Our Last and Best Proposition. A good many are taking advantage of The Observer Club rates this winter, as printed on the 4th page. Here is one, finest and best of all: Oregonian 12 months $1.50. Observer 12 months 1.50. Youth Companion 12 months 1.75. Toledo Blade 12 months 1.00. Thrice-a-Week World 12 mos. 1.00. N. Y. Tribune Farmer 12 mos. 1.00. Total value $7.75. Subscriber pays us 5.00. Subscriber saves for himself $2.75.

The Observer has been established nearly 21 years, and it has some subscribers who have received it regularly for more than half a score of years. Many of these object to having the Old Reliable discontinued at the time of expiration of their subscriptions, and for their benefit, as for other reasons, we discontinue subscriptions only when notified to do so, except by agreement made at the time the account is opened, when it is noted upon the calendar to be discontinued promptly at the time specified. All persons paying in advance at the time of subscribing, will have the benefit of the $2.50 rate for two years, or the $5.00 rate for five years. We send The Observer to any responsible person who orders it, though they may not send the money with the order, with the understanding that they are to pay 12 1/2 cents per month for it, until such time as they may wish to take advantage of the above liberal discounts. From this date we are prepared to discount rates to all leading Weeklies and Magazines published in the United States, on any prepaid order of The Old Reliable Observer. Come with the money—we are that indispensible.

Crop prospects are promising, and none looks safer for a bountiful supply than that of Republican presidential booms.

A Georgia paper gets to the marrow of the Democratic nomination when it says that Mr. Bryan is the absolutely unavoidable candidate.

People of Sherman county do not like a snowless winter, but they always wait until February and March are over before making up the returns.

It is a safe guess that by the time Mr. Bryan gets through with the Democratic organization there will never be another one-man party in this country.

The good southern man who is wanted by Judge Parker to be the Moses of the Democratic party seems to be about as hard to locate as the grave of Moses.

Other nations may boast as much as they like of the power of their naval arms, but the American fleet is still playing a leading part in the lordship of the sea.

By the time they finish their cruise our sixteen battleships will be able to furnish the highest living authority on the glad hand and international hospitality.

Cuba's first president had been long a resident of the United States. Perhaps the island is waiting to find another man with a preliminary American training.

Nashville wants immigrants and will circulate a German newspaper in Germany to attract the kind it wishes. It will find the variety is welcome in any part of the country.

A Portland woman was scared into withdrawing her money from bank, and then the adviser proceeded to rob her. In hundreds of cases during the flurry the money taken from bank for hoarding was lost.

There is a proposition to make ex-presidents high officials in the peace movement. How long will it be before the country can have an ex-chief magistrate who is built that way?

A man in Hood River valley built a $4000 house last year from the sale of fruit from four acres of apple trees. It is proper to add that he given his orchard the best possible care.

The secretary of the interior reports that the government has reserved 5,163,552 acres of coal lands in the public domain. Canada has taken the hint and will make similar reservations.

Mr. Bryan impresses all who meet him that he is absolutely confident of election in 1908. So it was in the first and second battles, and will be in the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, etc., etc.

HENEY'S AIR GUN.

Mr. Heney has so far failed to make good his claim against Senator Fulton by his sensational disclosures at Portland the other day. He has not smirched the senator's private character in the least by bringing up something alleged to have happened nine or ten years ago, before he was elected to the United States senate. There were all kinds of doubtful deals at Salem in those days, and even Jonathan Bourne himself was reputed to have been mixed up in some of them; but what of that? Then politics were paramount; it was a case of diamond cut diamond, dog eat dog, or, as it appeared to the writer at the time, every man for himself, with the accompanying phrase. The man that could not make a deal of some kind was promptly squelched. Mr. Heney might be able to accuse others as he does Fulton. But he won't. Why?

