

The Observer

MORO, SHERMAN CO., OREGON:

The price of The Observer is $1.50 per year...

Eureka Lodge No. 121 A. F. & A. M., Moro, Or.

Bethlehem Chapter No. 78 O. E. S. Regular communication each 2d and 4th Thursday evening...

Moro Lodge, No. 113, I. O. O. F., Moro, Oregon. Meets every Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

FRIDAY, February 21, 1908

Subscribe for The Observer For abstracts, see Meindl & Bryant, Moro.

Read The Observer Club Rates, on 2d and 4th pages.

Stationery, paper, pens, ink, pencils and all sorts of notes, at the Observer Book Store.

Sample copies of this paper may be had at The Observer business office—5c per copy.

Don't use pins to pin your papers together. Try the best clips, at The Observer Book Store.

After 1 p.m. Wednesday, it is very difficult for us to handle copy that calls for changes in the form.

Pencil holders, that hold the pencil in any pocket, at The Observer Book Store.

Dr C Hartley, dentist, will be at Grass Valley 1 week of each month. Vis. week following the 1st Sunday.

Old time makes the very best of Babbitt metal. We have it for sale and when you need any call at The Observer office. Price is right.

The quick relief from pain afforded by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm makes it a favorite with sufferers from rheumatism, sciatica, lame back, lumbago, and deep seated muscular pains.

E C Davis, proprietor of the Grass Valley Barn, promptly attends all calls, day or night. Animals given the very best of care. Charges are right.

Send The Observer to your absent friends. It is better than a letter, and gives all the home news. Four months for 50c.

"We prefer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to any other for our children," says Mr. L. J. Woodbury, of Twining, Mich. "It has also done the work for us in hard colds and croup, and we take pleasure in recommending it."

Superior round nickel tipped and rubber top pencils, two-for-5 cents and some for 10 cts per doz., at the Observer Book Store.

The Jumping Off Place. "Consumption had its grasp; and I had almost reached the jumping off place when I was advised to try Dr. King's New Discovery; and I want to say right now, it saved my life. Improvement began with the first bottle, and after taking one dozen bottles I was a well and happy man again," says George Moore, of Grimseland, N. C. As a remedy for coughs and colds and healer of weak, sore lungs and for preventing pneumonia New Discovery is supreme. 50c and $1.00 at Moro Pharmacy. Trial bottle free.

Good Land Buy—800 acres good rich farm land; about 690 acres tillable; situated in Hay Canyon country, about six miles from railroad station, half mile from good school, right at church; fine large barn, abundance of water, large machine shed, blacksmith shop; nearly all fenced hog tight; chicken house and other good outbuildings, and 175 acres summer fallow. I will sell this farm very reasonable, with fair cash payment down, and will give good terms on balance. Apply for further information to J. F. Belshen, Wasco, Oregon.

The Unadilla county farmers' association have purchased of the Ames Harris Neville Company of Portland 400,000 grain bags at $7.15 a hundred, delivered in Pendleton. The bags purchased are manufactured by that company at Portland.

Wm. Heinrichs and wife were Portland visitors this week, where Mr. H. went to receive the shipment of trout recently ordered by Messrs. Barnum, Littlefield and Cochran for the purpose of stocking the water of the Gould farm with this species of the flann tribe.

The Methodist Episcopal church in the United States will this year celebrate the centennial anniversary of the adoption of its constitution. The growth of Methodism in the last 100 years is something on which the members of the church have reason to congratulate themselves.

The public lands committee of the senate reported favorably the bill to enlarge the homestead unit to 220 acres and amending it to make residence on and improvement of land necessary for patent. Senator Fulton accepted the bill for Oregon, reserving the right to withdraw later if necessary.

Keeping Open House. Everybody is welcome when we feel good; and we feel that way only when our digestive organs are working properly. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the action of stomach, liver and bowels so perfectly one can't help feeling good when he uses these pills. 25c at Moro Pharmacy.

