Those canned speeches sound a little dull since the campaign has become so lively.

The political waters appear to be troubled, yet no one suggests pouring Standard Oil upon them.

If, as Dr. Jackson asserts, one fly in one week can carry 6,600,000 bacteria how shall the people rule?

Besides being mightier than the sword, there are times when the pen has something on the stump speech.

Recent campaign events will help the prophets of both big parties in figuring out a rousing victory next month.

When a statesman starts out to make a wise like a has-been, the country shows no symptoms of being thrilled.

Send The Observer to your absent friends. It is better than a letter, and gives all the home news. Four months for 50c.

Another man attributes his downfall to "wine and women," but the lesson will not have a bit of effect on others.

A Chicago man has gone into the business of raising turtles. It's not difficult to foresee that he will land in the soup.

With the more recent instance in view of the governor of Oklahoma people need no longer say "as dead as Julius Caesar."

Mr. Rockefeller's autobiography will get more exciting as it approaches the point where somebody burned the books.

The Old Guard's paramount issue is a stolen election. How characteristic of its general record and standard of politics.

Japan has gone ahead and discovered a number of new oil wells, without asking the consent of the Standard company.

It is announced that King Edward is out of debt. Now, like the Village Blacksmith, he may "look the whole world in the face."

If that correspondence between Roosevelt and Bryan continues very much longer, the available supply of asbestos paper will be exhausted.

Sales of special one way tickets from all points in the United States to all points in Oregon begins Sept. 1st, and continues until Oct. 31st. See adv.

An Indiana man reports that he was chased some distance by a shooting star. Could it have been Nan Patterson or some one of her friends?

Edison may be taking a physical rest, but his imagination may be working overtime; he predicts that we will fly to the north pole in 40 minutes.

Bryan's speeches of 1895 were not canned nor prepared in phonograph form, but they were as plain as pie in one of the best regulated establishments on Salt creek.

Records from class room encounters and from the human target practice in the woods, shows that the college boys and the hunters are making a close race for the casualty record.

Russia is now attacked by a foe which gives no quarter and against which 10 inch guns are powerless. Riot, revolution and cholera in the train of the disastrous war with Japan have imposed a heavy burden of woe on the Czar's empire.

MAYOR O. J. GOFFIN.

At a meeting of the city council Monday evening the resignation of Mayor J. W. Messinger was accepted and Dr. O. J. Goffin was unanimously chosen to fill the vacancy.

It may be appropriate for us, at this time, to assert that it is the duty of every bona fide citizen to frown upon croaking. Cut it out. Any man who has made money in a community and wants to take it away with him and go somewhere else, has a perfect right to do so.

There can be no faction in a city like this—the property of one individual, and every improvement honestly made, enhances the value of all property in the corporation.

This is a great country; in spite of any lumber trust we still have for sets of burn.

Delaura Beach is the place for a summer outing. Get particulars of W H Moore, room 5 Lafayette building, 6th and Wash., Portland, Or.

If Mrs. Gould can get the court to give her alimony amounting to $120,000 per annum, it will be much better for her than to take in washing.

It is said there are more blonde criminals than any other. Still, blondes who have managed for a life time to keep out of jail, need give themselves no unnecessary worry.

Russia has planned for a special agency to study agriculture in this country, which shows that Czar Nicholas knows how to make a wise selection after looking over the field.

A New York woman is on the stage in order to support her husband. Isn't it refreshing now and then to meet one of the profession who is not actuated solely by the desire to "elevate" art?

Registration opened Sept. 20 for Presidential election, and closes on October 20.

All who are 21 years of age and citizens of the United States, are entitled to register, providing they have resided in the state six months.

Elections are voted on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

Electors meet at the state capitol the second Monday in January and vote by ballot.

The votes are counted by congress the second Wednesday in February.

The president-elect is to be inaugurated on March 4 next.

HER LOYALTY TO PARTY.

Dinner had been over ten minutes when Jones made a move down the hall for the hall tree and his hat and the long suffering Mrs. Jones followed after to say: "You have been out every night for a month. How long is this thing to last?"

"The bulwarks of Liberty are tottering to their fall! Shall this country be ruled by patriots or traitors?"

And Jones went down to his club and played poker until 3 o'clock next morning.

NEWS AND NOTES.

Born, October 7th, to Mr and Mrs. E E Barnum, a daughter.

"I have the goods, and am doing the business," is what W H Moore says in his advertisement today.

"A Connecticut horse refused to eat a roll of $1,300 in bills which he found in his feed." Perhaps it was tainted money.

Hon W H Moore, formerly of this city, always has some choice bargains in real estate. See the list today, in The Observer.

A sure cure, and one you can depend upon, is Hickory Bark Cough Remedy; a sure cure, and its pure Use it for all lung trouble, coughs, colds, hoarseness and sore throat.
