Mr and Mrs H S McDanel left on a trip to Portland Sunday.

Attorney W H Ragsdale was called to Eugene city on real estate business last week.

Gospel meetings now in progress at the Baptist church, commence at 8 o'clock p. m. You are invited.

Two autos driven by E D McKee and Frank Lamborn, carrying nine Wasco ladies, came up yesterday to participate in the social and lunch served by the Ladies' Aid Society at the home of Mrs Stanley. Two weeks hence the Wasco Ladies are to entertain in like manner at the home of Mrs M. Pherson, at which several Moro ladies are expecting to be present.

A party in honor of Nathan Lockhart was given at the home of Mrs Maus, attended by 15 young people. A pleasant evening was spent playing games, working puzzles, etc. Motions were: "May God bless our home." "Yes, Jesus loves me." Winners of prizes were: Bonnie Hockman and Mello Wheat; lunch was served with candies and lemonade.

O A Ramsey now has the entire front of the block upon which his pretty residence stands, and has begun some very desirable improvements there, removing shacks like the Peoples' barn and the Old Joe pest house.

Ladies of the Dorcas Society enjoyed the social at Mrs Wm Morrison's Wednesday. Mrs Axtell and Mrs James Woods were the recipients of prizes. The next meeting for work, Wednesday April 21st, will be at the home of Mrs James Woods.

A London surgeon says few people are conscious of the risks they run by permitting dogs to lick their hands and faces. They are liable to get infected with a dangerous kind of worm, which in mankind forms cysts in the brain, liver, and other parts of the body, and is known as the hydatid; the worm itself exists in the dog. The danger is so well known to hygienists that a by-law exists which renders the keeping of a dog in a slaughter house illegal. Recently a case of the disease occurred in a London dog breeder.

We were delighted with a visit on the 13th, brief though it was, from Capt John T Apperson, Department Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of the state of Oregon. Mr Apperson is on a tour of official visits to the Grand Army posts in the Inland Empire, and stopped over in Moro Monday night. Our fellowship dates back to early in the 60's, when The O. Man planted the Enterprise battery in Oregon City and had stood off the copperhead faction in Clackamas county as long as was necessary; but those scenes have all passed into history, and now with a nation united, which none dare defy, it is pleasing to talk over the old times that tried men's souls.

Easter Sunday services and the children's exercises, singing, etc., at the Presbyterian church in Moro were especially fine and attentively listened to by a large congregation. The auditorium of the church which had just been renovated and nicely papered and trimmed, was handsomely decorated for the occasion and from the beginning to the end the exercises passed so smoothly that more than two hours were consumed without the least restlessness apparent in the audience. All did so perfectly that any special references might seem invidious. Our Methodist friends, we understand, also had some very excellent exercises following the regular session of the Sunday school.

April showers are now due, and will be welcomed.

The Barnum-Atwood party went to San Diego by auto from Los Angeles.

Allan Murray is confined to his room in the Peoples building with a seige of serious illness.

Miss Grace Thompson has been quite seriously ill for a week or two past, but is now improving.

For a nice bracelet or neck chain and locket, in the latest styles, call on L W Ross the Wasco jeweler.

Thomas Jay has been arrested in Celilo for theft; in other words: Jay has been pulled in for a robbin'.

Wess Brock claimed the filly advertised for sale tomorrow at the Neil McDonald farm, and the sale is off.

C R Belshee claims the watch fob advertised in The Old Reliable last week. Who saw it don't pay to advertise in The Observer.

We have just received a nice assortment of the latest things in spring jewelry. Call in and we will be pleased to show them to you. L W Ross, Wasco.

If there was a law approved last February, extending the homestead privilege to 320 acres in certain cases, known as the Mundel act, The Dalles land office has not been notified of it.

An $8,000 span of horses, big, glossy black, 2300 lb fellows, were driven into Moro Wednesday by L L Peetz. Few counties in America produce better horses than Sherman county, Oregon.

I D Pike will now be settled in a new and comfortable home in this city, a non-resident-owners relic very handsomely renovated near the park and to which has been added thirty choice fruit trees.

Construction work at building the new opera house has advanced this week so far as to be visible, and if Sunday should be a 'love of a day,' people will take in the view in their Sunday afternoon stroll.

The steam threshermen of Oregon, 700 strong, representing an investment of $2,500,000, are to hold a convention in Portland beginning May 6th. This will be the first meeting since the organization was perfected.

O A Ramsey now has the entire front of the block upon which his pretty residence stands, and has begun some very desirable improvements there, removing shacks like the Peoples' barn and the Old Joe pest house.

One of the choicest souvenirs of Easter Sunday at our hand is from little Margaret DeMoss, a photo postcard of herself and 140 fluffy ve chicks running about the brooder, where Margaret is giving them a sun bath.

After a spirited session of the State Editorial Association in The Rose City last week, the editors are at home again. Decision as to an advertising policy that shall be uniform, was one of the most important features of the convention.

Holy rollerism is likely to get a new start in Oregon. The Mitchell woman who killed her brother at Seattle, and who (to save hanging) was sent to the Steilacoom asylum, has escaped, been paroled and come back to Weibost.

The new steamers of the Open River Transportation Company the Inland Empire and Twin Cities both fast, beautiful boats, are now both running regularly on the Columbia and Snake rivers between Celilo and Lewiston, connecting with the J N Teal from Portland, and the business is first class.

We just about believe that the astounding deal of the criminal Jas Davis, in this city, was a good thing for Moro. It brought about the improvement of premises that might have continued to be an unsightly nuisance for years. As it is now Messrs Peetz and Ramsey have inaugurated a system of improvement as gratifying to the public as it is profitable to themselves.