Japanese have been experimenting on an unrequited bluff of Santa Monica bay, California, with range finding cannon operated by smokeless powder. The news of their operations created quite an excitement, particularly as a portion of Admiral Evans' fleet will anchor near the bluff from which the experiments have been carried on.

The Moro fire company wishes to express their sincere thanks to the people of Moro, individually and collectively, who so generously aided in every possible way to help enrich our treasury, that we may be able to protect our homes from fire. We are especially thankful to the ladies of Moro for the excellent supper prepared, and to the general public in the county who came forward with their generous support.

Have you registered? This is important, not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of the county at large. Every man owes it to himself and to his neighbor to attend to this matter promptly. No man should neglect to register and then blame the officials for making him trouble when time comes to vote. The officials are merely conforming with the requirements of the law while the voter is neglecting to carry out his requirements.

Spring is coming and with it most likely will be carried on a series of chicken stealing episodes, as in the past few years in this city. There was a reward of $25 out for information that would convict the thieves, last spring, regardless of their supposed social standing; this reward is still in effect. Some have questioned whether a person can be sent to the penitentiary for chicken stealing in Oregon. To all such we refer the following from the Daily Journal of Feb. 18, 1908: "Judge Henry L. Benson of Klamath Falls has sentenced John Willard, who was found guilty of stealing chickens, to two years in the state penitentiary. In pronouncing sentence Judge Benson said that he considered the punishment severe, under the circumstances, but it was the least that could be given."

George Gilbert Bancroft, a lecturer of several years experience under some of the best lyceum bureaus of the east is delivering a series of four lectures at the M. E. church, under the auspices of Moro High School. The lectures which Mr. Bancroft has so far delivered are instructive and well worth attending.

The next illustrated route book of the Union Pacific railroad will include all important stations on O. R. & N. system in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. It will give facts of interest concerning each city and town, setting forth their principal resources, population, industries and the character of the surrounding country, for the information of homeseekers. Many thousands of copies of the book are annually distributed by the Union Pacific company in the middle west and eastern states.

On Tuesday morning, Feb. 11th, there passed over the Great Divide a pioneer of eastern Oregon, Joseph H. Sherar, than whom none was better known among the early settlers of this section. Mr. S. came to The Dalles in 1862, from California, with the first pack train ever used in Oregon; selling it two years after he soon settled on a homestead, where he afterwards built Sherar bridge and grade. From that time to the present Wasco and Sherman county history is not complete without the name of J. H. Sherar.

Henry Richelieu of Wasco has suffered a severe loss of horses during this month from an affliction resembling spinal meningitis. Out of 27 head 16 were stricken, of which 8 died. It is the opinion that the disease was caused by winter feed, straw and stubble. The horses on the ranch which were comfortably stabled and well fed were not stricken with the disease. So far as we have heard Mr. R. has been the only loser by this disease in this section.

The first spirited debate in the senate this season was on the bill offered by Senator Borah of Idaho to revise and codify the Federal criminal laws by offering an amendment making it a penal offense for any United States senator or congressman to appear in court in any case in which the government may be interested. The amendment went over without action, Borah giving notice that he would continue to urge it until a vote was taken. There is a law now on the statute books prohibiting senators and congressmen from accepting fees for appearing before any government department and under this law Senators Burton and Mitchell were convicted, but there is no law prohibiting any senator or congressman to act as attorney for any corporation or individual which is opposing or opposed by the United States government in court.

Read The Observer. Skate Saturday? Sure!

Type-writer paper at The Observer office.

Wedding Stationery, at The Observer Book Store.

Hot Coffee and Sandwiches, at A B Wolfard's, Biggs.

Don't forget the masquerade skate Saturday evening.

Pencils, 10 cents per dozen, rubber insert, Observer Book Store.

Observer Club Rates this winter best ever. See 2d and 4th pages.

The Observer is sustained by its own reputation. The Official Paper of The People.

