner, of the Rockefeller institute for medical research, are now officially and authoritatively verified in the announcement made in the official journal of the institute. While no claim of infallibility is made the results have been such as to prove the great efficacy of the remedy, and he and his associates feel sure that it will prove one of the greatest benefactions to mankind.

Throughout the state of Georgia, New Years eve was celebrated with "death watches" in the saloons and praise services in the churches, because of the first stroke of the clock after midnight, the new prohibition law was to go into effect, making the demon rum an outlaw henceforth. At the last stroke of 12, thousands of revelers toasted the new year with their last glass, and left the saloons in darkness, with doors not to be again opened. In the Baptist Tabernacle Rev Broughton broke a bottle of whisky before the assembled congregation, shouting, "Whisky is dead in Georgia," to which the people answered, "Thank God."

The recent sale of a box of Oregon apples in Los Angeles, at $5, has brought up the question of record prices for apples. The price named has been mentioned as the highest paid since 1852. The horticultural annals of Oregon show that in 1856 one box of Spitzenberg apples, produced in the Willamette valley, netted the shipper $60 in San Francisco. In the same year three boxes of Winesaps sold in Portland for $102-$34 per box. In 1855, 6,000 boxes of apples grown in Clackamas county mostly, were sold at prices which netted the shipper $20 to $30 a bushel. In 1854, 500 boxes were sold at from $60 to $90 a box. The first lot of apples grown on grafted trees were sold in Portland by Henderson Luelling, the grower, at $1 each—75 of them.

Coyotes have killed 20 pigs for F A Sayres, out of 60 head on the Rain Makers Delight Farm. This is a heavy loss.

Wm Froebe has a lively place of business in his Wasco real estate office. He never lets a homeseeker go away homeless. Jas Stewart has been reapointed stook inspector of Sherman county, a previous act of the court, upon a voluntary 1st class record of the appointee.

We doubt if very many women take advantage of leap year, but it is their own fault if they can't recognize a blessed opportunity when it comes. Lots of men wouldn't regard a $ or $8 more for a barrel of beer as a heavy burden, but a 25c advance in the price of a barrel of flour makes them groan.

"Blessed are the meek for they shall become husbands," says the Salt Lake Tribune. And in Salt Lake, becoming a husband used to mean something. Hog-killing has passed again at the C G Huls farm, and The Observer family once more tender Mrs H thanks for remembrance in a liberal supply of spare ribs.

It is a good sign when a man has made a New Year resolution, even tho' he doesn't stick to it more than 16 days. It shows that he is willing to admit that there is something wrong with him. Wm Henrichs has again been appointed Road Master for Sherman county. Having served the county satisfactorily in this capacity once, there are many to welcome him back to the place.

W J Martin and wife stopped off in Moro Sunday to visit Mr and Mrs F R Axtell. They had been on a visit to Portland to Mr and Mrs L H Martin, where Miss Lola Martin has been quite ill. Miss Hallie Barzee and Mr Calvin Ingle were united in the holy bonds of wedlock on the 9th, at the home of the bride's parents, near Wasco. We extend the customary greetings to the happy couple.

There is considerable speculation as to just what is going to succeed the Teddy bear as a toy. However, the question is one that cannot be settled until after the presidential nominations are made. A writing paper has been invented that crumbles to dust 24 hours after it is written upon. It's just the thing for affinites, as then their letters could never show up in divorce and criminal courts.

There's one sure way successfully to pursue and capture hard luck, and that is in spending time and energy in doing an old thing based on the motive of revenge. Politicians may read this over again; please. Mr and Mrs W Murray sent in a holiday supply of rich spare ribs Christmas week, much appreciated by The Observer family, but we beg pardon for this seemingly tardy acknowledgement of the kindly remembrance. The dead head racket is being worked yet occasionally in Moro by traveling bummers. Avoid the ruse by resolving to patronize only such show people as rent the hall and board themselves at the hotel. It is time that bums and tramps were out, along with insolent pedlars.

