Our Last and Best Proposition.

A good many are taking advantage of The Observer Club rates this winter, as printed on the 4th page. Here is one, finest and best of all:

Oregonian 12 months	$1.50
Observer 12 months	1.50
Youths Companion 12 months	1.75
Toledo Blade 12 months	1.00
Thrice-a-Week World 12 mos.	1.00
N. Y. Tribune Farmer 12 mos.	1.00
Total value	$7.75
Subscriber pays us	5.00
Subscriber saves for himself	$2.75

☞ See additional list on 4th page.

The Observer has been established nearly 21 years, and it has some subscribers who have received it regularly for more than half a score of years. Many of these object to having the Old Reliable discontinued at the time of expiration of their subscriptions, and for their benefit, as for other reasons, we discontinue subscriptions only when notified to do so, except by agreement made at the time the account is opened, when it is noted upon the calendar to be discontinued promptly at the time specified. All persons paying in advance at the time of subscribing, will have the benefit of the $2.50 rate for two years, or the $5.00 rate for five years. We send The Observer to any responsible person who orders it, though they may not send the money with the order, with the understanding that they are to pay 12½ cents per month for it, until such time as they may wish to take advantage of the above liberal discounts. From this date we are prepared to discount rates to all leading Weeklies and Magazines published in the United States, to any prepaid reader of The Old Reliable Observer. Come with the money—as that is indispensible.

Being born in February appears to have been a habit with quite a number of our great men.

It will be seen that Taft runs quite as well in Ohio as in the several other states that are whooping things up for him.

If the grip germ would only make a warning noise, something like a rattlesnake, everybody would be less afraid of it.

W. S. U'Ren has come out for United States senator. His home is in Clackamas county and he claims to be republican.

The single man who doesn't get a leap year proposal hasn't much to brag about, and if he does get one he shouldn't brag about it.

The last lie about Senator Fulton: That he made an attack upon the president at the recent Ankeny banquet, is emphatically denied by a dozen guests at the time. Next.

Mr. Bryan says his wife is qualified to become mistress of the White House. We have never understood that there was any question concerning Mrs. Bryan's fitness.

Under the latest decision of the U. S. supreme court, that the Elkins law was not repealed by the Hepburn act, the Standard Oil Co. have no further defense against payment of the $29,240,000 Landis fine.

Why offer amendments to the Aldrich bill? Why seek for it substitutes? It is bad from top to bottom. It puts in the hands of stock gamblers, with a complaisant, feeble or ignorant secretary of the treasury, the power of manufacturing money. It mortgages business to Wall street. It should be beaten.

Our northern neighbors are ahead of Uncle Sam in forestry protection. British Columbia has turned into government forest reservations 150,000,000 acres of timber land, or all that it owns outside of leased tracts. From such leases, which run twenty-one years, with possible renewal, the government receives $1,275,000 a year.

The water power question is growing in importance in all the enterprising states. In addition to spending $100,000,000 on the enlargement of its canals the state of New York will make available 1,000,000 horse power generated by water, which will yield a public revenue of $6,000,000 a year. Next November the voters of Illinois will pass upon a proposition to utilize the power at the head of the Illinois river. What is Oregon doing?

Suffering and Dollars Saved.

E. S. Loper, of Marilla, N. Y., says: "I am a carpenter and have had many severe cuts healed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It has saved me suffering and dollars. It is by far the best healing salve I have ever found." Heals burns, sores, ulcers, fever sores, eczema and piles. 25c at Moro Pharmacy.

HAVE YOU HAD IT?

We boast of the healthfulness of Sherman county. Statistics cannot duplicate it. But for the past 40 days and nights Sherman county people, adapting themselves to circumstances and the style in vogue in America, have nearly worked the doctors to death with calls for the grip.

Most persons are inclined to think that grip is a new, or fashionable disease, something like stu porous melancholia, appendicitis, or brain storm, or whatever it is that they have most recently discovered in the way of pathological terminology.

Yet it seems that grip is one of the oldest unpleasant acquaintances of the human race. It is an affliction which was known by the name of la grippe in France as far back as 1772, and that seems reasonable when we consider the length of time it usually takes to break up an attack of it. In these modern days victims of the disease usually refer to it by a short and uglier word, and that word is not liar either.