Inks, mucilage, cards, envelopes, paper of every kind, tablets, every style, at The Observer Book Store.

A 1-cent Postal Card, no more, nor no less, is all that is necessary to change your address, or have The Observer follow you wherever you may go. Then why send a verbal message by any one who has business of their own to attend to and forget to attend to your errands? Remember this suggestion.

CAN you afford to trifle with so serious a matter as to neglect a bad cold or cough, when for a trifling amount you can secure a bottle of Hickory Bark Cough Remedy, that is guaranteed to cure or money refunded? Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. For sale at Moro Pharmacy, and dealers everywhere.

Buy the genuine imported avenerious carbolium; the imitation being offered is only a temporary remedy if at all. If genuine one application lasts for all time. Ask to see our sealed packages. The Observer Book Store.

THE OLD Pennsylvania Dutch Dun kards recommend Hickory Bark Cough Remedy. Guaranteed to cure your cough, and guaranteed to be pure. Made from the bark of the shell-bark or white hickory tree. For sale by Moro Pharmacy, and all dealers everywhere.

Now is the time to write to your friend in the east. Colonist rates will be put on beginning March 1st and ending April 1st. During this time tickets will be on sale from Chicago to Moro for $38, from St. Louis for $35.50, from Kansas City, Omaha, St. Paul, $30.

Word from United States Senator C. W. Fulton to the Observer advises us that the senator has sent us for distribution in this county a quantity of seed. Those desiring any seeds please call or write so they can be accommodated. The seeds are here and postage paid for mailing.

THE OLD remedies are best. Hickory Bark Cough Remedy has been in use for over 100 years by the old Dutch Dunkards of Pennsylvania, and it still is used by all old families of western Pennsylvania. Is absolutely pure, made from the bark of the white or shell-bark hickory tree. Shipped from the east and manufactured in Salem, Oregon. For sale by Moro Pharmacy and all dealers.

Before buying anything in the hardware line, such as nails, shovels, spades, pitch forks, hoes, rakes, kitchenware, axes and hammers. Price them at J. I. Messinger & Co.

O. A. Ramsey is the first citizen to exhibit civic pride in the improvement of his residence property by taking down the old fence and replacing it with a neat picket fence.

Mrs. G. A. Meloy was so much improved as to be able to take the train Monday for Portland, where she will remain until her health improves. "Dr. O. J. Goffin accompanied the party.

The steamer Charles R. Spencer has been overhauled and painted and will begin regular trips between The Dalles and Portland by March 15th. This is earlier than she went into commission last year.

N. P. Hansen and G. E. Lewellen left for Portland Tuesday to buy goods for the new store which they will open for business in the Brock building. The new firm is composed of N. P. Hansen, S. Elcock and G. E. Lewellen.

The Unadilla county farmers' association have purchased of the Ames Harris Neville Company of Portland 400,000 grain bags at $7.15 a hundred, delivered in Pendleton. The bags purchased are manufactured by that company at Portland.

Wm. Heinrichs and wife were Portland visitors this week, where Mr. H. went to receive the shipment of trout recently ordered by Messrs. Barnum, Littlefield and Cochran for the purpose of stocking the water of the Gould farm with this species of the flann tribe.

The Methodist Episcopal church in the United States will this year celebrate the centennial anniversary of the adoption of its constitution. The growth of Methodism in the last 100 years is something on which the members of the church have reason to congratulate themselves.

The public lands committee of the senate reported favorably the bill to enlarge the homestead unit to 220 acres and amending it to make residence on and improvement of land necessary for patent. Senator Fulton accepted the bill for Oregon, reserving the right to withdraw later if necessary.

Keeping Open House. Everybody is welcome when we feel good; and we feel that way only when our digestive organs are working properly. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the action of stomach, liver and bowels so perfectly one can't help feeling good when he uses these pills. 25c at Moro Pharmacy.

J. O. Elrod was a visitor to Moro this week.

A nice line of confectionery at J. I. Messinger & Co's.