Fortune favors odd extremes. In the case of the New Orleans woman dying in equal with a legacy of $50,000 awaiting her, and the impoverished Virginia family, made comfortable by the sale for $3,000 of a 5c postage stamp from one of grand father's love-letters. A card from Dan informs us that while in San Francisco Carmody Bros bought one of the crack hotels of that city. In settling up there was so little difference between a 4-days board bill and the value of the stupendous caravansary, that they just 'took it in' wholesale. The discovery of another porphyry dike, believed to be rich in gold, in Crook county, has just been announced, on the south west end of Powell buttes, 15 miles from Prineville. Nine persons located all of it, and it is not a poor man's mine, perhaps after 50 years it may become productive. Just now it sounds like Owyhee talk in 1863.

Jess N Landry, who was called to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs Calbreath, is now a resident of the stirring and handsome Inland Empire city Walls Walls. He paid us a visit, and the conversation turning upon the recent financial panic, he remarked that not one of the five banks there closed for a minute on account of it, and the weakest of the five cashed a $10,000 check one day in the midst of the crazy part of the jangle. He is well pleased with Walls Walls.

Rank Foolishness. When attacked by a cough or cold or when your throat is sore, it is rank foolishness to take any other medicine than Dr Kings New Discovery, says EO Eldridge, of Empire, Ga. My children are subject to croup but New Discovery quickly cures every attack. Known the world over as the King of throat and lung remedies. Sold under guarantee at Moro Pharmacy, 50c. and $1. IN MEMORIAM. Death and Burial of Mrs. Anna-Landry Calbreath.

It always seems doubly sad when a young person, just in the bloom of youth, is chosen by the grim reaper for his garner; but he is certainly no respecter of persons and the young as well as the old are taken. Such a one was Mrs Anna-Landry-Calbreath, beloved wife of our worthy friend, I D Calbreath.

She had been an invalid for a long time, and had made numerous visits to Portland and The Dalles for medical treatment, once submitting to a surgical operation, and it was finally decided two weeks ago to submit to a 2nd operation, which was performed on the 6th, at a Portland hospital, where she died at 5 o'clock on the morning of the 10th, in spite of the best care and attention that could be bestowed upon her. Her sister, Mrs Clara Belchee, was at her bedside when the summons came, Mr Calbreath was near and 'phones, in readiness to carry the word to anxious relatives, were open, but the word was the worst; expected, but still hoped against.

Mrs Calbreath, nearing her 26th birthday, was a daughter of Mr and Mrs J H Landry, native of Washington, but for years a resident of this city. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at Moro M.E.Church, which was filled with sorrowing people, many near and dear to the deceased, and all with a tender regard for memory of her good qualities. The reading of the scriptures, the music of the choir, the sermon by Rev Perry Chandler were all in sweet harmony with the solemn surroundings. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful, but they conveyed no purer sentiment than the exalted character and virtues of the deceased, who lying in that elegant open casket, appeared to be at temporary repose more than one sleeping the long sleep of death.

Deceased expected to be taken in to membership of the M E Church, on her next attendance. Yet, alas, as the good speaker expressed it, her death came so very sudden that she passed on beyond, and entered into the blessed place prepared in heaven for those who confide in the Lord. She leaves a loving husband, two darling little children, devoted parents, three affectionate sisters and one kind brother, besides a score of close relatives, of whom many came to the farewell, realizing that

A precious one from them had gone, A voice they loved was stilled; A place was vacant in the home, Which never can be filled. God in his wisdom had recalled, The boon his love had given; And though the body moulders here The soul is safe in heaven.

The family wish to thank the many friends that came to their help and assistance during this bereavement. Words can but feebly express the gratitude and heartfelt appreciation they feel. "We can only say that we sincerely hope, if ever trouble should come to you or yours, that in that moment of anguish you may find friends as kind and sympathetic as you have been to us."

Ward, was as follows: Howard Hulse, Martin Hansen, John Fulton, C H Coon, P J Dilling, G R Walton, Howard Coulee, Geo Henhagen, W F Guyton, A F Watkins, Robert Urquhart and Tom Brannon. The verdict was not guilty. Defendant was charged with murder, in the McDonald row last summer.