There was an epidemic of the malady in Paris in 1847, and Mme. Viasdot, the famous Russian writer, wrote of it thus: "Of the 200,000 inhabitants of this city, 199,999 have the grip. The only one that is free is Louis Philippe, for he has all sorts of good luck."

So it may be seen that even that long ago grip had come to be accepted both as a joke and a general misfortune. Authorities seem to agree that the term for the malady comes from the fact that it usually takes a firm grip of the throat when it claims a victim and uses this means of incapacitating him from resisting other and further torture. In the English language it seems that the name la grippe was used in the London epidemic of 1803. The other and, in this country, older word for the same malady is influenza, and, in tracing the origin and accuracy of this term, the Boston Herald offers some interesting information. It says:

"La grippe has been taken into the English language and anglicized as grip. The first use of the latter word noted by the new English dictionary was in a Boston newspaper of 1891, for Lowell, in 1904, mentioning the disease preferred the French spelling. Yet grip, "rapine, violence or a violent catching, forcible taking of other men's things," was the spelling of the French word in the 17th century. As Camile Flammarion's encyclopaedia puts it, 'the debut of the disease is brusque, and the disease sticketh closer than a brother, and is loath to farewell the victim.'" So say we.

At a banquet recently given in the Rose city, John F. Logan, the principal speaker, asserted that "Oregon has no constitution as such; that our constitution, so-called, might as well be incorporated in the justice of the peace code or any other part of the ordinary practice statutes, by reason of the fact that it requires no greater effort to amend the constitution than it does to enact or amend any ordinary law on the statutes. The Oregon constitution, such as it is, contains such ridiculous provisions as the clause against negroes living in the state or owning property therein, a provision against Chinese living in the state, owning property therein or working in certain capacities. The constitution absolutely prevents the issuance of such remedial currency in times of financial stress as clearing house certificates, and contains none of the up to date provisions with reference to railroad, banking or insurance provisions." But remember this, Mr. Logan, Oregon has an editor (?) Scott, said to be able to pay Jonathan Burns $25,000 in gold coin to help elect Scott to a seat in the U. S. Senate, and as Mr. Scott is working tooth and toe to defeat the laws we have, isn't the future hopeful?

"'Don't trifle with a cold,' is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Proper food, good ventilation, and dry, warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are maintained through the changable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the chances of a surprise from ordinary colds will be slight. But the ordinary light cold will become severe if neglected, and a well established ripe cold is to the germs of diptheria what honey is to the bee. The greatest menace to child life at this season of the year is the neglected cold." Whether it is a child or adult, the cold slight or severe, the very best treatment that can be adopted is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure. The great popularity and immense sale of this preparation has been attained by its remarkable cures of this ailment. A cold never results in pneumonia when it is given. For sale by Moro Pharmacy.

Masque Carnival a Success.

The masque carnival at the Rudolf skating rink Saturday night was a success in every way. The crowd of spectators was large and there were many maskers, whose costumes ranged in character from grave to gay. The antics of the clowns were funny and created a great deal of amusement, for to skate and be funny at the same time is not easy, but they did all that was expected of them. Miss Vía Sayrs carried off the prize for the best lady character, representing the cowboygirl; J. M. Green took the prize as best gentleman character, representing Happy Hooligan. Ed Tomlin took first prize as best gentleman skater and Jas. Hulse took first prize as best lady skater, he being dressed as a woman. Supper was served at Moro Hotel, 67 numbers being at the first table.

The New York Tribune Farmer.

Horses, cattle, sheep and swine, are owned probably by four-fifths of the readers of The Observer, and all, farmers and the man with but one horse or cow, in country or village, would be greatly benefitted by reading from week to week the fine articles on the care and treatment of live stock, by Dr C D Smead, the world famous veterinary writer, in the New York Tribune Farmer. Dr Smead's articles appeal to practical men, and no live stock writer in the United States gives more information of every day actual value, prolonging the usefulness, and saving the lives of valuable animals. These articles, with the other departments, poultry, horticulture, dairy, science mechanics, etc, keep the N. Y. Tribune Farmer in the lead of the Agricultural press of the United States. Additional Local Mention

Don't send us for free publication anything of an advertising character.

All locals will be run till ordered out, unless otherwise specified.

Don't ask us to send you names and address of correspondents. That is a private matter between them and us.

Copy for ads, changes, etc., must be in the office before 2 o'clock p. m. Wednesday to insure proper care and attention.