Come in and see the new shoes at J. I. Messinger & Co.

W. F. Schueller is packing his goods to ship to Portland.

John Johnson is confined to the house this week with asthma.

Horace Strong and family are expected home by the first of March.

The Wasco Implement House is agent for the Flying Dutchman plow.

Ray Ragedale has been elected city recorder in place of M. E. Miller, resigned.

For good harness go to the Moro Hardware and Implement Co., the Strong brick, Moro.

The Moro Hardware and Implement Co. this week sold A. E. Moritz a fine steel harrow.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Betts of The Dalles are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. P. H. Mass.

Miss D. Murray returned home Sunday, after a very pleasant visit with friends in Moro and vicinity.

W. C. Rutledge left on Tuesday's train for Portland for a rest and to recuperate after his recent sickness.

Chas. Harper of Klondyke has begun plowing on a 800 acre tract preparatory to raising a crop on the land this harvest.

Henry Ruggles has invented a successful straw burning stove, which can be seen in operation daily at the Blue Barn.

Olds Bros. of Grass Valley have purchased the Andy Tillson brick building and will move their harness shop to the new location.

J. E. Burnett, attorney at Arlington and aspirant for the republican nomination for district attorney of this district, was a visitor this week.

The funeral of J. W. Rayburn, one of the oldest settlers of Sherman county, took place Feb. 12th, from the residence of his son near Klondyke.

O. B. Messinger has purchased the Brown house and lots and one lot adjoining, all located in Mowry addition, in the same block in which he has been living.

The Cliffs ferry, after a thorough overhauling, is again in operation and is in better condition than ever before to handle the large traffic between Cliffs and the Oregon side.

E. C. Goodwin, the popular life insurance man, was a Moro visitor this week.

W. H. Moore was in Moro on business a part of Saturday and Sunday of last week.

Mrs. Geo. Laselle of Oregon City has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. F. J. Meindl.

J. A. Bolton of Kingsley, was visiting his brother-in-law, G. E. Thompson, and family this week.

Mrs. McGrath, proprietor of the Moro bakery, was a visitor to Hood River this week, returning Saturday.

Get a "skate" on Saturday eve, at the masquerade skate, and have a good time. Plenty of skates and good music.

Hugh Schull and wife of Kent and C. P. Ragedale and wife of Enterprise, Oregon, were guests at the masquerade ball on the 14th.

W. D. Scott has leased the blacksmith shop at Monkland and will have it ready for business by March 1st. Your patronage is solicited.

Editor Westerfield of the Grass Valley Journal has purchased the two story brick building in which his office has so long been located.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cushman and daughter, Mrs. Lottie Pearson, are visiting Mrs. C's daughters in Portland, Mrs. H. A. and W. H. Moore.

N. W. Thompson received a full blood Polan-China boar by express February 15th. Mr. Thompson makes a specialty of fine bred stock, not the least of which is hogs.

The steamer Telegraph, which has operated for several seasons between Portland and Astoria, will be placed on the run March 15. She will make the round trip daily as heretofore.

Mrs. John Johnson made a special trip to Wasco this week to consult with Dr. Hartley, dentist. A cavity in a tooth was found to be causing the neuralgia from which Mrs. Johnson was suffering.

George Gilbert Bancroft, a lecturer of several years experience under some of the best lyceum bureaus of the east is delivering a series of four lectures at the M. E. church, under the auspices of Moro High School. The lectures which Mr. Bancroft has so far delivered are instructive and well worth attending.

The next illustrated route book of the Union Pacific railroad will include all important stations on O. R. & N. system in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. It will give facts of interest concerning each city and town, setting forth their principal resources, population, industries and the character of the surrounding country, for the information of homeseekers. Many thousands of copies of the book are annually distributed by the Union Pacific company in the middle west and eastern states.

