How to Get Strong.

P J Daly, 1247 W Congress st, Chicago tells of a way to become strong, he says "My mother, who is old, and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it my duty to tell all who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In mothers case a marked gain in flesh has resulted. The same happy results followed; the insomnia has been overcome and she is steadily becoming stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold at Moro Pharmacy under guarantee, 50c.

A Paying Investment.

John White, 38 Highland Av, Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c bottle of Dr King's New Discovery, before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy results followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at Moro Pharmacy, 50c and $1; trial bottle free.

Grand Opening of Rich Fruit Land Under the Carey Act

15,000 acres of the most fertile land in the state of Idaho will be thrown open for settlement under the Carey Act

OCTOBER TWELFTH

This tract is on the south bank of the Snake river, on the main line of the Oregon Short Line Railway, eight miles east of Glenn's Ferry, a division point on that road. The choosing of the land will be under the supervision of the State Land Board of Idaho. Location unequalled, with the very best transportation facilities and closest markets. Climate uniform; no extreme heat or cold; lots of sun. Water is perpetual and a great surplus provides enough for 50,000 acres and 10,000 horse power besides. Soil is a volcanic ash, decomposed lava, and is vegetable mold. None better for fruits, alfalfa, and sugar beets.

Every year New York city throws into the junk heap enough buildings to accommodate a small city of 50,000 population. In ten years there have been torn down enough buildings to house 500,000 persons.

Our old-time friend I H Taft met with disaster and heavy financial loss in the destruction of his fishery ice plant, etc, by fire on the 10th, at Celilo. The electric light and water power plant, dwelling, fish wheels, and one dynamo, is all that was saved of about $100,000 worth of property, and no insurance. It is thought that a spark from a passing locomotive started the blaze and not having appliances with which to fight fire destruction followed. As the cannery had not been in operation for years, and the plant was operated by water power, insurance was considered unnecessary. Rebuilding will be commenced at once.

They Take the Kinks Out.

"I have used Dr Kings New Life Pills for years with increasing satisfaction. They take the kinks out of stomach, liver and bowels, without friction or fuss," says N H Brown, Pittsfield, Vt. Guaranteed satisfactory at Moro Pharmacy, 50c.

L R French is up from The Dalles on business this week.

Mrs J T Miller of DesChutes city, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs Huck, in Moro, a few days this week.

Teachers in Moro public schools for the current term are: Prof John Blough, 9th, 10th, 11th grades; Miss McConnell 6th, 7th, 8th grades; Miss Julia Woods 3d, 4th, 5th grades Miss Jessie Reese 1st, 2d grades.

After 36 days run, cutting 2200 acres, the Big 2 threshing outfit of L L Peets & Meloy, hauled in and cashed the crew. Besides their own they headed and threshed the crops for four others, and the average of all was better than 10 sacks to the acre.

J O Elrod has completed the purchase of 15,000 acres of farm lands in one body in Malheur county, the purchase price for which was $140,000. The Observer believes that J O will be able to realize four times $140,000 for it within ten years.

Mayor Messinger is about to leave Moro for good, and return to his old home—Yamhill county; having on a recent visit to the valley, purchased a lovely little farm four miles south of McMinnville. His residence in this city has been sold to Hon W H Moore, of Portland, pioneer mayor of Moro.

W S Cooper's recent accident has laid him up all during harvest, and so unfitted him for fall work that he has rented his farm, will sell off his surplus personal property and take a few year's rest from hard work. But he isn't the kind of material that can rest without work, and he will soon be heard of at the head of some affair in the Willamet valley.

The old Fort Dalles historical society is arranging to mark the lonely grave of F H Balch, author of The Bridge of The Gods. His remains are in an unmarked grave on the north bank of the Columbia. A meeting has been called for the 26th at the school house three miles below Lyle, at which the subject will be taken up.

A curious insect has reached the United States from Brazil. It is a beetle. At its head gleams a red ruby lamp, and 11 green lights glow forth from each side of the little creature. These peculiarities have earned it the name of the railway beetle, by keepers of the museum.

It is important that Sherman county make a good exhibit of its products as possible at the district fair in The Dalles. Visitors there will expect to see it, and if they do not will conclude that we have nothing worth exhibiting. Producers will secure every point of information desirable by addressing the secretary. See advertisement. We have a few premium lists and rules and regulations for distribution.

Mr Hale, of Portland, who was a guest at the home of Mr and Mrs J H Landry, and Mrs Clara Belobee, several days last week, has returned to the metropolis. His experience in the harvest here was a revelation to him, particularly the combination harvester, with its 32-horse hitched together. He held the ribbons over the W S Powell team one round and would make a pretty fair driver.

Bishop Paddock Bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Eastern Oregon, held Episcopal service in Moro Presbyterian church, Sunday evening, to a very large and a very appreciative audience. Rev Adams materially assisted in the service, and the full choir and congregational singing made the four walls of the good old church resound with glad praise to God. Responses to the services by men and women in the pews was surprisingly fine, and the remarks by Bishop Paddock were intensely interesting, and were treasured by those present. We hope he may come again, soon.

Our old-time friend I H Taft met with disaster and heavy financial loss in the destruction of his fishery ice plant, etc, by fire on the 10th, at Celilo. The electric light and water power plant, dwelling, fish wheels, and one dynamo, is all that was saved of about $100,000 worth of property, and no insurance.