Penalties unprecedented in the history of the prosecution of corporations in California, or a complete revision of the laws applicable to railroads will be the outcome of an investigation instituted by the California state railroad commission. Four thousand cases of rebating have been perfected against the Southern Pacific company, through its own admissions. In each case the evidence practically is conclusive, from bills of lading to the endorsed checks issued by the company to the shippers in reimbursement. Should convictions be obtained on each of these cases, and the maximum penalty of $20,000 be imposed for each violation of the law, the Southern Pacific will face an aggregate fine of $80,000,000. In some of these rebates the railroad refunded 53 per cent of the original charge to the shipper. In other cases the rebates averaged approximately 40 per cent of the total sum the company received from the shipper.

Thaw objects to the society in which he finds himself. He can blame his counsel for making out too strong a case. Yet the alternative might have been still more unpleasant.

The New York legislative committee on codes has introduced a bill to prohibit stock and grain gambling. The bill prohibits and declares unlawful every contract or agreement, whereby any person or corporation shall agree to buy, sell and deliver, or sell with an agreement to deliver, any wheat, cotton, corn or commodity, stock, bond or other security to any other person or corporation, when in fact it is not intended in good faith by the parties that an actual delivery of the articles shall be made, whether made or to be performed wholly within the state or partly without the state.

LEGAL NONSENSE.

What a lot of nonsensical legal red tape has to be unwound in criminal procedure, performances with no more sense or reason in them than it would be for a man while putting on his clothes to turn around 39 times every time he put a button in place or passed a shoe lace over a button. The speaker of the Massachusetts legislature has been indicted on 162 counts in consequence of having had something to do with an excursion to that many school children. It is supposed that he somehow violated a state law in getting reduced rates, or in some other way. If legal procedure were not in some particular an absurd, nonsensical thing, entirely unadapted to common sense business methods, one count, specifying the number of people involved in the transaction and the offense in a few simple, plain words; would be quite sufficient; but the law being what it is, and legal custom what it is, farcical, ridiculous and nonsensical, the prosecuting officer had to write out a long string of useless and foolish verbiage 162-times. This is only one instance of hundreds that prove the opening of this article. We wonder if the time will ever come when the legal profession, in the matter of criminal and even civil pleading, will consent to get into communication with common sense.

Suffering and Dollars Saved. E. S. Loper, of Marilla, N. Y., says: "I am a carpenter and have had many severe colds headed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It has saved me suffering and dollars. It is by far the best healing salve I have ever found." Heals burns, sores, ulcers, fever sores, eczema and piles. 25c at Moro Pharmacy.

The New York Tribune Farmer. Horses, cattle, sheep and swine, are owned probably by four-fifths of the readers of The Observer, and all farmers and the man with but one horse or cow, in country or village, would be greatly benefited by reading from week to week the fine articles on the care and treatment of live stock, by Dr. C. D. Smead, the world famous veterinary writer, in the New York Tribune Farmer. Dr. Smead's articles appeal to practical men, and no live stock writer in the United States gives more information of every day actual value, prolonging the usefulness, and saving the lives of valuable animals. These articles, with the other departments, poultry, horticulture, dairy, science mechanics, etc. keep the N. Y. Tribune Farmer in the lead of the Agricultural press of the United States. DOING THEIR DUTY. Scores of More People are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys. To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. If they fail to do this the kidneys are sick. Backache and many kidney ills follow. Urinary trouble, diabetes. Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. Wm. Bernman, Sherman, St., Hood River, Oregon, says: "I was feeling quite miserable when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills but I am glad to say that they quickly cured me of the complaint. My kidneys were very weak and the secretions gave me a great deal of annoyance, as they were entirely too free in action. My back was very lame, and caused me much suffering whenever I bent over or attempted to regain an erect position. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of all this suffering and it gives me pleasure to recommend them to others."

"Don't trifle with a cold," is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Proper food, good ventilation, and dry, warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are maintained through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the chances of a surprise from ordinary colds will be slight. But the ordinary light cold will become severe if neglected, and a well established ripe cold is to the germs of diphtheria what honey is to the bee. The greatest menace to child life at this season of the year is the neglected cold." Whether it is a child or adult, the cold slight or severe, the very best treatment that can be adopted is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure. The great popularity and immense sale of this preparation has been attained by its remarkable cures of this ailment. A cold never results in pneumonia when it is given. For sale by Moro Pharmacy.