On Tuesday morning, Feb. 11th, there passed over the Great Divide a pioneer of eastern Oregon, Joseph H. Sherar, than whom none was better known among the early settlers of this section. Mr. S. came to The Dalles in 1862, from California, with the first pack train ever used in Oregon; selling it two years after he soon settled on a homestead, where he afterwards built Sherar bridge and grade. From that time to the present Wasco and Sherman county history is not complete without the name of J. H. Sherar.

Henry Richelieu of Wasco has suffered a severe loss of horses during this month from an affliction resembling spinal meningitis. Out of 27 head 16 were stricken, of which 8 died. It is the opinion that the disease was caused by winter feed, straw and stubble. The horses on the ranch which were comfortably stabled and well fed were not stricken with the disease. So far as we have heard Mr. R. has been the only loser by this disease in this section.

The first spirited debate in the senate this season was on the bill offered by Senator Borah of Idaho to revise and codify the Federal criminal laws by offering an amendment making it a penal offense for any United States senator or congressman to appear in court in any case in which the government may be interested. The amendment went over without action, Borah giving notice that he would continue to urge it until a vote was taken. There is a law now on the statute books prohibiting senators and congressmen from accepting fees for appearing before any government department and under this law Senators Burton and Mitchell were convicted, but there is no law prohibiting any senator or congressman to act as attorney for any corporation or individual which is opposing or opposed by the United States government in court.

W. H. Moore was in Moro on business a part of Saturday and Sunday of last week.

Mrs. Geo. Laselle of Oregon City has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. F. J. Meindl.

J. A. Bolton of Kingsley, was visiting his brother-in-law, G. E. Thompson, and family this week.

Mrs. McGrath, proprietor of the Moro bakery, was a visitor to Hood River this week, returning Saturday.

Get a "skate" on Saturday eve, at the masquerade skate, and have a good time. Plenty of skates and good music.

Hugh Schull and wife of Kent and C. P. Ragedale and wife of Enterprise, Oregon, were guests at the masquerade ball on the 14th.

W. D. Scott has leased the blacksmith shop at Monkland and will have it ready for business by March 1st. Your patronage is solicited.

Editor Westerfield of the Grass Valley Journal has purchased the two story brick building in which his office has so long been located.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cushman and daughter, Mrs. Lottie Pearson, are visiting Mrs. C's daughters in Portland, Mrs. H. A. and W. H. Moore.

N. W. Thompson received a full blood Polan-China boar by express February 15th. Mr. Thompson makes a specialty of fine bred stock, not the least of which is hogs.

The steamer Telegraph, which has operated for several seasons between Portland and Astoria, will be placed on the run March 15. She will make the round trip daily as heretofore.

Mrs. John Johnson made a special trip to Wasco this week to consult with Dr. Hartley, dentist. A cavity in a tooth was found to be causing the neuralgia from which Mrs. Johnson was suffering.

George Gilbert Bancroft, a lecturer of several years experience under some of the best lyceum bureaus of the east is delivering a series of four lectures at the M. E. church, under the auspices of Moro High School. The lectures which Mr. Bancroft has so far delivered are instructive and well worth attending.

The next illustrated route book of the Union Pacific railroad will include all important stations on O. R. & N. system in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. It will give facts of interest concerning each city and town, setting forth their principal resources, population, industries and the character of the surrounding country, for the information of homeseekers. Many thousands of copies of the book are annually distributed by the Union Pacific company in the middle west and eastern states.

On Tuesday morning, Feb. 11th, there passed over the Great Divide a pioneer of eastern Oregon, Joseph H. Sherar, than whom none was better known among the early settlers of this section. Mr. S. came to The Dalles in 1862, from California, with the first pack train ever used in Oregon; selling it two years after he soon settled on a homestead, where he afterwards built Sherar bridge and grade. From that time to the present Wasco and Sherman county history is not complete without the name of J. H. Sherar.

Henry Richelieu of Wasco has suffered a severe loss of horses during this month from an affliction resembling spinal meningitis. Out of 27 head 16 were stricken, of which 8 died. It is the opinion that the disease was caused by winter feed, straw and stubble. The horses on the ranch which were comfortably stabled and well fed were not stricken with the disease. So far as we have heard Mr. R. has been the only loser by this disease in this section.