Don't send us articles on politics, temperance or religion. Discussion of such topics only leads to violent and abusive language in the end.

Avoid personalities. Compliments delicately given are always acceptable, but even they must not be overdone, as the charge of incincerity is apt to follow a shower of pretty nothings spread broadcast.

Before coming to the city to trade readers are requested to examine The Observer advertising columns. Its the active, wider awake business man who advertises, consequently he is the most accommodating, sells the cheapest, and deals the most liberally in every way.

DOING THEIR DUTY

Scores of Moro People are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow,

Urinary trouble, diabetes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all.

Wm. Berrman, Sherman, St., Hood River, Oregon, says: "I was feeling quite miserable when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills but I am glad to say that they quickly cured me of the complaint. My kidneys were very weak and the secretions gave me a great deal of annoyance, as they were entirely too free in action. My back was very lame and caused me much suffering whenever I bent over or attempted to regain an erect position. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of all this suffering and it gives me pleasure to recommend them to others."

A Big Ballot.

At the state election in June voters will need to go early and take their lunch, for the ballot will be a veritable blanket sheet. In addition to the list of state and county candidates to be selected from, there will be various measures to be considered and it is none too early to be making a study of them.

Here is the list:

To increase the annual appropriation for the state university to $125,000.

To require railroads to issue passes to all state, county and district officials.

To appropriate $100,000 for national guard armories.

To give sheriffs exclusive control of county prisoners.

Amendments to the constitution for which petitions have been filed or are now being circulated are:

To increase the number of judges of the supreme court from three to five (by legislature.)

To give political parties proportionate representation in the legislature.

To provide for the recall of public officials and to elect their successor.

To take from the district attorney the power of indictment and invest it exclusively in grand juries.

To exempt certain property from taxation.

To prevent the legislature from amending or repealing initiative laws (by the state grange.)

To give each city or town the sole right to regulate its business houses, gambling, theatres and the like as it pleases

To extend suffrage to women.

Petitions to the following bills have been filed and are being circulated:

The corrupt practice act. Limiting the amount of money that candidates may spend for campaign purposes. (By U'Ren.)

Requiring all legislative candidates to subscribe to Statement No. 1. (By U'Ren.)

For the division of Wasco county and the creation of another county, with Hood River as the county seat. (By the people of Wasco county.)

Prohibiting the fishing for salmon, except with fish wheels, between Celilo and Astorio. (By The Dalles fish canneries.)

Prohibiting the fishing for salmon above the mouth of the Sandy. [By the Astoria fishermen.]

Enlarging the powers of the Port of Portland in the interests of better navigation on the lower Willamette and Columbia rivers. [By the people of Multnomah county.]

We will not be responsible for the neglect of subscribers to notify us of changes in their address. Nor will the notification of a Postmaster that the subscriber has "Removed" settle the bill of a delinquent.

"Everyone Exclaims — About Our Lights!"

"THE LAMPS are splendid. Everyone exclaims about the amount of light they give," writes Mrs. W. T. Reese, Tiffin, Ohio. "My City friends visiting here say they are as good as gas. In fact, my home is now considered the best lighted house in the county. Why, when we go visiting our neighbors of an evening it is hard to keep from exclaiming about the poor light they have!"

The Angle Lamp is the new method of burning common kerosene oil, and is as different from the ordinary lamps in results as it is in appearance. It makes common kerosene the best, the cheapest and the most satisfactory of all lighting methods. Safer and more reliable than gasoline or acetylene, yet as convenient to operate as gas or electricity.

The Angle Lamp

is lighted and extinguished like gas. May be turned high or low without odor. No smoke, no danger. Filled while lighted and without moving. Requires filling but once or twice a week. It floods a room with its beautiful, soft, mellow light that has no equal.

And yet the lamp actually pays for itself. For while the ordinary round wick lamp, usually considered the cheapest of all lighting methods, burns but about 5 hours on a quart of oil, The Angle Lamp burns a full 10 hours on the same quantity. But send for our catalog "" explaining the new principles employed in this lamp, and for our proposition for selling on

30 DAYS TRIAL

Wouldn't you like to have your home admiringly referred to by your neighbors as "the best lighted house in the country"—if you knew such a light would cost so much less than your present system as to pay for itself in a few months use? Then write for catalog "" describing The Angle Lamp fully and listing 32 varieties from $2.50 up. It is free for asking.
