One newspaper has the audacity to wonder whether count Boni was so much to blame, after all.

It is expected that the Venezuela trouble will warm up some when the asphalt beds begin to boil and the jimsoms are in bloom.

N. J. Sinnott for state senator, and Fred W. Wilson for district attorney, won out in Wasco county.

After August 1st $64,000,000 of 3 percent government bonds will be redeemable and can easily be refunded at 2 per cent.

That distinguished foreign lecturer who expresses surprise that "so many New York women are without anything to do in the morning," forgets that bridge does not begin till after luncheon.

President Roosevelt is said to have given members of the house committee on naval affairs confidential information as to why four new battle ships should be authorized by the present congress.

A New York democrat was sent to jail for asking, "why should the democratic party adopt the raven as an emblem why should it make the donkey its personification?"

Within this month a Michigan lumber and salt company has been fined $20,000 for accepting rebates from the Pere Marquette Ry.

Last year the people of the United States spent $315,000,000 for electrical manufactures, yet many more still in active business remember the time when a few simple instruments in college laboratories, with no practical utility, covered the whole field of electrical knowledge.

At 14 points on the Canadian border immigration officers have been stationed to turn back applicants for admission who are physically unfit.

The grain crop of the Pacific Northwest for 1907 exceeded every estimate made of it. Oregon, Washington and Idaho produced 58,000,000 of wheat, 10,000,000 bushels of barley, and 12,000,000 of oats.

A Diagnosis. To her tongue it felt just a simple sore, but the doctor, "It's awfully simple to give you relief. But it's my firm belief that it's merely the back of your diaphragm." -Lippincott's.

Tommy's Choice. Little Tommy Whacken was taken by his mother to choose a pair of knickerbockers, and his choice fell on a pair with a card was attached stating, "There can't be beaten." -Current Literature.

The Exception. Of time and tide, 'tis asserted, They will not for any man wait. But they must have to pause for a woman, because She must fasten her hat on straight. -Boston Post.

Country life has its drawbacks, but it has its great advantages which overcome them. Those who live in the country are called rubes and hayseeds by some fools in the cities, but the boast of the successful business men in the world today is that they were born on a farm.

A Twenty-Year Sentence. "I have just completed a 20-year health sentence, imposed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which cured me of bleeding piles just 20 years ago." writes O. S. Woolver, LaRayville, N. Y. Bucklen's Arnica Salve heals the worst sores, boils, burns, wounds and cuts in the shortest time. 25c at Moro Pharmacy.

The Way trains connect at Biggs now, passengers have ample time both coming and going, for an extra nice dinner at the Biggs, with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Heckard. Don't forget The Biggs, in your travels; there is time enough. The table is supplied with everything nice, and the rooms are new, neat and clean.

Plenty of Trouble. Is caused by stagnation of the liver and bowels. To get rid of it and head ache and biliousness, and the poison that brings jaundice, take Dr. King's New Life Pills, purifiers that do the work without grinding or griping. 25c at the Moro Pharmacy.

Good Proof. "You weren't yourself, uncle, when you came home last night." "Oh, I must have been! Your aunt wouldn't have let another man in." -Judge.

A Little Revision of Burns. A (her folk are) 'o' fair's, And o' their morals I've ma' doct'ed. Oh, wad some power the giffle gie them To see themselves as I can see them! -Buccoo Magazine.

An Insultation. "For weeks," he began, "I have had no idea." "It must have been very lonely," interrupted the fair maid. -Denver News-Times.

GOOD TIMES THIS YEAR.

*Persons who are still so much affected in their minds by the financial disturbance of last fall as to imagine that the country is now in a bad condition, and that things are going to grow worse, show their inability intelligently to note the trend of the times.

THE DOWNWARD COURSE.

Fast Being Realized by Many Moro People.

A little back ache at first. Daily increasing till the back is lame and weak.

Urinary disorders quickly follow. Diabetes, and finally Brights disease. This is the downward course of kidney ills.

Don't take this course. H C Stute, of Hood River, says: "My wife has used Doans Kidney Pills, and she thinks there is nothing like them for kidney complaint and its attending symptoms."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doans—and take no other.

Card from Mr. Catron. To the Republican voters of Sherman county:

Gentlemen: To my friends who so faithfully stood by me, in the face of misrepresentations, for the office of County Judge, I cannot find adequate words to fully express my deep gratitude and appreciation for the support they so generously gave me.

Very truly yours, E. S. CATRON, Wasco, Or.

He Got What He Needed. "Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come, says G. Farthing, of Mill creek, I. T. I was run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee, 50c at Moro Pharmacy.

The Secret of a Beautiful Face. Lies in keeping the skin protected and well cleaned and washed is not enough—only the delicate surface must be exposed to the action of dust and germs to mercurial attacks of sun and weather.

ROBORTINE. You will admire the lineless softness of its texture, its neck and arms. It not only stimulates a radiant glow, but protects the skin from becoming rough and cracked.