The first spirited debate in the senate this season was on the bill offered by Senator Borah of Idaho to revise and codify the Federal criminal laws by offering an amendment making it a penal offense for any United States senator or congressman to appear in court in any case in which the government may be interested. The amendment went over without action, Borah giving notice that he would continue to urge it until a vote was taken. There is a law now on the statute books prohibiting senators and congressmen from accepting fees for appearing before any government department and under this law Senators Burton and Mitchell were convicted, but there is no law prohibiting any senator or congressman to act as attorney for any corporation or individual which is opposing or opposed by the United States government in court.

W. H. Moore was in Moro on business a part of Saturday and Sunday of last week.

Mrs. Geo. Laselle of Oregon City has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. F. J. Meindl.

J. A. Bolton of Kingsley, was visiting his brother-in-law, G. E. Thompson, and family this week.

Mrs. McGrath, proprietor of the Moro bakery, was a visitor to Hood River this week, returning Saturday.

Get a "skate" on Saturday eve, at the masquerade skate, and have a good time. Plenty of skates and good music.

Hugh Schull and wife of Kent and C. P. Ragedale and wife of Enterprise, Oregon, were guests at the masquerade ball on the 14th.

W. D. Scott has leased the blacksmith shop at Monkland and will have it ready for business by March 1st. Your patronage is solicited.

Editor Westerfield of the Grass Valley Journal has purchased the two story brick building in which his office has so long been located.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cushman and daughter, Mrs. Lottie Pearson, are visiting Mrs. C's daughters in Portland, Mrs. H. A. and W. H. Moore.

N. W. Thompson received a full blood Polan-China boar by express February 15th. Mr. Thompson makes a specialty of fine bred stock, not the least of which is hogs.

The steamer Telegraph, which has operated for several seasons between Portland and Astoria, will be placed on the run March 15. She will make the round trip daily as heretofore.

Miss Mary Patjens and Robert Grant were married at the home of the bride Wednesday evening, Feb. 12th. The young people have a host of friends in the community who join with The Observer in wishing their life's journey to be one of sunshine and happiness.

Articles of incorporation for the Great Southern railroad have been filed in Oregon and work will be begun as soon as contracts can be let to extend the line of the road, which now runs from The Dalles to Dufur, south as far as Tygh, where it will tap the rich wheat and timber country of the Tygh valley.

Wasco Implement house has sold a half car of land rollers to date, delivery to be March 1st. Mr. Golliber says all who want a Washington land roller at a good price should put in an order before March 15th, as his next shipment will cost more and necessarily sell for more.

Mr. J. H. Landry's home has been a small hospital for the last two weeks. First Miss Eva had the quincy. After she began to recover Mrs. W. S. Powell was taken with the grip; then Mrs. Landry was the next victim, followed by her two little grand children. At last accounts all were recovering nicely.

George Jacobs of Portland, the same man who purchased the Robt Villa power site, has purchased the water power and lands adjacent to the falls in the John Day river and will develop at least 600 horsepower, all of which will be utilized in Cliffs. The project has been pending some time waiting the decision of a Portland flouring mill company that was contemplating a mill at Cliffs.

Hon. S. S. Hayes, former resident of this city and director of the Moro schools, but now resident of Portland, has made this district a substantial gift of books to be added to the school library. The gift includes 10 volumes of literature, 10 volumes of general history, 10 volumes on Porto Rico, the Philippines, Japan and China. The books are appreciated by the pupils especially, as Prof. Powell says, they are books that can be used every day.

The next illustrated route book of the Union Pacific railroad will include all important stations on O. R. & N. system in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. It will give facts of interest concerning each city and town, setting forth their principal resources, population, industries and the character of the surrounding country, for the information of homeseekers. Many thousands of copies of the book are annually distributed by the Union Pacific company in the middle west and eastern states.

