New Goods Arriving Daily.

MORO COMMERCIAL CO.

R M Brash left for Puget sound Wednesday.

Sick folks are all getting well in this neighborhood.

Sheriff Freeman had business in Arlington last week.

Hon EO McCoy and party returned to The Dalles from Honolulu on the 14th.

Born: Friday, March 12th, to Mr and Mrs Charles R Belshee, a daughter.

C R Bone was up from Hood river on the 17th, and delivered to Dr Goffin their new auto.

Miss Nettie Sigman is one of the Chronicle contestants for the free trip to the Seattle fair.

Grandpa Carl Peetz has received the sad news from Blue Island, Ill, of the death of his only brother.

Conductor W E Lytle is again at home on the C S Ry, lying over in Moro every other night, under the new regime.

The County court has been asked to appoint Mr Buxton Justice of the peace for this precinct in place of Justice Dunahoo resigned.

Buff Leghorn and Plymouth rock eggs for setting, may be had by applying to Mrs M H Rust, 1 1/2 miles south of Moro, at the regular price.

March 27th residents of Moro school district are to meet and choose two directors in place of Judge Littlefield and Fred Meindl, resigned.

Mr and Mrs Daniel McLachlan, of Portland, and Mr and Mrs Ira K Axtell, are housed up with a gripe at the farm home of the latter.

Mr and Mrs W H Andrews were Moro visitors last week, on a bridal tour as it were, paying taxes, etc. We acknowledge a very pleasant call.

Sales of 1,200 autos daily are reported from the Portland auto show, some days. Moro gets two, one to Dr Goffin, and one to W H Ragsdale.

The horse stolen from T E Sink, from a Wasco hitching post, has been found; grazing on the range, but the saddle and bridle still are missing.

All those broken bricks should be raked together and hauled to an out of the way place. They are mean things for the feet of a horse at a hitch-post.

Quite a number attended the Development League meeting at Grass Valley on the 15th, but the most particular business came up for action at the meeting yesterday.

Arizona has asked the government to set aside the Santa Catalinas mountains as a refuge for hunted wild things. A fresh batch of land thieves is on the run and will be interested in this item.

Congressman Ellis has succeeded in doubling the pension of our fellow townsman Uncle Peter DeMoss, an Oregon Indian war veteran, dating from March 3d, the day the bill was signed by the president.

After the clean up in Moro tomorrow the council have made arrangements with the county for use of the road machine to level off rough places in the city streets. Many of the humps are bigger nuisances than some of the filth depositories about town.

Millinery Opening Announcement. Mrs Strahl has two expert trimmers at work this week. Miss McCoy of Salem, and Miss Mabel Wright, and has an unusual amount of stylish up-to-date hats with patterns, children's hats, etc. Opening, Saturday (tomorrow), March 20th.

Messrs McDermid brothers, long recognized as prosperous and leading farmers of Sherman county, were up paying taxes, etc, this week. Archie paid us a cheerful visit, but somehow John must have got lost in the city, and didn't find our old shack. We're still at the old stand, John; and the latch string hangs at the outside; come in.

The circumnavigating sailors of America would rather pass through two summers a year than participate in the festivities of a single March blizzard at the national capital. American patriotism is equal to sleeping on a doctrap in such a blizzard as that of March 4th, but a reasonable change in the date of the great event of inauguration would remove the necessity.

Mrs Strahl has prepared for the ladies' selection this season an exquisite collection of new spring and summer hats; the most sumptuous creations you could conceive; their exclusive distinctness are sure to fill your most cherished fancies, and the assortment is so diversified, the colors and trimming effects so charmingly lovely that any woman is sure to find patterns to her liking. See notice of opening day tomorrow in another column.

"Keep the money at home," and "Buy only Oregon made goods," in this decade every newspaper in the state gratuitously for two years; but the newspapers are shy on advertising revenue along those lines.

Avenarius Carbolineum is a germ destroyer. Decay being a germ, it destroys the cause of decay in posts or timber. The "U.S. Government, the ORNCO, Multnomah county, and city of Portland, are making general use of it on bridge timbers, etc. It is the best chicken lice destroyer on the market, and will sweeten and preserve a water trough, pig pen, stable, etc., and keep away flies. It is a guaranteed article. The Observer Book Store is distributor of the pure article in Sherman county.

Capt E W Baughman, who has been master on both the Willamet and Columbia rivers since 1856, now living retired at Lewiston, gives it as his opinion that in not to exceed 10 years the waters of the Columbia will be so detracted from their regular channel for irrigation purposes that there will be no more steamers and the life of his first enterprise will be past, as the fruit industry is assuming such proportions that it will take the water supply of both the Columbia and Snake rivers to wet the adjoining land.

The Pendleton Tribune says that Nathan Clark of the Cornelius hotel in Portland "will erect a 4-story modern hotel in The Dalles," to cost $150,000, etc. This will surprise Mr Clark, perhaps, who may have a thought that he was to be lessee. The story reminds us of an early incident of the famous Chemeketa, at Salem, the finest hotel in Oregon in its day. Rocky Earhart was lessee, and at the time we speak of Jim Comstock came down the road with a couple of ladies to look in upon the assembly for a few days and Rocky put up the best he had for Jim was noted as an epicurean of the fine quality. At the end of a week Jim called for his bill. After studying it seriously for half an hour he approached the desk saying, "Look a bear, Rocky; there's some mistake about this; I didn't want to buy this 'ere hotel—I thought I was leasing it."
