Church and Society notices FREE, except when for money making purposes. Such notices at regular rates at the option of the publishers.

We will not be responsible for the neglect of subscribers to notify us of changes in their address. Nor will the notification of a Postmaster that the address has "been removed" settle the bill of a delinquent.

Did it ever occur to you that it costs no more to produce printing that is pleasing to the eye than the other kind? The Observer is equipped with all modern facilities for doing good work at the very minimum of cost. Try us with an order and if it is not executed to your perfect satisfaction you need not pay for it.

A man is in no condition to settle down until after he has settled up.

Just because a woman is fond of turkey drumsticks is no indication that she has a musical temperament.

Verily it is the people who do the most advertising in The Old Reliable Observer who do the biggest business.

Some folks give collar buttons on Christmas and expect good watches on New Year day. But they don't live about here.

Gilliam county farmers do not propose to pay one cent to Mr. Gaines without an investigation as to the rightfulness of his claims.

Portland is fighting for better milk, and at last that quaint old Webfoot town Salem, is bestirring itself for better water. May both win.

It is better to resolve and fall than never to resolve at all. This may be especially applicable for the New Year, but it holds good any time.

It seems like summer here when one reads of rains in the wake of the blizzards from Winnipeg to Boston and along the routes way down south.

A good resolution for tomorrow is this: I quit worshipping great heroes, who live a long way off, and in future worship the good citizens around home.

It is astonishing how readily, on any pretext the prices of commodities go up, and how slowly they go down. Unless it is a "mystery" like Rock Island stocks.

Close the year hopefully; begin the new one with a song in your heart, and a girding up of the loins for greater things than you ever have done before.

A Kansas city spinster worked 27 years in one hotel without taking a vacation, and left $5,000 in a bank when she died. Her heirs will now take the vacations that she missed.

Frank A. Munsey is making a bushel of money out of his Philadelphia Sunday Evening Times; his magazines are all paying, he never has any exchanges; and nobody ever heard of him doing anything but make money.

Good will is half the battle in the progress of a city. If the earnest and unswerving will of the people is wholeheartedly aimed toward the upbuilding of community interests, the ways and means will soon provide themselves.

We do feel sorry for Dr. Cook who is either the most maligned man alive today or he is the biggest fakir that ever got in his graft. Public sentiment is with him, want to see him make good his claim that he did actually reach the north pole, but he has been branded as a fraud so often that one is almost forced to the conclusion that these charges are true.

The big Hay creek ranch is to go out of business because others than Mr. Edwards of England, have sheep to graze upon the forest reservation. He nor his flocks will be missed after a short time, and the extensive land holdings of his monopolistic corporation will serve a much better purpose split up into an hundred farms for another hundred industrious home-keepers.

Elder John Tonkins will preach in DeMoss springs School house next Sunday morning and evening at 11:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning theme: "How Christ came to Church." Evening theme: "How the protestant misinterpret the Bible." The Fallacy of their own Bible published in hell.

New Year's Bella.
Paulinus, bishop of Nola, introduced the bell into the Christian worship in the year 400 A. D. The first bells were made in Campania; hence the term campanile, or bell tower. The adoption of the bell into the services of the church soon gave the chiming the comforter's office in the minds of the devotee. In their simple faith the worshippers believed that consecrated bells had the power to prevent storms, to drive away evil spirits and to bring repose to the sufferer.

The direct forerunner of the New Year's bell is what was known as the "passing bell." This was rung at the death of a believer. In theory devils troubled the expiring patient. Moreover, they lay in wait to trouble the soul the instant it passed from the body. But the peals of a consecrated bell were believed to possess a potency that the most malignant of devils could not withstand; hence with every death the ringing of the holy bells exorcised the evil spirits and assured the soul a happy passing into a future of untroubled peace.

From this ancient custom developed easily and naturally the habit of ringing out the old year and ringing in the new. The parallel between the death of a human being and the death of the old year is clear. All that was evil in the old year, all that it had brought of misfortune and worry, was supposed to be resolved into nothing by the music of bells ascending the steeple at the mysterious midnight moment of transition.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

A National Pay Day.
New Year is the national pay day in China. All accounts must be squared up at that time, and the man who can't raise enough to pay his debts has to go into bankruptcy. The laws are such that the creditor can enter the debtor's house and take what he pleases if there is no settlement. To prevent such action families club together and make all sorts of compromises to keep up the business reputation of the clan. New Year's is a great day for the pawnbrokers; their shops are crowded with people who want to redeem their best clothes before the new year. There are crowds who want to pawn other things in order to get money to pay their debts. Pawnbrokers receive very high rates of interest, in which they are protected by the government.—Philadelphia Press.

Sweeping Out the Old Year.
On New Year's eve in Yorkshire and some other parts of England people with blackened faces, decked with ribbons and paper flowers, etc., each carrying a broom, go the round of the houses and offer to sweep out the old year for the occupants. They are generally rewarded with crescent shaped New Year's cakes or butter and eggs.

IT'S ALWAYS BAD

The Best of Backs Are Bad When They Ache, and More People Know It.

E. W. Midlem, 410 Main Street, Oregon City, Ore., says: "About six months ago kidney and bladder trouble caused me great suffering. I tried many remedies, also a doctor's prescription, but was not benefited. I knew my kidneys were disordered by the irregular passages and unnatural appearance of the secretions. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and after I had taken the contents of one box all symptoms of my trouble had disappeared. I gave this remedy my highest endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Extras.
"I say," said the messenger boy, "that nearsighted man in 496 just fell over a broom and spilled a pail of water on himself."
"Take him up a towel," said the hotel manager, "and charge him for one bath."

Dr. Successfully Treats Pneumonia.
"In treating pneumonia," says Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., "the only remedy I use for the lungs is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy; while of course I would treat other symptoms with different medicines, I have used this remedy many times in my medical practice and have yet failed to find a case where it has not controlled the trouble. I have used it myself, as has also my wife, for coughs and colds repeatedly, and I most willingly and cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other cough remedy to my knowledge. For sale at Moro Pharmacy."

Ozone and Water.
Ozone is the best agent for purifying water, because it adds nothing except oxygen, which assists in aeration.

For Eczema, Tetter and Salt Rheum.
The intense itching characteristic of these ailments is almost instantly allayed by Chamberlain's Salve; many severe cases have been cured by it. For sale at the Moro Pharmacy.

For That Dull Feeling after Eating

I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for some time, and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was heavy, dull feeling after eating, says David Freeman, Kemp, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels; they are far superior to pills, and cost no more. Get a free sample at Moro Pharmacy, and see what a splendid medicine it is.

Humility.
St. Peter (to applicant)—What was your business when on earth? Applicant—Editor of a newspaper. St. Peter—Big circulation, of course? Applicant—No, small, smallest in the country. St. Peter—Pick out your best page.

For a Lame Back.
When you have pains or lameness in the back bathe the parts with Chamberlain's Liniment twice a day, massaging with the palm of the hand for 5 minutes at each application; then dampen a piece of flannel slightly with this liniment and bind it over the seat of pain and you may be surprised to see how quickly the lameness disappears. For sale at Moro Pharmacy.