On Tuesday morning, Feb. 11th, there passed over the Great Divide a pioneer of eastern Oregon, Joseph H. Sherar, than whom none was better known among the early settlers of this section. Mr. S. came to The Dalles in 1862, from California, with the first pack train ever used in Oregon; selling it two years after he soon settled on a homestead, where he afterwards built Sherar bridge and grade. From that time to the present Wasco and Sherman county history is not complete without the name of J. H. Sherar.

Henry Richelieu of Wasco has suffered a severe loss of horses during this month from an affliction resembling spinal meningitis. Out of 27 head 16 were stricken, of which 8 died. It is the opinion that the disease was caused by winter feed, straw and stubble. The horses on the ranch which were comfortably stabled and well fed were not stricken with the disease. So far as we have heard Mr. R. has been the only loser by this disease in this section.

The first spirited debate in the senate this season was on the bill offered by Senator Borah of Idaho to revise and codify the Federal criminal laws by offering an amendment making it a penal offense for any United States senator or congressman to appear in court in any case in which the government may be interested. The amendment went over without action, Borah giving notice that he would continue to urge it until a vote was taken. There is a law now on the statute books prohibiting senators and congressmen from accepting fees for appearing before any government department and under this law Senators Burton and Mitchell were convicted, but there is no law prohibiting any senator or congressman to act as attorney for any corporation or individual which is opposing or opposed by the United States government in court.

W. H. Moore was in Moro on business a part of Saturday and Sunday of last week.

Mrs. Geo. Laselle of Oregon City has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. F. J. Meindl.

J. A. Bolton of Kingsley, was visiting his brother-in-law, G. E. Thompson, and family this week.

Mrs. McGrath, proprietor of the Moro bakery, was a visitor to Hood River this week, returning Saturday.

Get a "skate" on Saturday eve, at the masquerade skate, and have a good time. Plenty of skates and good music.

Hugh Schull and wife of Kent and C. P. Ragedale and wife of Enterprise, Oregon, were guests at the masquerade ball on the 14th.

W. D. Scott has leased the blacksmith shop at Monkland and will have it ready for business by March 1st. Your patronage is solicited.

Editor Westerfield of the Grass Valley Journal has purchased the two story brick building in which his office has so long been located.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cushman and daughter, Mrs. Lottie Pearson, are visiting Mrs. C's daughters in Portland, Mrs. H. A. and W. H. Moore.

N. W. Thompson received a full blood Polan-China boar by express February 15th. Mr. Thompson makes a specialty of fine bred stock, not the least of which is hogs.

The steamer Telegraph, which has operated for several seasons between Portland and Astoria, will be placed on the run March 15. She will make the round trip daily as heretofore.

Mrs. John Johnson made a special trip to Wasco this week to consult with Dr. Hartley, dentist. A cavity in a tooth was found to be causing the neuralgia from which Mrs. Johnson was suffering.

George Gilbert Bancroft, a lecturer of several years experience under some of the best lyceum bureaus of the east is delivering a series of four lectures at the M. E. church, under the auspices of Moro High School. The lectures which Mr. Bancroft has so far delivered are instructive and well worth attending.

The next illustrated route book of the Union Pacific railroad will include all important stations on O. R. & N. system in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. It will give facts of interest concerning each city and town, setting forth their principal resources, population, industries and the character of the surrounding country, for the information of homeseekers. Many thousands of copies of the book are annually distributed by the Union Pacific company in the middle west and eastern states.

On Tuesday morning, Feb. 11th, there passed over the Great Divide a pioneer of eastern Oregon, Joseph H. Sherar, than whom none was better known among the early settlers of this section. Mr. S. came to The Dalles in 1862, from California, with the first pack train ever used in Oregon; selling it two years after he soon settled on a homestead, where he afterwards built Sherar bridge and grade. From that time to the present Wasco and Sherman county history is not complete without the name of J. H. Sherar.

</